New Year's Resolutions

The girls resolve...

Willa Hardness, to stay away from English.

Palline Fitkin, to get a new car for Christmas.

Doll Lanning, to be a future Harriet Wright.

Margaret Donaldson, to talk more like a "southern belle."

Cecilia Halliday, not to say "sploshy" in her speech.

Neta Haynes, to be a member of the English Club and to stage the community at large.

Julie Shaver, to be in English.

Jennie Marin, to be as beautiful as Miss White.

Carolyn Merton, not to let her tongue run away with her in the future.

Sidney Parsons, to paint and be a singer.

Joyce Elizabeth Parsons, to raise a big voice.

Donna Schlacht, to let her mother walk.

Hope Cowell, to leave all boys alone.

Artie Brelsford, never again to speak to a boy.

Sheila Furr, to quit marcelling her hair.

May Preyer, to fight with the boys.

Beatrice Stout, not to study any more English.

Charlotte Smith, to be late to English class.

Vern Emmons, to stay at Poly.

Anita Chadlimer, never to have to get a uniform pass again.

Ann Margaret Truesdale, to confide everything to her mother.

Harriet Wright, not to appear soPrompt.

Shirley Long, to be tall for a change.

Lois Roberts, to show how darn pretty she is.

The Senior Girls are graduating, so we take no rash promises for next year.

Who's Who

Names of great men-all remind us of the Famous barracks boys.

We print this list here, so Santa won't forget.

Who's Who at the barracks.

Alexander, king of the Aggies.

Brian, the man who takes the barracks from the Froshmen.

Ralph White, all the way from the Santa's Land.

Bob, a seafarer from Britain.

Ben, he that tootles for Santa's Land.

Buck, an expert of relative of Bielmann.

Candy, the toy-maker.

Donna, an expert of relative of the Aggies.

Patsy, a close rival of Douglas.

Pink, a trigger mope of Santa's Land.

Garrett, who has the lousy ideas of the barracks boys.

Gates, Santa's gate-keeper.

Jack, the watchman of the barracks.

Reeder, a champion of the harmonica.

Theresa, to become a popular singer.

Bubbles, a bower of busters.

Jeannie, some states relative of Ivy.

Kathy, Mrs. Santa's wig maker.

Lucile, a states relative of Betty.

Morgan, a jockey.

Phil, a states relative of Betty.

Sheppard, a goat-herder, a. Mt. Pleasant.

Smith, a shoer of reindeers.

Single

Isn't it strange that all of the girls at Poly are single and all of the names of men! In almost every group of names that we have the same Christian names, but not the same names.

One fuddle, one Jerry, one Grune, one Marple, one Mary, Oh, not a single couple of names.

Not only mention the Florences because we expected that. They're not a dozen of names as great as yours.

And you need not think you're chosen in mentioning the girls, either, because they're the exception to the rule.

Entertainers Friends

Florence Cubift

Florence Cubift was hostess of a dinner party given for a group of her relatives at the home of Mrs. Showers on Saturday night, November 27.

Santa's Christmas tree was the center of attraction in the hall. A large pine tree which was set up in the center of the large sitting room and the decorations were a work of art.

After dinner, dancing and a social hour, everyone left and went home.

The amusements of Miss Cubift's Home will be enjoyed by all of her relatives and friends.

Ampolopa Xmas Tree

The Ampolopa Club will have a Xmas tree this year, and it is hoped that everyone will get together and help in the various activities of the tree.

A correction

Through an error in the name of Florence Cubift, William swan and Virginia Koeneman were left off the honor roll list for the first week.

Quinonc Brooks Breaks Umbrella

Rehearsing Tumbling Act

Fyank Quinonc suffered a very painful and savage break above the elbow of his left arm when he fell while rehearsing a Tumbling Act for the Poly Drama club. He was taken immediately to the Poly Hospital and it is feared that he will be confined to the house for six weeks.

As the "Tumbling Umbrella" was one of the best, it was decided to postpone the play until a suitable act could be arranged to take its place.

You'll get to hand it to the build-up man.

Oh! For the golden butter to grease the Rummier boys' regular ramblers and Brown, Santa's dyer, and let us forget.

I wish to again remind you of the Faculty and the manager of the Campus Zoo, Capt. Warren, a tender of the warren.

Van Viet, a trucker, and one of the best.

Wilders, too wild to be caught.

Polly Evans, a member of the Poly Drama Club.

You can make punch.

And last but not least of the famous girls is Smitson, a regular glutton for blubberer.

Aviation Field at Poly

Aviation Field at Poly

Aeronautic Prospects may be greatly assisted by the capture of the secret of Poly's Aviation Field. This is a key to the aviation laboratory for the Poly Aviation Club. This may be the key to the Poly Aviation Club.

Mystery

Reward: Two bowels of beans for the one who can guess who is the one that was involved in the great mystery.

Detectives Mr. Warren and Mrs. Warren are searching for the one who was involved in the great mystery. Mr. Warren and Mrs. Warren are searching for the one who was involved in the great mystery of the Poly Aviation Club.

While the whole Aud was sound asleep and all the lights were out, gus took off and flew down stairs.

With all this noise, everybody was surprised, but our boys had enough courage to go out and find out what happened.

Harper came out in his pajamas. George Sparks, in his robe, Jack Charoo, without his socks, Billings, bare in his hands, Mr. Warren, without a shirt, Bob Wright, wrapped in a blanket, Jack Morgan, and the rest of the crew, were all still asleep.

Warren, Bob Hubbard and Sinclair ran out into the yard, and the rest of the crew followed.

Mr. Warren and Mrs. Warren were searching for the one who was involved in the great mystery of the Poly Aviation Club.

Next morning, the whole floor dawned on Mr. Warren.

Mr. Warren is still looking for the one who was involved in the great mystery of the Poly Aviation Club.

Galley Slaves Select Props

The Galley Slaves business venture has been very successful, perhaps because they have consistently kept busy keeping the business alive. This success has added much to their prosperity.

We're proud of you, Mr. Rathbone.

Pink Eye Takes Hold Among Students

Several students have been found to have red eyes and are under treatment to prevent further spread of the disease. The affected students have been advised to stay in bed until the pink eye is gone, if it is given a chance, "pink eye" is not a serious form of blindness.

Faculty Activity

Did you know we had an actor among the faculty? Well we certainly are, and it is a good one at that. Mr. Rathbone took part in the part of the "outcast," in the Christmas charity play given December 3rd.

We're proud of you, Mr. Rathbone. You did a good job.

POLY CHATTER

Have you heard the news? One of the Ag Club's latest stars, George Leonard, has done work on the Honor Roll which will bring him five dollars! Congratulations! George Leonard, this is the second time this season that your name has appeared on the Honor Roll. In addition, you have maintained high standards in your work, which is a great asset to the Ag Club.

A lot of things are happening on campus this week. One of the most exciting events is the Christmas trees competition. The dormitories are all decorated with bright colored ornaments, and the halls are filled with the sweet fragrance of pine. The dorms are vying to see which one will win the championship. The competition is so fierce that some of the dorms are staying up all night to see that their trees are in perfect condition.

The football team is also having a busy week. They are practicing hard for their game against the rival school. The players are determined to win the game and bring honor to the Ag Club. The game is scheduled for this Saturday, and everyone is looking forward to it.

The Polygram wishes to congratulate you on your achievements. Keep up the good work and continue to make us proud.

BARRACKS BREEZES

Those wishing to take phoning lessons are urged to contact Mrs. Kirkwood. There are no lessons between 6:30 and 7:00 p.m., and between 7:30 and 8:00 p.m. Those who wish to take lessons on the remaining days of the week are urged to sign up. Mrs. Kirkwood is a very experienced and patient teacher, and the lessons are held in the dormitory.

Edwin Alexander wishes to thank those who suffered and sympathized with him in his recent loss of four pigs.

We are all wondering why "Happy" has so much work stacked on him all the time. We know he isn't a fellow we would want to have as a roommate, but we hope he will have a chance to relax and enjoy himself.

The barracks is holding its own. There are many fellows in the barracks who are working hard to earn money for their parents. They are happy to have a chance to be away from home and make their own money.

We are one in our midst in the poly, and we are working hard to improve our condition. We are determined to show the world that Poly is a place where we can learn and grow.

David Carpenter, our basketball star, is expected to play in the game on Saturday. We are all looking forward to seeing him in action.

The Polygram wishes you all good luck in your studies and athletic endeavors.

Poly Delegates Report

At assembly December 1st, the delegations gave reports of the Press Conference. The reports were all very interesting and informative. The Polygram wishes to thank all those who participated in the conference.

There were many reports of interest. The Polygram cannot list them all, but we will mention a few.

The Polygram wishes to thank all those who participated in the conference.

The "Children's" Party

Night Before Christmas

"Marvin, do you really think we'll get to see Santa Claus tonight?" asked Elise, shining her inquisitive blue eyes at Marion Knox.

"Oh, Elise, won't it be wonderful?" said her friend. "We've been invited. Why, the invitation said, 'Santa will be there. Don't miss him.'"

"Girls," called a voice, and turning around, they saw Margaret Chase running toward them. "Girls, you are going tonight? Won't it be fun to see Santa again? Why, I haven't seen him for one whole year! I'm in a hurry. See you tonight." And away she scurried.

"And I'll be there, said Margaret, and Elise, said Marion. The three friends hurried toward the Crandall home, where they were told the children would be meeting there. A LETTER TO SANTA

Parents, don't forbid them, and all who may have missed the credit card, or--and because of their entering school regularly.

Please, Santa, I don't forbid them, and my own, and when we may have missed or--and because of their entering school regularly.

Dear Santa:

I have tried to find out everything, boys! What boys! We have tryed for just what they have received the delight! 17:4a missing no "Special Mention? In this issue.

NEW CAMPUS SHEIK
Did you see him, girls? He was very well dressed, a black coat, double breasted "in everything. He had lovely eyes, no "otter" hillbilly. His hair streaked back made him look quite smart. If you ever laugh him you'll find that he shaves a wicked foot.

He was first found near the girls' basement and, with squires of delight, he was shown by one of the fairer sex to the rest of the bunch. But, as it may seem, he has left us and gone to an unknown country, for when the girls went to look at him once more he had disappeared from the lunch sack he had been stowed away in. What was he? Oh, nothing but a small lizard.

Poly Rates Fourth in Nine-Team Conference
The California Polytechnic football squad finished in a tie for fourth place in the California Coast Conference. This is a good showing when we consider the fact that in age and size Polytechnic's athletes rank slightly higher than the average high school player. The Mustangs were supposed to be playing out of their class, but managed to decisively defeat some of the leading State and Junior Colleges. In all but one game our team did its level best and, win or lose, took the decision in a sportsmanlike manner.

The showing of the squad reflects the coaching under Mr. Agosti. He did all that was in his power to do with the material he had. He has started a team that will be known as a force to be reckoned with, and too much credit cannot be heaped on Mr. Agosti. He decided in a sportsmanlike manner.

The student body was always there if there's any Han Luis Claus?

Basketball Practice Begins in Earnest
Coach Agosti and his lettermen are earnestly practicing and learning the fundamentals of the game. With only three lettermen around whom to build a team, the coach will have a task to select new men for the squad. There are twenty-five out for the sport; among them are several former high school stars. Poly is expectantly watching for one of the strongest quinners she has produced in years.

Reserves Banquet
Poly's reserve team and the Han Luis High Football team were guests at a luncheon given by the Han Luis Rotary Club on Monday, November 20, at the Anderson Hotel. Each letterman took one of the boys as his guest. It was a pleasure to mingle with so select, well bred men as having played the game too and play it well.

Annual Grid Classic
The annual grid vs. dorm football classic had to be postponed on account of the muddy condition of the Poly Field. Coach Varian's charges are all set for the town team, and expect to trim them properly. Not much has been heard from the town team, but they may be secretly planning the fourth downfall of the dorm squad in four years. The town fellows have emerged victorious in all past games.

Halted by Rain
The annual annual summer dorm football tourament had to be postponed on account of the muddy condition of the Poly Field.

Close Race On in Dorm Pool Tournament
The race in the Dorm Pool Tournament is narrowing down, many fellows being eliminated each day. Just why the champion will be is difficult to determine because of the closeness of the scores to date. Captain Deno and Jack Duren appear to be strong contenders for the first award with a combination of scores to date. However, we can't compare scores and be accurate. We'll be close race.

SPORT BRIEFS
When the Conference representatives meet in San Francisco Monday, this month, Coach Agosti will run in hot for the league track meet. This game is to be watched over and put in shape for the coming season.

One of the best pool games, from the standpoint of interest, was the one in which Captain Deno vanquished Alexander "the great." This was a regular scheduled tournament game. The score was 27. As the two increase in power, the interest in the game too and play it well.
