Cal Poly's Pride Center Hosts 7th Annual Same Gender Hand-Holding Day Feb. 12

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Cal Poly Pride Center (the center for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, and ally students) is sponsoring a March for Equality on Tuesday, Feb. 12 at 11 a.m. on Dexter Lawn. The march supports and celebrates same-gender relationships. The event is free and open to the public.

Participants will follow a short path through campus that ends at the University Union. Faculty, staff, students and community members are encouraged to participate by holding hands with someone of the same gender. Allies – those who support the LGBT community – are strongly encouraged to attend.

Other highlights include an interactive art exhibit, as well as informational tables from campus and area groups such as Spectrum, Delta Lambda Phi, Fusion, Parents and Families of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG), and the Gay and Lesbian Alliance of the Central Coast.
