III. Reports:

A. Academic Senate Chair: (Hannings) The first social hour of the 2004-2005, co hosted by the President’s Office and the new College of Education, be held Thursday, September 30 from 4-6 pm at Vista Grande Restaurant. The Academic Senate office will initiate election of faculty to the search committee for the Provost position. ASI representatives on Academic Senate Committees have been granted early registration status in exchange for their full participation. Academic Senate Committee chairs are asked to keep track of student attendance. State legislation mandated a transfer curriculum at the Junior College level that is accepted across the CSU. Deans and Department heads have been asked to recruiting faculty to participate in this lower division transfer project. Last Spring an error was made in the procedures of the Academic Senate where Robert’s Rules were not properly applied when counting the votes for the CMS resolution. For future reference, abstentions will count as negative votes and this procedure clarification will be announced to the entire Academic Senate at the first meeting schedule for October 5. A search for Athletics’ Director is currently underway. At this time, Cal Poly has sufficient funds to hold IRA fees at current rates. President Baker’s response to all resolutions can be found by clicking on http://www.calpoly.edu/~acadsen/resolutions.html

B. President's Office: (Howard-Greene) President Baker’s remarks from Fall Conference will soon be available. Sandra Gardebring, interim vice president of university advancement will assumes her duties on October 18. Gardebring succeeds Bill Boldt, who recently accepted a position at UC Riverside.

C. Provost Office: (Detweiler) the current budget has cleared all deficits and has a small operating reserve. Assuming that the Governor’s compact holds, Cal Poly is looking a 2% enrollment increase and 3% compensation increase for next year. A 13% increase in construction cost has created significant problems on the three facilities currently under construction. The Student Administration, PeopleSoft implementation is under way with a new revised cost of $11.9 million not the originally estimate of $15 million.

D. Statewide Senators: (Hood) Statewide Senators met in Long Beach were the main topic of discussion continues to be the budget. This year’s budget received a $225 million increase and the increase is expected to go up to $310 million next year. Chancellor Reed announced an attempt to bring faculty salaries up to those of comparable institutions. Currently CSU Presidents have a salary that is 37% lower than their counterparts.

E. CFA Campus President: None.

F. ASI Representative: (Mednick) ASI will hold an orientation next week where goals for the year will be decided.
