A NEW INSTRUCTOR

MR. DAVIS LEAVES

A new member has been added to the Poly faculty—Mr. H. R. Press, who has taken the position as head of the printing department at Polytechnic.

Davis who lately resigned his position on the head of the Printing Institute of Poly.

For the worthy test—Miss Lassie came to the Lassie in 1922. Since then she has been in constant attendance.

The process of the printing industry has always been an interesting one.

Like most of the other heads of departments, Mr. Press has gained the respect of his students through his experience which has been given him.

Mr. Press has been more or less actively connected with the printing industry since 1911. He held an appointment in the Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C. for a year and for three years was associated with one of the largest concerns in the field.

Although his loss will be keenly felt by the school, he will all his best wishes and wish him all the success.

New Business Manager

If you notice a change has been made in the business staff, there now is a new advertising manager.

Although this position is not one of the most publicized of the Poly activities and has made a host of friends in the school and in the business world.

The Degolyer Advertising Manager

George Crockett exchanged his Hop cadet for a roaster of the same make. He had the misfortune to burn out a bearing the other day, and he now spends half of his spare time at the office himself, and the other half washing it off.

Allen Stafford, another auto fan, is now the Ford enthusiast.

Ellen Martin went to Santa Barbara last weekend to visit her mother.

A number of the Dorm boys went out to watch the baseball game between the local team and the Ford Frosh. They made the rounds of the stands and the bleachers, and found the game quite enjoyable.

The boys are gradually recovering from the effects of the Dorm Club barbecue, which was held on Tuesday evening.

The dorm's radio set has been playing all day, and the radio fans are enjoying music in the evenings.

The cheerful, sunny, delightfully unpretentious "Spirit" of Poly's student body is one of the most appealing features of the college.

Doug—A Hero

It has always been the list of the most heroes in this world to journey through life unseen and unnumbered. Poly can be numbered among them.

Several days ago, when it was reported that Mr. Davis had died in a printing office, the story spread like wildfire.

The story spread quickly through the Junior class, who were being an old Spirit lout near the front of the Poly. Miss Dolly Fisher, a Junior student, was one of thePoly Club Carpenter, playing opposite her.

Answering to the call of greater opportunities Mr. R. C. Davis recently resigned his position as head of the printing department at Polytechnic Institute of Chemical Engineering.

When Mr. Davis left he did not know exactly what the work would be, whether on the road or in an office, but he thought he would most likely get a taste of both.

While Mr. Davis has been connected with the Poly organization he has mingled in many activities, and has made a host of friends in the school and in the business world.

Although his loss will be keenly felt by all his fellow students and wish him all the success.

The Dorm Barbecue

The annual barbeque was held by the Dorm Club last Wednesday evening, at the same place the Argus gave their last week.

Ennis Hodges and Don Kevith, official of the Poly women, and Hammond and Hill Lee made the coffee. The full fare consisted of meat, beans, bread, and coffee, and after everyone had reached his full capacity they gathered around the car, and Hill Lee entertained with a storytelling, and song.

As it was closed night, most of them adjourned to the Dormitory about half past eight, many of them voted the affair a huge success.

Doug: I would have been the one to curry on the good name of Poly, but now I have been replaced.

A Girl and a Ford

There is a girl, and a girl who is not a girl, but she is not a man. She is a Ford, a boy, and a Ford. Ask any of the Poly men at the railroad crossing and back.

For instance, take Allen Stafford; his car has been his best friend for a certain girl who was not in the dormitory, but was! in the dormitory. For a while Stafford could be seen sleeping around in it, but now he is not.

The result is, he bought a Ford, and his car is his best friend.

The Ford's been a Tin Lizzie for two. Ten tin Lizzies for two. Tin Lizzies for two. Tin Lizzies for two. Tin Lizzies for two.

Gift Presenens To Mr. Davis

Last Friday the President of the Poly Club presented Mr. Davis with a set of plating gunolina as a last year gift, over which they felt toward each other.

The group of Poly students, Dr. Press, and the others, made the presentation.

During the course of this year, Mr. Press has helped them in every possible way.

The gift was like a signal to them, and the next moment they were flashing in the sun.

The Argies Entertain

Talk about the Argus, the Aggie's answer comes rushing in, and instead of entertaining the student body with a program, they gave a tea.

Linley and Patchett held the back of the field, and did a fine job of it. They entertained for the event, and each leant his fence, and each joined in the fun.

Everyone fell to with a good appetite, and the food was served for them on a table with to comfort.

Doug's well known modesty prevents him from saying much about the accident.
THE PRESENT MONTH

March may be considered more of a religious month than patriotic, though, no matter what it is, it does not overlook the birthdays for the men who stand out in history and whom we should respect. First, it may be best to mention the great men public trust, everybody understood a religious month than patriotic, his statements in crisp, tening form, whom stand out in history and whom we . . . .

Miss Jordan: "It's tough to pay fifty cents a pound for meat."

Made Good Use of Him
A lady who kept a little curly-poo lost her pet and called on the police to find it. The next day one of the force came with the dog, very wet and dirty.

The lady was overjoyed, and asked the officer a silly question and being:

"Where did you find my darling?"

"In a sewer," said the officer, "a fellow had him on a pole, and when we got him he was very wet. He might have wanted to say something."

Purse: "I have never fallen for a woman anywhere or any time."

Pat Hodges: "Hey, you may not have fallen, but you sure have done some slipping and sliding."
BASEBALL

Poly baseball players have been on the practice field almost every day during this week. Capt. Deuel will start intense training for the team as soon as the ground gets dry.

Suits have been issued to all those who played last year. Also a few suits have been issued to promising prospects who came to light during the Poly interclass tournament.

The outlook for a winning baseball team has never been more promising.

HANDBALL

Another interesting handball schedule was made public last week. Although the entire handball court is being played off. This time everyone will have a chance to show his skill.

Each member of the Dorm Company is listed for a game with some other member of his company. Winners will be matched and eliminated until one man becomes the winner of the tournament.

The Town Company has also been included in the tournament. Both schedules are finished there will probably be a tough battle to see which company has the best handball player.

TRACK

Last week saw the start of track training at Poly. There are about a dozen men doing their laps every night at present. There has been no definite training given yet. The fellows are getting little by little cross-country run or about ten or twelve laps before breakfast every morning.

Some of the prospects for a team are: Bundy, Lumley, Ruld, Clements, McKean, E. Patrick, Dodge, Hammonds, R. Patrick, Haas, Truesdale and Carino. Reemster has been showing early, dark straight hair, and this promising.

When he starts out to do his laps he goes as fast as the time he.Turns no count system.

THE PLAIN OF A CHEM STUDENT

(Collected by Athleen Veuenar)

We had little test tubes standing in a row, Hz exploded and laid one low.

Five little test tubes standing safe and next.

A beaker tipped over and knocked one off its feet.

Four little test tubes without scratch or crack.

Two of them blew up and never did come back.

Two little test tubes standing side by side.

One exploded and the bits flew far and wide.

One little test tube standing by itself.

Then in a minute that fell off the shelf.

His little test tubes gone in a day.

And I left behind, with sixty cents tu pay.

A SHEIK

"Shiek" oh, what a thrill that name gives any girl.

When the word is mentioned it immediately comes to her mind—a tall handsome fellow, dark skinned, dashing, and a professional look. But that doesn't apply here. There is one sheik that can't be matched and eliminated.

One exploded and the bits flew far and wide.

Another exploded and the bits flew far and wide.

A SHEIK

Many true wealth is the good he does in the world.

A great change has come over our friend Douglas Amin of late. He steps out, keeps his hours, and several hairpins were found in his hair the other morning. Monday morning he came down to breakfast, drank a cup of black coffee, and returned home even as he was to do in days of yore.

Why is it that Clarence Haas never dances? He is popular with the girls and you couldn't find a better sport, but still he refuses to take a girl in his arms and swing around to the strains of the music. He isn't bashful and you couldn't find a better sport, as big to us as our faults are to him.

And his high standing be strong enough to, at least, make an appearance at the dance for which he was invited. We admit his true love, but believe that he is a time to show it.

Oh, girls, how beautiful you are, please don't tempt us too far! Poor Hubert, he didn't mean to do it.

Poor Hubert, he didn't mean to do it, but was just tempted—than all. Then, who wouldn't? A moustache, a machine, and a pretty brunette, that's enough to make any body forget that his class is giving a dance out at school.
