This will acknowledge your September 29 memo in which you reviewed the history of the action of the Academic Senate in adopting bylaw changes in May 1985 and your subsequent memo of March 11, 1986, in which you forwarded the bylaw changes to me for review and consideration.

Basically, when this was received, Lloyd, we reviewed it and it was our feeling that virtually all of the bylaw changes that were acted upon by the Academic Senate in 1985 were internal to the Academic Senate's operations as it related to their procedures and definitions of positions and accommodating to various kinds of organizational and other structural changes required both by organization and as a result of various collective bargaining agreements. It is true that I did not formally react to you and I should have indicating that the bylaws as presented met with my approval. This memo to you should constitute that formal approval that we neglected to send to you earlier.

In approving the bylaws, however, I would comment upon one statement. In Article VII 114 relative to the role and responsibilities of the Academic Senate's Student Affairs Committee, the revised bylaw includes the statement, "And, it (Student Affairs Committee) shall be the advisory body of the academic senate on admission policies and quotas." While it may very well be desirable to the internal workings of the Academic Senate to have this particular function assigned to the Student Affairs Committee, in view of the interrelationships of enrollment planning, admissions policies and quotas, and the overall strategic planning currently underway about which you are aware, the Academic Senate may wish to reconsider which of its committees is most appropriate to be involved in this process.
