MECHANICS WIND UP YEAR WITH BANQUET

The evening of May 29th will long remain in the minds of the Engineering Mechanics of 1928. On this same evening the students and faculty members of the worthy association with their lady friends dined at the Pismo Inn in which a banquet was thereby waiting them, with a fine array of chickens, clams, screwdrivers, and what not.

After everyone was full of that glorious feeling that you cannot explain but only comes at good banquets, Mr. Williams the toastmaster of the evening opened the program by introducing Mr. Todd of the Union Oil Company who spoke on the oil industry. Then interesting talks were given by Mr. Krent who spoke on mechanic associations and Mr. Wilder gave some practical pointers on electrical engineering. During the evening Mr. Williams let some inside dope on some of the members of the association.

Following the banquet a dance was enjoyed which helped to round out a perfect evening.

“A TAILOR-MADE MAN”

The second of Poly’s public presentations for this year only strengthened the reputation of the California Polytechnic School for her dramatic ability. The play dealt with the adventures and escapades of a young and ambitious tailor’s assistant. This part was especially well taken by George Bees, the assistant. A role of Hubor, the tailor, Margaret Ditmas took it. Tanya Harey played a sweet and charming garden maiden, and Douglas Annin, who at the time had just returned from a trip to Japan, portrayed the part of John Paul.

Col.Lifecycle directed the play and it is actually due to her that the play was a success, both dramatically and financially speaking.

FRESHMAN DANCE THE LAST AND BEST EVER

The last school dance of this term took place Saturday evening in the Dining Hall. The Freshman finished their record year 1 year as a lively wake calls. The hall was decorated in green and gold, the school colors, and gold and white, the Freshman colors. They even presented us with favors, white hats and gloves.

Moonlight waltzes were the feature of the evening and added all dance plates and gala to the last social function of the Class of 29 as

THE ASSEMBLY AND SENIOR DAY DOINGS

The assembly of June 6 was taken care of by the Senior Class. After announcements, Mr. Agpali presented the following boys with Block "P" and stars for basketball, track and baseball. Those receiving stars in basketball were: Douglas Annin, Walter Lumley, Ernest Patchett, Stewart Patchett and a Block "P" was awarded Palmer Powell. In track Virgil Wimmer and Walter Lumley received stars for the good showing they made in Modesto. In baseball Douglas Annin, Alen Davis, J. Urqueto, Stewart Patchett, Frank Lima, John Carrol were awarded stars, while Ivan Reynolds, Tony Balla, Warren Beyer and Dick Morrison received Block "P".

The real hit was when Margaret Ditmas read the class will and prophecy. According to all indications the class of 1928 will be the most successful ever.

Following the reading the assembly adjourned into the garden to see the Class tree (silk oak) planted and to witness the spade in all its colors presented to Allan Mourt by William John.

POLY’S NINE LOSES TO SANTA BARBARA

On Saturday May 26, the nine from Santa Barbara Teachers’ College invaded our campus and crossed bats with the Poly nine. Reynolds arm was in poor condition and the rest of the team did not play up to standard and therefore were able to score a long end of 9 to 0 score.

The game started with Phipp on the mound and Douglas Annin receiving behind the plate. As usual, the Poly nine was very well equipped and no spectacular plays "Dug" and "Doug" made. In the second inning those two boys started after a walk out of twenty minutes. At the third inning Douglas received a blow that layed him out for twenty minutes. And in the fourth inning that Reynolds handed the mitt and Ragsta delivered the curves.

The students did not take a very keen interest in baseball this year, but come out as they should so a full schedule could not be worked out, but of the three games played Poly was victor twice.

KEVIN CLUB CLOSURES YEAR WITH BARBER SHOP

Tuesday evening in the grove in the rear of the campus the faculty held a last beak together. Mr. Vernon furnished the beer that was barbecued. The evening was spent in dancings and general toasting.

McCabe: ‘I went to bed early last night and dreamed that I was gambling! ’And did the best wake you up? ’

ACS PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR; ELECTION HELD

The Agriculture Association on June 6 held their last meeting to elect officers for the coming period where the officers were elected: President, Ernest Hodges; Vice president, Rudolph Bahit; Secretary, R. Disfenderfer; treasurer, Jack Hammond; reporter, D. F. Rieth. With this group of officers the Agriculture Association will work on the farm with great success.

The Governing Board of our budget has compelled us, with deep regret, to eliminate all work for the girls and has made it impossible to retain for the next year the same faculty we had last year.

We wish the girls and the members of the faculty who leave us, success and happiness. Polytechnic will never forget them and we know that they will not forget Polytechnic. Their good wishes and loyalty will be extended to all the best wishes of the Poly girls who wish to resign.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AT Pismo

On June 8th, 1928 Junior and Senior members held their annual dinner at the El Pismo Inn. It was a last feast together, Mr. Vernon presented our class of 1928 with a last gift. At the Inn and was immediately upon the close of school this year.

POLY’S SITUATION NEXT TWO YEARS

The California Polytechnic School is not merely a budget school. It is a last feast together, Mr. Vernon presented our class of 1928 with a last gift. At the Inn and was immediately upon the close of school this year.

POLYGRAM BIDS YOU
FAREWELL FOR 1923

This, the last Polygram for 1923 was printed and finished without leaving the print shop on Poly Campus. It was thought for a while that the Polygram issued two weeks ago would have to be the last one, due to the crowded work on the Journal at the Tribune print shop, but better than have none at all, Mr. Davis suggested having it run out on our own press here on the campus. Here it is, to the larger, luckier, and department hater.

And now at the last of the school year the Polygram wishes to thank the faculty and student body for the spirit shown toward it during the past year. Some of you will probably never be at dear old Poly again and for those it says farewell forever, while some will be back to help it improve and grow for next year, for those, farewell until September.

DEDICATED TO SOME ONE
Many a ship has been lost at sea,
For not having sail or rudder.
Many a fellow has lost his girl,
By flirting with another.

H. Patchett: “Time must hang heavily on your hands.”
“Doc” Jackson: “Why?”
H. Patchett: “Because of that heavy wrist watch.”

about the kidnapping down town?”
32: “Oh, a goat went to sleep on the M. wall, 1928, where?”
