A Happy New Year

SALU OBISPO, JAN. 13, 1927.

A New Year Message

All students, past and present, as well as friends of the California Polytechnic, will no doubt have been visited recently by the well known Polygrams that always come around the New Year. It is therefore with heartfelt greetings that we bring you this message.

The year 1927 has been our best year yet. We have reached our fondest hopes and dreams, and we look forward with increasing faith and an enlarged vision.

According to ancient customs and ideals, four elements entered into the celebration of the New Year. First—Gratitude for the past year's blessings. Second—The giving of choicest gifts: to friends most beloved. Third—The giving of polygrams. Fourth—Passing of the "Happy New Year." Thus we do our best to commend this, my own, to you.

We have met the strenuous demands of many a larger Institution and respect us, because of its large proportion of San Luis students. Last year's percentage of 320.

Let's hope they don't feed them dead rats. Let's hope they don't feed them dead rats because of the fact that California Polytechnic does not exist.

We have had a scare of scarlet fever. He announced a new rule that only residents were back for good hard study. Everyone to school once again,—except the ones who have to. Owing to the fact that California Polytechnic is now in the hands of the new administration, the new order will be strictly enforced.

The New Year's Party was proved delightful. Owing to the fact that California Polytechnic is now in the hands of the new administration, the new order will be strictly enforced.

The California Polytechnic is doing that to the best of its ability. The California Polytechnic is doing that to the best of its ability. It might be interesting here to note that 120 towns and cities are represented in our enrollment as well as nine states and two foreign countries.

Business Manager Resigns

As to the second element, the giving of Polygrams. Polytechnic has been and is being done that to the best of its ability. The mission of the Polygrams is to be accepted as her New Year."

John H.: What's your new girl's name?
Earl R. Marcelle.
John H.: I think she must be permanent.
Soph: What would a cannibal be if she ate her mother's sister?
Fresh: I bite.
Soph: An anti-eater, of course.
New Year's Resolutions made by Fiever Owners: Willing to give. Analyze the side of the road if they know which side she wants.

Bob Williams: That's funny.
Bob: Oh, I was just thinking.
Don: Ha! That IS FUNNY.
Alia: What is the idea, wearing your socks wrong side out?
Tina: There's a hole on the other side.

Bill: So you think you know as much as the coach. How do you figure that?
White: Well he just said himself that it was impossible for him to teach me anything.

Aunt: So your sweetheart went away yesterday. Parting is painful, isn't it?
Niece: I should say so. Every rib in my body aches.

Mrs. Warren: We have hard boiled eggs and soft boiled eggs.
Jerry: But I said I didn't want eggs.
Mrs. Warren: Well, then breakfast is over.

Art: I dream of you all day.
Jerry: What do you do at night?
Art: Oh, nights I go out.

Clarice: He stole a kiss an ran away.
Artha: The horrid thing.
Clarice: Yes, he might have waited awhile.

Bob: Why don't you get your trousers pressed?
Chuck: I couldn't, because every place I came to, it says, "Trousers Pressed. Leave them in - and I want them pressed outside.

Mother-in-law: If you married my daughter it would kill me.
Perky: You did! How nice! What did you do there?
Cupid: I was at the zoo.

Billings: I had a soft-boiled egg for breakfast this morning.
Perky: That so?
Billings: Yes, and it was a bird.

Lucille: Do you ever read love stories?
Valene: No, but I have listened to a lot of them.

Vern: Penny for your thoughts.
Shirley: No, I don't want to turn pro.

Mr. Agosti: If I drop this quarter to the stock.

Frosh: I bite.

Lady in florist shop: I'd like to order a flower arrangement that says "To my heart's delight." It has to be for the day or night.

Harper: Will you please put some silk in the radiator in my room?
Mr. Warren: What's the matter?
Harper: I want to keep it from freezing.

Lady in florist shop: I'd like to see some better cups, please.
Clark: I am awfully sorry, madam, but we don't have any chinaware in stock.

The other day a man who wanted to buy some Ford parts asked another man how he could find a junk place. He was told that he could find one at Toro and that he should go across the street, he came in the door and asked one of the boys, "Who's the man in this place?"

Cupid: When I was in Long Beach, I thought of you one day of last week.
Perky: You did! How nice! What were you doing?
Cupid: I was at the zoo.
