

EXECUTIVE EDITORS

Jennifer Freilach

Jenny graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in History and a minor in English. She is President of Phi Alpha Theta and is fascinated with the counterculture of the 1960s and '70s. As a recent graduate she spends her time working, reading, and solving the Rubik's cube.

Madeleine Aitchison

Madeleine graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in History and minors in Asian Studies and Women's and Gender Studies. She particularly enjoys studying the history of Southeast Asia. Madeleine will be starting a Masters program at the University of Hawaii in the fall.

AUTHORS

Allison Wilkinson

Allison is a third year History major. Her research interests include emotional history, baseball history, and history of college orientation. Outside of class she is a member of Phi Alpha Theta, a marketing intern for Cal Poly Athletics and an Orientation Team member for New Student & Transition Programs.

Cooper Peltz

Cooper is a third-year history major. Cooper would like to thank Dr. Firpo for teaching him how to write, Caleb Gotthardt and Emily Hock for checking books out of the library for him, and Keegan Koberl for being the Sam Gamgee to Cooper's Frodo during the writing of this article.

Blake Burgess

Blake is a History major who transferred from Cuesta College and will be graduating with honors in June 2016. His favorite subjects to research are labor history, radicalism, and terrorism. Blake plans to earn his teaching credential in History-Social Science and teach at the Middle or High School level.

Tessa St. Clair

Tessa transferred from Porterville College to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in Fall of 2015. She adores all areas of history, but is focusing her studies on 19th and 20th century American and European history. Her goal while at Cal Poly is to study abroad in London for a summer and complete a curating internship at a museum. She is currently working towards her bachelor's degree in history.

Alika Bourgette

As a first-year History M.A. student, Alika has found a new interest the Pacific Basin as a field of study. He hopes that his studies will deepen his ties to Hawaii and the American West, both places he calls home,

Charlie Williams

Charlie is a first year history major at Cal Poly. She is passionate about all aspects of history, but hopes to study the era of the Cold War more thoroughly because she finds the contrast between political views fascinating. Besides history, Charlie enjoys reading and exploring San Luis Obispo.

Rebecca Willis

Rebecca is pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in History with potential minors in English and Music. She enjoys studying European history and film. Campus interests include peer advising, tutoring, and student leadership. She is graduating June 2017 with plans to pursue a career in education at the graduate level.

Solange Kiehlbauch

Solange is completing a Bachelor of Arts in History with a minor in English. She will be continuing her education in Cal Poly's History M.A. program. Solange is particularly interested in medieval history, as well as the history of medicine and equestrian culture. Outside of the classroom, she enjoys horseback riding, reading, and writing fiction and poetry.