TRAVEL WITH ALUMNI IN 2009

IN 2009, the Cal Poly Alumni Association will be traveling to two equally beautiful and fascinating countries, China and Italy. These travel opportunities are open to Cal Poly alumni, parents, family members and friends.

CHINA AND THE YANGTZE RIVER DISCOVERY
April 29 – May 11, 2009
NO LONGER THE “SLEEPING GIANT” described by Napoleon, China continues to hold its rightful place as one of the most fascinating countries in the world. Discover its finest cities, exotic countryside and storied history on this unique travel opportunity that showcases the many treasures of a fascinating land at an exceptional value.

TUSCANY–CORTONA
September 16 – 24, 2009
FROM THE INNOVATIONS of the Etruscans to the enlightenment of the Renaissance, Tuscany is a region steeped in history and human achievement. The inspiration for Frances Mayes’ book, “Under the Tuscan Sun,” Cortona captures the charm of Italian country living. We’ll visit Siena and Umbria as well as the “Cradle of the Renaissance,” Florence.

Looking for that perfect holiday gift? Longing for the beautiful Central Coast scenery? “The Art of Robert Reynolds: Quiet Journey,” a 176-page hardbound book by noted artist and retired Cal Poly Art Professor Robert Reynolds, showcases paintings of scenes from the Central Coast as well as the California Sierras. Alongside the paintings are written musings by Emeritus Journalism Professor Jim Hayes and Reynolds. The artwork of “Quiet Journey” truly transports the reader into the beauty and landscape of California. “Quiet Journey” is available at El Corral Bookstore or Cal Poly Downtown or can be purchased online at www.elcorralbookstore.com/books or by phone at 805-756-1161.
