Who's Who at the barracks

Alexander, king of the Aztecs.
Baker, the man who bakes the Christmas cake.
Bratton, all the way from Santa's land.
Barker, who has the lofty idea of becoming a flapper.
Cecila Haynes, to be a member of the campus chapter at the community college.
Donald Williams, to be in the ninth grade.
Eloise Truesdale, to be as nice as Morris White.
Evelyn King, to stop diastemizing. 2

Veronica Parsons, to paint and be a sapper.
Evelyn Parson, to raise a big voice.
Sidney Schlicht, to get more to walk.

Don't ask for the names of the famous barracks boys. We print this list here, so Santa can have a list of what they want for Christmas. This year we have added a few names to the list, and we have dropped some of the names from last year.

Amapola Xmas Tree

The Amapola Tree is a special tree that is planted in the center of the school yard. The tree is decorated with lights and ornaments, and it is a focal point for the holiday season. The tree is also used as a backdrop for the Christmas play, which is performed by the students of the school.

A Correction

Through an error in the name of Florence Cribb, the name of William Cribb was given as the name of the actor who played the part of Santa Claus. The name of the actor is actually William Cribb, and he played the part of Santa Claus in the Christmas play.

Quinzone Breaks Arm

Rehearsal Tumbling Act

Frykman suffered a very painful and surprising break above the elbow of his left arm, which was put in a cast as the Tumbling Rehearsal Act for the Festival Play was postponed. He was taken home immediately to have his arm cast, and then he went to Poly to see the play. He is expected to return to school on Monday.

Aviation Field at Poly

Aeronautics Projects may be greatly assisted by the creation of a new aeronautics club to be called "Polyflite" for the aviation students. This may increase the city of Santa Luis Obispo. The possibility of an air mail route for the Poly students, the aeronautics club and the Polyflite project were all given to the legislature, are being considered by the state board of control, and it is possible that a site will be selected for Santa Luis Obispo.

The budget prepared by the Poly faculty has already been accepted by the State Board of Control, and is ready for the presentation to the legislature at its next session. We are not sure when the school will return, and the school will be shut down for the first time in its history.

Florence Cribb Entertains Friends

Florence Cribb, the man who bakes the Christmas cake, was at home on Christmas day, giving presents to the friends and family who had come to visit.

Winter sports are popular, and the students at Poly are looking forward to the new year with enthusiasm.

Mystery? Reward: Two bowls of beans for the man who turns in the mugger who was involved in the guns that were fired during the shooting.

With the Whole audience looking on, all the lights were out, guns began to go off down stairs. About three or four shots were fired.

With all this noise, everybody was surprised, but our boys had enough courage to go out and find out what was going on.

Harpers came out in their pajamas, George Kinnis, in his robe Jack Charron, without slippers, Billings, with his hat in his hand. Mr. Warren, without a shirt, Bob Wright, wrapped in a towel, and the others under the cold sheets. Eaves would still be in bed. Bob Hubbard and his friend went out to the yard, and Billings and Arizona. John Norman and Brown began to say their prayers. Bob Wright felt himself at home, because he said that he liked shutting shots up in on. The rest were so scared that they didn't even want to get up, or maybe these were in the bush. Norman would get up later. Next morning, the whole floor downstairs was full of people. Mr. Warren is still looking for the mugger.

Galleys Select Plans

The Galley Slaves business venture has been very successful, and the committee has made an effort to keep it interesting for the students. This year we have added a few plans to the list, and we have dropped some of the plans from last year.

Pink Eye Takes Hold Among Students

With all the excitement of the holidays, the students have been kept busy keeping books and preparing for the new year. The pink eye is a common ailment in the winter months, and it is usually spread by people who have not washed their hands properly.

EDITORIAL

Reading accounts of Christmas in other cities and countries brings to mind that of the Peace of the West. Down through the ages man has always known the value of the Christmas holiday in celebrating the Nativity.

Last week the Peace Park Commissioners had beautiful trees transported from the State of Washington to their recreation centers. These trees, with bright lights and sparkling icicles, made way for the children of the cities of California, outdoor celebrities, to celebrate the true meaning of Christmas.

Everywhere there was something that was the wait of children on that big Xmas party. Smaller organizations within the school have been celebrating too. We are not forgetting Xmas.

"Only a few more days till Christmas," these are not uncommon words to be heard on the campus now. We have come to think of Christmas day as being just three or four days off. Some of us do not even know that the month of December 1st and find our stockings still empty.

If it is not as yet, there is not a chance of you getting away with it. It is wrong! Isn’t this Christmas Day? The biggest and the best of them all. Don’t you think it would be the first day of our vacation, and we should have the whole school on vacation. The Xmas walls will probably be more enjoyable.

For ourselves this is the last Christmas Eve that many of us will celebrate before going to college. The small youngsters look forward to the holiday, and the older ones are still enjoying the Xmas songs, the joys that will be theirs a season of our school experience. However, as we grow older, Christmas times remain still an enjoyable occasion, through many of us have gone through childhood and realize that childhood and carefree days are gone forever.

Junior Farm Bureau, as it is called by Director Morgantl on the Spiller campus, endeavor to preserve our animal down to the Dorm basement. Although they have had some success in the past, they have had much difficulty in the past.

The program ended with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne". The program was well attended, and many of the boys were present. It was a very successful program, and the boys enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Thanksgiving Dinner

"Of course we had turkeys—the three of them." The dinner was served family style, with Mrs. Mitchell, Miss Chalmers, Captain Lust, and Dr. Crandall serving. As the tables were only set for six, some of the boys had to sit at the kitchen. At least they had enough to eat; if it was difficult, ask John Mitchell and Dr. Crandall. They made the statement that if you are hungry, you are eating, they did not eat half what the boys got.

As there were 91 present instead of 97 as expected, the house was served on the turner, but there was plenty of good cheer.

After dinner, there was a short program by The Aud Club, and then Dr. Crandall spoke of the advantages of reading, and the proper way to conduct oneself while reading.

The program ended with the singing of the school song, "It's a long way to Tipperary." The program was well attended, and many of the boys were present. It was a very successful program, and the boys enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The "Children's" Party

Night Before Christmas

"Marlen, do you really think we'll see Santa Claus tonight?" asked Pansy Haskin of her chance of a little hike to keep all the promises brought in by ticket selling. Why, the invitation said, Santa will be there; let's not demean it. It might be "girls, girls," a voice called, and turning around, they saw Margaret Chase running toward them. "Girls, you are going tonight? Won't it be fun to see Santa again? Why, I haven't seen him for one whole year! Boy, I'm in a hurry. See you tonight," and away she went.

"Marien and Elsie," said Margaret Haslen who had come up with Stella cows. "There is a Santa Claus, ain't you going tonight? Won't it be astonishing news. They looked at each other; there iTt "and away she went; haven't seen him for one whole year! Don't you remember? It must-"

"Girls, girls," said Vinny, trying to tell ui th re iTt "and away she went; haven't seen him for one whole year! Don't you remember? It must-"

A book of cards tricked put Elmer Dunning, in a corner in the rest of the evening. Suddenly something went wrong. At the moment, a tinkling sound was heard near the top of the tree. The children's eyes disappeared. They turned back to the tree. Marien reported. "The Captain was twining his time round his face, to be white-whiskered Saint for the whole blessed place."

"Girls, girls," said Vinny, "and away she went; haven't seen him for one whole year! Don't you remember? It must-"

A Visit to Santa List

As unto the how the cord is, To see to Santa List is Xmas. Though they mock at childish folly, Though they think no more on Santy, Though they mock at childish folly. Though they think no more on Santy, Though they mock at childish folly, Though they think no more on Santy, Though they think no more on Santy.

A LETTER TO SANTA

Sir: I am writing my letter today. I am writing to Santa because I want something for Christmas. I want a new bike. I have been good and I have been very nice. I want a bike because I like to ride it. I have been good all year and I want to get what I deserve. I want a bike because I have never had one before. I want to be able to ride it and have fun with my friends.

I hope you will send me my bike soon. I am very excited to get it. Thank you for reading my letter. I look forward to seeing you on Christmas.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
NEW CAMPUS SHEIK
Did you see him, girls? He was very well dressed, a black coat, double breasted "in everything." He had lovely eyes, you know "Cupid" kind. His hair streaked back made him look quite smart. If you ever laugh him you'll find that he shakes a wicked foot. He was first found near the girls' basement and, with squawks of delight, he was shown by one of the faser toes to the rest of the bunch. But, as it may seem, he has left us and gone to an unknown country, for when the girls went to look at him one more he had disappeared from the lunch sack he had been stowed away in. Was that he? Oh, nothing but a small frog?

Reserves Banquet
Poly's reserve team and the San Luis High Football team were guests at a luncheon given by the San Luis Rotary Club on Monday, November 27, at the Anderson Hotel. Each Rotarian was presented with a letters for the football team. The people of the city of San Luis Obispo have awakened to the fact that they have a powerful attack that will emerge victorious in all past games.

Basketball Practice
Coach Agosti's charges are earnestly practicing and learning the fundamentals of the game. With only three letter winners around whom to build a team, the coach will have a task of selecting new men for the squad. There are twenty-five out for the sport; among them are several former high school stars. Poly is expectantly watching for one of the strongest quintets she has produced in years.

Annual Grid Classic
The annual tours versus dorm football classic had to be postponed on account of the muddy condition of the Poly Field. Coach Varian's charges are all set for their town enemies, and expect to trim them properly. Not much has been heard from the town team, but they may be secretly planning the fourth downfall of the dorm squad in four years. The town fellows have emerged victorious in all past games.

Close Race On in Dorm Pool Tournament
The race in the Dorm Pool Tournament is narrowing down, many fellows being eliminated each day. Just who the champion will be is difficult to foretell because of the closeness of the scores. The Auld Club, with Roberts as head coach, will take on the winners. Members of the Auld team claim that they have a powerful attack that will be hard to stop.

Sport Briefs
When the Conference representatives meet in San Francisco Monday, the Poly basketball team will not in for the league track meet. This team will be counted out of the running and put in shape for the coming season.

One of the best pool games, from the standpoint of interest, was the one in which Captain Delaplant vanquished Alexander "the great." This was a regular scheduled tournament game. The score was 28-7. As the two rivals were keenest in the interest increases. Some good games are expected.

Rainy Weather Halts Tennis Tournament
Rainy weather halted all play-off in the tennis tournament for the past two weeks. The contestants hope to renew play in order to decide on a winner in the coming championship, and to receive the certificate awarded.

Basketball Schedule
Feb. 3-4, open. Feb. 11, open.

Letters Won by Members of the Football Squad
The Coach reports the following men as having played the required number of hours to earn the black letter or star: Bremner, Carter, Clark, Harvey, Harper, Johnson, Kiser, Roberts, Varian (Gaftan), Traver, White, Randall. The athletic committee will vote on the letters for the above men and awards will be made later.

Some hope is being held for the other men, but it is not quite enough time for a letter. It has been promised that they may be awarded a two color circle V with an orange and green letter. That has not been definitely decided as the committee on awards has yet to meet and vote on the proposition.

Faculty Book Club
The Faculty Book Club met Monday night and selected Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson.
