Cal Poly ASI Sponsors Debate on 'Pro-Life vs. Pro-Choice' May 21

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- ASI's "True Life" series returns to the University Union Wednesday, May 21, with a debate titled, "Pro Life vs. Pro Choice."

The event begins at 8 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium. Admission is free for Cal Poly students with ID, $10 for the general public.

Nadine Strossen, president of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) will debate Scott Klusendorf, president of the Life Training Institute.

Strossen has written and lectured all over the country and is the first woman to be president of ACLU, the nation's largest civil liberties organization.

Klusendorf is considered one of the most effective pro life speakers and travels throughout the United States and Canada training pro-life advocates how to persuasively defend their view in a public square.
