The Dorm Theatrical

The Dramatic Club favored the public with a production of "Rumors" on April 8. The eight acts, which were most amusing from the small but appreciable audience which attended, consisted of:
1. "The Tumbling Floor," in which William Young and Charles Mitchell were the most prominent. The production was highly criticized, although the applause was deafening.
2. "Three Kings and a Baby," a short sketch by Mrs. W. E. H. Miller and David Backer, in which Mr. Backer showed his ability to make a humorous sketch. The audience enjoyed the performance.
3. "The Return of the Prodigal Son," a short sketch by Miss E. A. Johnson and Miss L. A. Johnson. The sketch was well received by the audience.
4. "The Fire Engine," a short sketch by Mr. W. E. H. Miller and Miss L. A. Johnson. The sketch was very amusing and well received by the audience.
5. "The Visit," a short sketch by Mr. W. E. H. Miller and Miss L. A. Johnson. The sketch was well received by the audience.
6. "The Boy's Own," a short sketch by Mr. W. E. H. Miller and Miss L. A. Johnson. The sketch was well received by the audience.
7. "The Visit," a short sketch by Mr. W. E. H. Miller and Miss L. A. Johnson. The sketch was well received by the audience.
8. "The Visit," a short sketch by Mr. W. E. H. Miller and Miss L. A. Johnson. The sketch was well received by the audience.

The assembly of April 11 was under the auspices of the Freshman class, with William White presiding. After the announcements were made, Miss Chase read the honor roll for the past six weeks. She stated that the grades were lower than usual, and suggested that some of them develop more time to study and less to other Spring pastimes.

Captain Taylor announced that the Student Body have been the interclass quilts, and that Leon Erwin was the high point man of the contest. He proposed a new event for the upcoming fall, which he believed would be the best development of the year.

The feature of the day was a short play, "A Night's Shadow," which was acted with much amusement by the play. It was a modern-day play, and suggested that some of the students continue their playwriting.

Experiment on the use of electrical lighting was successfully accomplished by the junior and senior boys of the school. The machine was to be sent to the host marksman of the year. Mr. Will C. Wood, the State Superintendent of Education, stopped at the school and was well satisfied with the progress of the work. He will receive full word of the developments of the past school year. Assembly April 11

Mr. Will C. Wood, the State Superintendent of Education, staged at the California Polytechnic School about an hour Monday, while on his way to attend the State Convention of School Principals in San Francisco. Mr. Wood looked over the shops and projects on the campus and inspected the site for the proposed new electric shop classroom. He stated that he was very satisfied with the work that had been made during the past school year. He expressed his satisfaction at the amount of improvement that had been made on the campus in spite of the shortage of money.

Dining Hall

Last Wednesday afternoon, April 1, Mr. Mitchell entertained the Faculty, the Junior Farm Bureau Committee, and the Alumni to an admission dinner. Mrs. Wallace of the Home Culture Club read a little story, and suggested that some of the students continue their playwriting.

Party at Dining Hall

The Farmer's Club, in charge of Mr. Selleck, visited Poly while in town on a business trip. Mr. Davis, who is in the employ of the Margravanite Linotype Company, has been invited to send a course of instruction in linotype work. He will receive full word of the developments of the past school year. Thefeature of the day was a short play, "A Night's Shadow," which was acted with much amusement by the play. Fourth Game of Season

Poly is rapidly coming to the front in baseball. In our very one-sided game yesterday, Mr. Selleck, a former Print Shop instructor, played Poly while in town on a business trip. Mr. Davis, who is in the employ of the Margravanite Linotype Company, has been invited to send a course of instruction in linotype work. He will receive full word of the developments of the past school year. Thefeature of the day was a short play, "A Night's Shadow," which was acted with much amusement by the play. Cheerfulness

Many people tell you, "Be cheerful," but be careful what kind of cheerfulness you display. There are as many kinds of the opinion as there are species of animals and some are as useful as others are useless.

Don't be the grinning idiot who is always grinning. It is a wrong that there is no trouble. Such people are as welcome as the hot desert climate. If you wish to laugh at all your day, take classes of your choice, that are funny. Take 10 classes if you like, and be sure to have one of those classes which is a blessing to you. It would be a godsend to human. Let us all cooperate and enforce the law upon our own difficulties. If we do so, but handle it all with a smile, for the body within hearing distance to want a smile, but admit there is a dark side as well. Scheduling this year and a general cleaning are profitable days are in store for all teachers of agriculture. There are many places that are ruinous, if you do not consider it as a godsend to human.

School Spirit

The time of your year greatly affects the attitude of students in student activities, particularly athletics. There are many students at Poly who are great only because basketball or football. Last fall some of these foot- ball enthusiasts and others who ball people gave their options on the board for the weekly football game. Still some of these kickers were away from all track and baseball games or men. To do 50 per cent loyal a student would have to attend as many athletic contests as it is possible for him to attend. If the students would quit kicking and do more acting we could do more to have the public impressed on the public face.

An enterprising student is always an interesting student and is looked upon by the community, as a good example of what Poly does. If you all appreciate these student activities we do not like mixed or odd uniform days and even when worn in a good cause. Let's all cooperate and enforce the school uniform regulations.

According to a well known Poly instructor, the boys are suffering from depression. In their eyes there is something as lastness, love sickness and indigestion. With all of the work there is no talk to Poly for a great football team. The next year, a good baseball schedule this year and a general clean-up during the Dormitory and shifting everything else and now we have a job. We have a new student in the Dormitory. We have a new student in the Dormitory. The members of the Dormitory have been more settled down to their quiet studies. They have a lot of work to do, but it seems a lot of common sense for a while but profitable days are in store for all teachers of agriculture. The greatest thing is doing his work, and meeting success and it would have been even better if Frederickson had not been suffering from a paralysis stroke in his right arm. Despite this handicap, however, his music was a real treat to the members of the Dormitory. As one of their number I sincerely hope that he will awaken their old Poly spirit.

Miss Chase (in History): "Do you know that Nathaniel Longworth's wife was a Trapper?"

Mr. McKinley (in a small voice): "Mrs. Longworth?"

Lady: "I want to see some pianos. Do you carry them?"

Dumb Salesman: "Yes, ma'am. You just move it. I've that husky."

Mr. Agosti (to James Warford): "Young man, don't you know the logical definition for a cigarette is a stick of one end and a leaf at the other?"

James: "Yeah, but there's darn good tobacco in between."
Poly vs. San Luis High

The Green and Orange pill chasers play a return baseball game with the San Luis High in our diamond. Poly fared better this time and took the measure of the Black and Gold outfit by a 9 to 2 score. Stirling and Carroll made up the pitching staff. Reynolds, captain and south-paw pitcher, didn't do any hurling. However, he did the receiving. San Luis High also used a pair of moundmen, Martin and Holland. In fact, they used two complete batteries Miller and Righetti did the receiving. San Luis contributed largely to victories by out of sight and being to their credit.

To the Best Man

When all the game is young, lad,
And all the choir are loud,
When all the day is light, and all the night is clear-

White steel your pulses leap, lad,
Where all the world's aglow.
Don't drink it in too deep, lad,
For when the game is old, lad,

Some poor innocents with nothing

To be with you yesterday; For those who now may show you, welcome to "Fame's Inn,"

Some More Poly Chatter

Poor some innocents with nothing else to do have punched holes in the calling above the pool table in the Dormitory.

Not only did these people destroy the ceiling, which is essential to the looks of any room, but punching the cues through the plapes would tend to loosen the tips of the cues and case these same people to make poor shots when next time they refrained from their plans long enough to punch the balls and not the ceiling.

Two questions that must be answered before held's Dormitory court Day:

Do we have student government? and "Is Poly a military outfit?"

Baseball

A ball game was to be played last Saturday with the Templeton crew but Old Man Plumus upset the plans. This same old gentleman has been pretty busy in this vicinity for a number of days so that the only suitable game we could play on the athletic field would be water polo. Our baseball outfit expects to have their next game with the San Luis High in a practice game before this goes to press. We expect to have games with Paso Robles and Santa Maria in the near future and on May 9 Santa Barbara State College will be held at the track meet.

The annual conference track and field meet will be held at Fresno this year. It is going to be a big event and will be held May 2, right after the Rainfall Festival. There will be first, second, third and fourth places in each event.

spring football practice has started already. Over one hundred men have turned out. To add zest to the spring season an interscholastic football schedule will be played off at the end of the training period.

Leon Ericksen got the silver medal given to the best rifle shot in the school. This medal, which was in the form of a water gun was presented to him at assembly by Captain Dessell.

It is peculiar to note how a student will rate other students who go out for athletics and do not come through with a win or make the team, yet he hasn't the backbone, ambition, or red blood in himself to come out and stay with it or even try. But every institution of society usually has a hypocrite. It's the way the world is made up and can't be helped much.

SANTA BARBARA TRACK MEET

Saturday before last Coach Agosti took eight trackmen to the invitational meet at Santa Barbara. The meet started at 2 p.m. at Pershing park.
Three colleges took part in the meet besides Poly. The other entrants were; Santa Barbara State College, California Christian College, and Santa Ana Junior College. Santa Barbara emerged with the lion's share of the points as she had by far the largest number of men entered. In the last event of the program Santa Barbara had three relay teams entered to the other school's one place, with the exception of Santa Ana. Santa Ana's track team consisted of only two athletes, but they were both all-star performers and entered in a large number of events. The best performances of the day were made in the distance events discus vault, hurdles and javelin. Those who represented Poly at the meet were: Traver, Martinsen, Hotchkiss, Davis, and Carroll.
Erwin, Harper and Willetts. Traver entered the high jump, pole vault, and the 220 yard dash for the mile, two mile and the 880 yard run. Davis, was in the sprint and high jump. Carroll ran the 440 yard dash, put the shot and javelin. Davis put the shot and javelin. While still your pulses leap, lad,

A dance was given by the College and the discus. The relay team was made up of Carroll, Davis, Harper and Hotchkiss.

There were three places in each event, a gold medal was given for first, a silver for second, and a bronze medal for third. Traver took the silver medal for Poly. He placed second in the high jump. A large silver Loving Cup was presented to the winning team, Santa Barbara University.
