Convivia to Perform Free Concert at Cal Poly Aug. 18

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Convivia, an all-female vocal trio that specializes in both early music and contemporary compositions, will perform at 12:10 p.m. Aug. 18 in Room 218 of the Davidson Music Center at Cal Poly.

Brought together by a love of vocal music and the desire for new challenges, the group performs repertoire ranging from Renaissance madrigals to American folk song.

The concert will draw from those varied styles and include sacred music spanning six centuries, the madrigal “Four Arms, Two Necks, One Wreathing” by Thomas Weelkes, Benjamin Britten’s arrangement of “The Salley Gardens,” and the American Sacred Harp tune "The Morning Trumpet," arranged by Meredith Brammeier, a Cal Poly Music Professor and co-founder of Convivia.

The public is invited to the free concert, sponsored Cal Poly's Music Department and College of Liberal Arts. For more information, please call the Music Department at 756-2406.
