Cal Poly launches philanthropic foundation; former Foundation now Cal Poly Corporation

A new auxiliary organization, named the Cal Poly Foundation, has been created to lead campus philanthropic activity and manage endowments and investments. The new Cal Poly Foundation will focus on fund raising and asset management, according to Sandee Ogren, vice president of university advancement and CEO of the new Foundation. The former Cal Poly Foundation has been renamed the Cal Poly Corporation, or CPC. It retains many of the same leadership and functions that it had before, including El Corral Bookstore, Campus Dining, Mustang Graphics, University Graphics Systems and Sponsored Programs administration. The new Cal Poly Foundation has taken over management of endowment and gift funds and will contract with the CPC for accounting and endowment administration services. For information on the CPC, contact Starr Lee, legal counsel, at ext. 6-1131 or selee@calpoly.edu. For information on the new foundation, contact Mike McCall, associate vice president for university advancement, at ext. 6-7106 or mmccall@calpoly.edu.

Information sessions, tours set for Bella Montaña

The Cal Poly Housing Corp. has scheduled information sessions on two Saturdays, March 18 and April 8, for prospective buyers interested in learning more about the Bella Montaña faculty and staff residential community. The sessions will be from 9:30 a.m. to noon and will include information about the homes' features, application procedures, and sales process, as well as a question-and-answer session and site tour. Prospective buyers will be shown two of the buildings, showcasing six of the 10 floor plans. Agents from Wilson & Co. Real Estate and mortgage loan representatives from Mid-State Bank & Trust will be on hand to answer questions. The March 18 session will be held in the Conference Room in the Cal Poly Corporation Building (formerly Cal Poly Foundation Administration Building, #15). The April 8 session will be in UU 220. The first selection process for 18 homes is open to faculty and staff whose employment started between July 1, 2001, and March 31, 2006. The application deadline is April 20; selection will be made May 4. For information about the selection criteria and other details about Bella Montaña, visit www.BellaMontanaHomes.com. Registration is required to attend an information session. Those interested in attending should call Ann Roy at ext. 6-1131.

'The Lovely Bones' selected for '06 Preface program

Preface: the Cal Poly Shared Reading Program has selected "The Lovely Bones" by Alice Sebold as the 2006 selection for reading and discussion. The story, told from a 14-year-old girl's perspective in heaven, reveals just how much was taken from her when she was raped and murdered. The Preface program will be seeking volunteer discussion facilitators for this year's event, which will include a free public presentation by Sebold on Oct. 12. Facilitators will be able to sign up on the Preface Web site beginning mid-April. For more information, contact Patricia Ponce, director of the Preface program, at ext. 6-1380 or pponce@calpoly.edu.

Effective teaching with technology focus of training

ITS Technology and Learning Services and the Center for Teaching and Learning are sponsoring weekly workshops in Effective Teaching with Technology during spring quarter. The nine sessions will be held 10 a.m. to noon beginning Thursday, March 30, in the library, Room 510-B. Participants are asked to try to attend all nine sessions. The workshops will provide hands-on training in Blackboard and other software applications. The workshops are designed for beginner and intermediate Blackboard users. Enrollment is limited. For more information, go online to <http://tls.calpoly.edu/training/learningcommunity.html>.

Travel assistance, services available

Eligible employees will be covered under a new comprehensive travel program of information, referral, assistance, transportation and evacuation services designed to help in case of medical-care situations and other emergencies that might arise during a trip. MEDEX Travel Assist can also provide information about passport and visa requirements, foreign currency and worldwide weather. The benefit is available to all employees eligible for employer-paid life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance provided through Standard Insurance Co. Employees can confirm enrollment by checking the employer contribution section on their current pay warrant for a "LIFE INS" deduction. Enrollment is automatic; no action is necessary. More information can be found at http://www.calstate.edu/Benefits/carrier.materials/2005\_Medex\_Brochure.pdf and from Human Resources, Adm. 110.

Two retirement receptions set for March 14

Health and Counseling Services is hosting a retirement reception Tuesday, March 14, in honor of two longtime employees: Joanne Dompke, a nurse practitioner for more than 22 years, and Betty Kroeze, head of support staff who has served Cal Poly for 34 years. The reception is planned from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Health Center.

Get fit for less: Health club reduces membership fees

The enrollment deadline for faculty and staff to become corporate members of Kennedy Club Fitness has been extended to March 31. For about $27 a month (approximately half the regular rate), corporate members may go to any of the four county Kennedy Club locations. Enrollment fees for a spouse are $35 a month; 10 to 18-year-old dependents pay $25 a month. Employees who are already members, may suspend their current membership to take advantage of the lower corporate rate. To find out more, contact Anji Roeser at 781-3488, ext. 25, or aroenser@kennedyclubs.com.
