A Christmas party given by the members of the Amapola Club in the Household Arts Building was held on Friday evening, December 9.

The entire building was decorated in appropriate colors consisting of holly, and green and red streamers. In one room was situated a beautifully decorated tree, surrounded by the usual sign was given with the appropriate things to eat.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and dancing down stairs, while on the second floor, guests were having their fortunes told, and daringly going thru the old world for themselves. In the latter part of the evening the presents were given out by Santa Claus and before leaving the Christmas tree room every person was given an apple, a pop-corn ball and a stocking filled with good things to eat.

The appropriateness of the presents was a source of fun, for almost every gift was a suggestive of some trait of the receiver. At eleven o'clock the usual sign was given that every one must depart. So with their remembrances of the Amapola party, the entire crowd went homeward.

LETTERMAN CLUB.
The lettermen of Polly, held a meeting Wednesday, Nov. 16, in the living room of the dormitory, for the purpose of reorganising the Block "P" Club and electing its officers. Perry Martinson was elected president, Edward Burr, vice-president, and George Smith, secretary. The Club consists of men who have won their letters in football, baseball, basketball or track. The club is determined to uphold its two special rules, namely--that no man not entitled to a letter, can be a wearer of a block P, and that as soon as a man has legally won a letter he automatically becomes a member of the Block P Club.

Every Polyte should deem it an honor to become a member of this club. There is only one possible way of doing so, and that is, to get out for athletics.

THE HONOR ROLL.
The way in which so many of the Polytechnic students are applying themselves to work this semester is worthy of comment. The number having an average of 90 per cent or over has increased from thirteen to thirty-one the first month to thirty-one the second month. The Honor Roll for the month is as follows:

- Dorothy Prout		90.6
- Emyr Kinsel		90.7
- George Smith		90.3
- Klasne Meincke		89.4
- Sam Wright		89.4
- Margaret Laker		89.1
- Perry Martinson	88
- Alden Davis	88
- Everett Weant	87.9
- Helen Louis	87.6

Others having over 86 per cent in order are:
- Maxine Oh
- M. Chatten
- C. Miller
- L. Ferrell
- P. Chatten
- M. Chatten
- F. Smith
- E. Martinson
- M. Chatten
- E. Martinson

The following men worked at the polls for the Good Roads Bond election for San Luis Obispo County, December 16: John Brown, P. Martinson, L. Ferrell, O. Smith, E. Martinson, F. Piugger, K. Depew, M. Chatten, and E. Marquant.

Maxine: Oh. I know a good joke.
June: Yes I saw you with him yesterday.

Mechanics Association.
The Mechanics Association held its regular meeting during the fourth period, on Thursday, December 11.

Regular business was attended to, after which Mr. Hess, the speaker of the meeting delivered a most interesting and valuable talk to the members of the Association.

Mr. Hess spoke upon the value of school training, principally practical training such as we are getting in our own Polytechnic. He also spoke of the question of getting a job after the school training has been completed.

It is almost impossible for those who learn Mr. Hess fully to realise the value of the advice given in his talk. It seems to be a part of human nature that men do not realise their great opportunity in school until after they have bucked against the old world for themselves.

Kelvin Club.
The Kelvin Club of the Polytechnic school spent a very pleasant evening last Saturday with Miss Margaret Chase at the Foxen Apartments. The regular business meeting was followed with a very pleasant program which consisted of several songs by the male quartette, Messrs. Whitlock, Hess, Hudepohl, and Saunders with Mr. Yeary as accompanist; a reading by Mr. Jenkins; piano solo by Mr. Yeary; carol singing by the Club, and ended with a Christmas tree which included a real Santa Claus represented by Mr. Jenkins. Everyone present received a gift with an appropriate sentiment in rhyme. After the gifts were distributed each member read aloud the rhyme which accompanied his gift. Then the revel broke up with the guests declaring Miss Chase to be a very delightful hostess.
The football squad was a very good example of the general spirit existing throughout the school. A get-up-and-go-get-'em "pep" that can't be beat. The kind of spirit that is bound to make a school and board to make men and women.

The discipline on the school grounds is as good as could be expected from a bunch of young fellows full of "pep." The football squad was a very good example of the general spirit existing throughout the school. A get-up-and-go-get-'em "pep" that can't be beat. JOKES

Ditmas — (Poultry lesson) Why do hens lay eggs in the day? Time only.

Gill— I don't know.

Ditmas— Well at night they are roosters.

Olander— Did "Mac" kiss you last night?

Mildred Burr— You don't suppose that he came all the way from Edna to hear me sing.

Miss William— I wonder where all my plans go to.

E. Bum— I don't know, they're always pointed one way and headed the other.

The factories predict a shortage of bathing suits next year.

Some people think that they are short enough.

Miss Hoover— I've lived on vegetables only for a number of weeks.

Prof. Yeray— That's nothing, I've lived on earth for a number of years.

H. Ditmas— I haven't slept for days.

W. Miller— What's the matter, sick?

H. Ditmas— No, I sleep at night.

Marquart— Hey, Mallet, duck your head in that bucket of water.

Mallet— Why?

Marquart— I smell wood burning.

Prof. Yeary— Not all persons make fools of themselves.

Boys— No, some are born that way.

The Dorm Dance

On Friday, December 6 the dormitory boys were hosts to their girl friends at the "Dorm Dance." Alto Jupiter Pluvius was opposed to such an affair and sent down as much moisture as was possible. The San Luis Obispo were pressed into service and the dance went on as planned.

The dormitory was very prettily decorated for the occasion with holly and school colors, and a fire in the fire place made things look homelike.

Dancing started at 8:30 and, by permission of Major Livernash and chaperons, lasted until midnight when all disbanded after having a very enjoyable time.

For particulars ask anyone that was there.

SINSHEIMER BROS.
School Notes

The new dirt Basketball court is nearly finished.

The Basketball men were out for Basketball Saturday afternoon.

They were getting in trim for the game Wednesday with San Luis High.

On Friday evening at the Amacola Club's party everybody was enjoying himself until about 9:30. Fred Pluggir was the guest of the evening. His situation was called to noticing in the Physics Lab. He, not suspecting anything, took it seriously and followed Mr. Smith. He was taken down into the Lab. in a few minutes he found himself in ropes. He was startled at first but saw his chance; so getting away was slim. So he took his medicine.

Guards were on duty consisting of two men. Miss Chapin was somewhat puzzled. She thought her little Freddie had given her the slip. But everything went on all right until time to go home. Mr. Farrell was the lucky man. After they had gotten away up the road Freddie was turned loose. He then came to the dormitory as his partner had gone home. Fred does not know which is best—to be (in love) or not to be. It's awful anyway to be in love.

The military uniforms have arrived from the East. Almost everybody has been issued his uniform.

The football team of '10 had its picture taken Thursday evening. Mr. Ryder and Mr. Bendel were the photographers. They took a few of time exposures and flash light pictures.

Mr. Boss dropped in on the boys of the Dormitory last evening and offered his services in teaching the boys to dance. Great interest was shown in the first lesson. Slim Gardner furnished the music. The dances danced were the waltz, fox trot, Virginia Reel, and one step.

The Trustees of the School have given $100.00 for fixing a basket ball court at the Civic Center for Poly.

The Athletics Committee met Friday afternoon after school and straightened out the problem of transportation of the various teams to games. The awarding of letters was also discussed.

Sunday night the Dorm boys were playing ball. Walter Hillbrick, a new recruit, was at bat. Sam Guyton was pitching. Walter did not know that he could dodge or else his energy was exhausted because the ball took his hat from his head. At this rate Poly is sure of a pitcher who can control his pitching since he can knock a hat off from a person's head.

Alfred Brown. (Dago, Joe) one of Poly's most popular men last year, successfully made the Varsity football team at Davis this year. He played in the Davis-University of Utah game Thanksgiving at 10 degrees below zero.

Murrey Kerr is a "holder-on" at the San Pedro Ship Yards.

FOOTNOTE:—The cage belonging to the "Canary Bird Club," mysteriously disappeared last Saturday night. Well, in a very liberal reward is offered for its return. Without the cage, the Club's motto will be shattered.

Signed,

Darcy Moore

The faculty must feel quite childish since the Christmas party for their presents were of a nature denoting childishness. Some time in the future we hope to have Mr. Boss give us a musical number on the "banjo."

There was not much mourning on the part of the students last week because of the number of rainy-day sessions they had.

Sam Wright blushed quite freely while being asked if his heart palpitated. "Yes," said Sam, "my heart palpitated very much." Who is she, Sam?

Who was the goat in the dormitory on the night of December 18? Well, to be frank about it, there were several who received considerable chastising. To begin with, Bud lost the door to his room and also his bed, and several other inmates of the "dorm" lost their bedding. It must have been the work of the "anti-bird-feeders." Later on in the evening there was quite a bit of conspiracy going on, but it was done on the Q. T., the result being that Miller, the ringleader of the anti-game, and a hated enemy of the birdseed man, was tarred and feathered at 8:30 in the morning. Kara syrup was used in the place of tar. Lulu is a good sport and did not mind a good shower in the wee hours of the morning.

What's going to happen next?

From the entire football squad only eleven were recommended for monograms. The athletic committee agreed that sixty minutes of actual playing in the three games Poly won would qualify a man as winner of a monogram.

The following is a list of the eleven men who have been recommended for monograms, together with their various years of experience:

Seniors

Brown, John 3
Martinzen; Perry 3
Minor, John 3

Junior

Burr, Edmund 2
Blake, Dago 2
Brown, Harold 1
Hodel, C. 1
Rowan, Joe 0

Freshman

Hicks, Sam 0
Guyton, Samuel 0

Specials

Perrell, Lloyd 0
Miller, Louis 2

Laurence Rhodes forfeits his letter, since he is suspended from school, and Edwin Maugard lacks ten minutes of playing to be entitled to a monogram.

The pigskin is now laid aside and it is hoped that next year will be as successful as this year, but with a much larger schedule.

The teachers are spending the holidays at their respective homes. Those going south are: Miss Whitling, Miss Chase, Mr. Has and Mr. Yeary. Miss Williams will go to Pasadena, Mr. Whitlock to Whittier, and Miss Wooddall to Santa Monica.

Those spending vacation in the north are: Miss Hoover at Palo Alto, Mr. Saunders and Mr. Bendel at San Francisco, Mr. Watson at San Jose, Miss Howes at Berkeley, and Mr. Hodspeth at Oakland.

The members of the faculty who will spend Christmas at home are: Mr. Figge, Miss Rumsey, Mr. Nord and Mr. Jenkins.

Mauroce Cheds, a former Poly student, commenced his life long troubles Wednesday, December 16. He married Miss Elsie March, a very popular San Luis Obi ano girl.
