RESOLUTION ON THE NAMING OF BUILDINGS

Background Rationale: The naming of buildings in the memory of deceased individuals or in honor of living individuals is a sensitive matter that should be handled with discretion. However, in a matter of such permanence, the need for discretion should not preclude reasonable consultation with the various segments of the campus community. The purpose of this resolution is to provide for such consultation in an atmosphere conducive to rational discourse.

WHEREAS, the naming of campus buildings in the memory of deceased individuals or in the honor of living individuals is a matter that affects the morale and working conditions of all faculty (and all segments of the campus community), now, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the President be urged to consult with the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate before the selection of any such name.
