LEADING ONLINE GAMING AND SOFTWARE SECURITY EXPERT TO SPEAK
AT CAL POLY OCT. 16

Gary McGraw, a global expert in the economics of online gaming, piracy, cheating and software security, will speak at Cal Poly Oct. 16, from 11:10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., in the Spanos Theatre. The event is free to the public. McGraw is first in the Fall Distinguished Speaker Series presented by the Orfalea College of Business.

McGraw is an expert in online computer gaming, a $9.5 billion industry in 2007. McGraw will draw a comprehensive picture of the sometimes controversial security techniques used in multi-platform online gaming. He will also explain how techniques developed for today's online gaming will be adapted by industry to ensure tomorrow's software security. For more information, visit

EXAM PROCTORS ARE NEEDED FOR THE FUNDAMENTALS OF ENGINEERING EXAM

The exam will be offered at Cal Poly on Saturday, Oct. 25 by the California Board for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors. Approximately 14-20 exam proctors are needed for the all day exam. Proctors cannot be engineering students and the Board prefers non-students to serve as proctors. Faculty, staff, retired faculty, retirees, etc. are encouraged to apply. Proctors must be able to: physically move around the exam room; fill out a seating chart and roster of examinees; check calculators; and carry answer bulletins.

The job pays $10 per hour. Those interested in participating should send name and contact information (email and/or phone number) to Chris Pascual at cpascual@calpoly.edu or call ext. 6-1306. Respond by Wednesday, Oct. 15.

BENEFITS OPEN ENROLLMENT ENDS FRIDAY

This is a reminder that the Benefits Open Enrollment period closes Friday, Oct. 17. Open Enrollment allows benefits-eligible employees not already enrolled in a health or dental plan to do so. For those already enrolled, Open Enrollment provides the opportunity to change health or dental carriers, enroll or cancel Flex Cash participation, and add eligible dependents. All changes made during Open Enrollment will be effective Jan. 1, 2009.

This is also the time to enroll (or re-enroll) in the Health Care Reimbursement and Dependent Care Reimbursement Account plans for the 2009 tax year. These plans provide a perfect opportunity to pay for out-of-pocket health and dependent care expenses with pre-tax dollars. To continue participation, you must re-enroll each year during Open Enrollment.

You will find highlights, new premium rates, and instructions for submitting requests to Human Resources in the Open Enrollment Newsletter located on the Human Resources Web site at <http://www.afd.calpoly.edu/hr/benefits/whatsnew.html>, as well as in the Human Resources Office, Administration Building, Room 110. Only Enrollment Worksheets received in Human Resources by the end of the day on Oct. 17 will be processed. Questions can be directed to Human Resources at ext. 6-5436.

Also of note, important changes are coming soon to the TSA Program. In late October, current TSA plan enrollees will receive instructions on how to continue in the program. Action will be required for continued participation. As information becomes available, it will be posted on the Benefits "What's New" Web site noted above.

CHICANA LATINO FACULTY STAFF ASSOCIATION CONVOCATION SET FOR OCT. 17

SYMPOSIUM ON NATIVE NORTH AMERICAN LITERATURES AND CULTURES SET FOR OCT. 19-21

Cal Poly, in collaboration with UC Santa Barbara, will present a three-day symposium celebrating Native literary studies in an international context. Scholars of Native North American Studies in Europe, Taiwan, and the United States along with major Native North American writers and intellectuals will convene at UCSB and Cal Poly with students and community members Oct. 19-21.

The symposium will offer an opportunity to reflect on the historical encounter between Europe and Native North American cultures and discuss the current status and future orientation of Native American Studies in an increasingly global world. The event is free and open to the public. For specific times and locations and for further details, including featured distinguished writers and critics, and a full schedule of events, visit http://www.cla.calpoly.edu/es/transatlantic\_voices.HTM or contact the Ethnic Studies Department at ext. 6-1707.

CALL FOR FACULTY RESEARCH PROPOSALS

The University Honors Program is requesting faculty research proposals to initiate the 2009 Honors Undergraduate Research Program. For highly motivated Honors students to participate in your research activities, submit a research proposal by Monday, Oct. 20, at 5 p.m. Funding is available for selected research projects. For more information about the Honors Research Program and research project submission, visit <http://www.honorsprojects.com/>

SATELLITE BROADCAST OF CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S CONFERENCE SET FOR OCT. 22

Cal Poly will broadcast this year's California Women's Conference on two campus cable television channels. The campus community can tune-in to channels 2 and 18, from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. to watch the day-long conference. Under the leadership of California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger and First Lady Maria Shriver, The Women's Conference has grown from a small government initiative for working professionals into a far-reaching organization and an international network of women from all walks of life, backgrounds and perspectives. For more information about the conference, visit <http://www.californiawomen.org>
