Norman Manzer (AGB '66) is passionate about his young friends in Moscow. "They have spirit and courage," he says, referring to the many young Russians living in state-run orphanages known as children's homes. Although not a typical vacation destination, the Moscow orphanages bring Manzer and his wife, Linda, back year after year to help the kids physically and emotionally.

A Rotarian for more than 30 years, Manzer made his first trip to a children's home 12 years ago through the St. Helena Rotary Club. In 1997 the Rotary Club ended its Russian program, but the Manzers returned annually, taking with them cases of fresh fruit and basic supplies too expensive for the orphanages to purchase.

"Over the years we've followed one of our favorite young girls to two different orphanages," he explains. And during each visit the Manzers have met more orphans in need, of all ages.

Manzer has maintained pen pals in Russia, hosted exchange students, and secured medical assistance for ill children. "One young man, age 11, has undergone [multiple] surgeries in Russia," says Manzer. "We're trying very hard to get him to an American surgeon."

In December 1999, through their church, the Manzers helped facilitate the adoption of three teenage girls by Napa Valley families. Manzer is now working on developing a foster care program to match an American family with a Russian family, with the American family providing a small monthly stipend that would allow the Russian family to take in a child from an orphanage. And in July he made his 13th journey to the former Soviet Union with a team, including his wife, to work at a Russian summer camp.

"You become addicted to helping others," he says.
