We welcome alumni news on jobs, moves, and special activities. Please include your name — first, last (maiden) — major and graduation year (or dates of attendance), address, phone, and employer/position. Mail your item to "Class Notes," Cal Poly Magazine, Heron Hall Room 204, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407, or send via e-mail at ars@oasis.calpoly.edu.

Note: Due to the large number of submissions, we publish alumni information only, on a first-received basis, reserving later items for the next issue. We print information on events that have already occurred only. We try to avoid duplicating department newsletter items, and do not publish or return unsolicited photos.

'30s

• Ray Peckham (ACRE '38) plays trombone in a big band called "Senior Class." He was in the first Collegian dance band at Cal Poly and was a dorm keeper in Heron Hall. He's retired and living in San Juan Capistrano.

• Thomas E. Bedell (ASCI '33) retired from Oregon State University in 1992, owns 17 acres, and sells hay and sheep, flies a private airplane, and is active in resource conservation work. He has eight grand-children and resides in Philomath, Ore.

• Robert Raybourn (ASCI '48) lives in Lake Forest and enjoys traveling during his retirement. He says, “Greetings to all the old gang.”

• S.G. Freshour (EL '53) is a design engineer at Fisher Research Laboratory in Los Banos. In 1999 he spent three months volunteering in the engineering department of HCJB (a short-wave radio station) in Quito, Ecuador.

• Eugene Whitney (ASCI '48) says he's an active farmer in "excellent health." He gives talks in classrooms to students of all ages and hosts tours through forest and agricultural land. He resides in Fortuna.

• Jay Phillips (PE '54) has retired to Cambria after teaching in the Dept. of Corrections and public schools for 37 years. For recreation he and his wife enjoy travel and golf. His writes that his mentor was Dr. Mott.

• Robert C. Kimball (ASCI '50) retired in 1994 after 30 years with Patterson Frozen Foods in Patterson, where he lives.

• Reginald Keddie (PI '56) is rotary district governor for the northern half of Oregon. He owns a poultry business near Portland and lives in Aurora, Ore.

'40s

• Jerold Segall (ASCI '51) sold his auto shop and retired to Sun City Palm Desert. He has his real estate license and is a certified organic grower of jojoba.

• Wesley J. Webb (ARCH '51) is retired after 38 years with the U.S. Dept. of Defense and six years with the Yuba County Dept. of Public Works. He lives in Bangor.

• Eugene Starkey (DSCI '52) retired from Cal Poly's Dairy Science Dept. in 1991. He serves as secretary and treasurer for the California Creamery Operators Association. He enjoys golfing and resides in San Luis Obispo.

• Eugene Broersma (DH '52) retired in 1990 after operating two small animal hospitals in Orange County. He lives in Los Alamitos.

• Robert Olivas (AERO '57) enjoys traveling in his new motor home and resides in Palm Desert.

• O. Edward Hoiland (ARCH '58) is a retired architect and enjoys bicycle trips in Europe. He resides in Chico.

'50s

• John Sullivan (AERO '52) retired from United Air Lines in 1990 and lives in Pacifica. “I've had a healthy retirement,” he writes.

• Robert Olivas (AERO '57) enjoys traveling in his new motor home and resides in Palm Desert.
• Carrol R. Pruett (AH ’59) was elected chairman of the board of Mid-State Bank in Arroyo Grande. He was a founding officer of the bank in 1961 and became president and CEO in 1967.

‘60s

• Thomas Mastin Baron (EL ’60, MATH ’60) is vice president of operations at Rogar International Corp. and is responsible for all engineering tasks and new product definitions. He lives in Midlothian, Va.

• Robert Loeffler (ARCE ’60) is a senior structural designer at Thornton-Tomasetti/Coil & Welsh Engineers in Tustin.

• Joellen Jarvi (BIO ’61) is assistant project manager for the Space Station Biological Research Project at NASA’s Ames Research Center. She builds closed environmental habitats for fish, insects, rats, plants, cells, and avian eggs to go on the International Space Station. She lives in Cupertino.

• Gordon Nielsen (AERO ’63) is vice president at United Space Alliance, Kennedy Space Center, for the Solid Rocket Booster Element Space Shuttle. He lives in Merritt Island, Fla.

• Robert A. Bryant (AERO ’64) is a retired engineer in Ketchikan, Alaska. He is building a new house and helping to restore the Gromman Goose Amphibian for the historical society.

• Ann Davis (HE ’65) is a dog obedience trainer with Sonoma County Shelter and owns two businesses — Riverwood and Shadow Hush. She lives in Sebastopol.

• Stephanie Harkness (HE ’65) is owner and CEO of Pacific Plastics & Engineering, a Silicon Valley plastics manufacturing company. She was honored as 1999 Woman Business Owner of the Year by the National Association of Woman Business Owners.

• Thomas D. Eastlack (BUS ’66) birdied the final hole to win the 1999 California State Senior Golf Championship. "Since I work for Bird Products," he writes, "I should know how to make 'birdies.'" He resides in Menifee.

• Russell H. Jones (MET ’67) is a senior staff scientist at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory in Richland, Wash. He served as the general chairman for the 9th International Conference on Fusion Reactor Materials in October 1999.

• Martin Meier (IE ’67) consults mechanical and electrical engineers as chief engineer at Donn C. Gilmore and Associates. He lives in Orange.

‘70s

• Leon T. McHaney (ARCH ’68) is a staff architect with Don Pickett & Associates in Fresno.

• Gun P. Kremen (BIO ’69) is practicing dentistry and completed a six-year run on the Parents and Friends board, an organization that works with developmentally disabled adults. He lives in Fort Bragg.

• Marjorie E. Hasley (MA ED ’70) owns Paintings & Graphics in Kerrville, Texas.

• David Lipp (IT ’70) is professor and department chair for computer information systems at the Woodbridge campus of Strayer University. He lives in Woodbridge, Va.

• Steven DeGrood (NRM ’71) has been working for the Washington Dept. of Fish & Wildlife for more than 26 years. Currently he is working as a biologist on the Upland Wildlife Restoration Program and resides in Selah, Wash.

• Ellen Martin (SOCS ’71) is an assistant at the Alpine County Museum and a reading tutor at Woodfords Indian Colony. She resides in Markleeville.

• Robert Moss (MATH ’71, CSC ’71, MS MATH ’72) has been the systems and programming manager for the County of San Luis Obispo for more than 25 years. He and his wife have five children, two grandchildren, and live in Atascadero.
William M. Jenkins (ASCI '72) is an advisor for the Don Pedro Recreation Agency. He lives in La Grange with his wife.

Gerald Knecht, who studied mechanical engineering in 1972, co-owns Knecht's Plumbing and Heating Inc. in San Luis Obispo.

Mary Ann Baldiviez (HE '73) has been a home economics teacher at El Camino Junior High School in Santa Maria for 25 years.

Richard Bouslough (MATH '73) is director of computer services at Forest Home Christian Conference Center. He lives in Yucaipa with his wife of 20 years, Claudia Bouslough (POLS '79).

Craig Hoellwarth (ARCH '73) started Quest Consulting in 1996, provider of facility planning, energy sustainability, and business development services. He lives in Elk Grove. His son, Chance Hoellwarth (PHYS '91), teaches physics at Cal Poly.

James E. Thomas (AERO '73) is a project manager in Prudhoe Bay, Alaska, on contract to British Petroleum. He spent two years reconstructing a 1947 Piper PA12 Super Cruiser. He resides in Anchorage.

Linda S. Whitmore (BIO '73) is a science teacher at Las Flores Middle School, where she was teacher of the year in 1998. She earned her master's degree in education and is living in San Juan Capistrano.

Anthony Fillius (BUS '74) is the Western U.S. director of national accounts for Bracco Diagnostics Inc., and has won award trips to Bermuda and Costa Rica. He lives in San Diego.

Ed Terlau (EE '74) retired after 24 years at Pacific Gas and Electric Co. He has started an engineering consulting company specializing in utility electrical protection and resides in Carson City, Nev.

Homer Thompson (BUS '74) manages the implementation of new information systems at Bonneville Power Administration in Portland, Ore.

William Thompson (ET '74) manages the systems engineering group at Quintron Systems Inc. and resides in Santa Maria.

Riley C. Walter (POLS '74) joined the law firm of Kahn, Soares & Conway in Fresno and specializes in agricultural bankruptcies.

Kenneth E. Doty (AGB '75) is president of Ellwood Ranch Inc. in Goleta and was past president of Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau.

Glenn C. Dyson (MA '75) was promoted to director of operations for ServiceMaster in its Brazil location. He earned his MBA in 1994 and resides in Sao Paulo.

Katherine Kuletz (BIO '75) earned her Ph.D. in biology from the University of Victoria in British Columbia and is a wildlife biologist for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in Anchorage, Alaska.

Cynthia Leeder (BCHM '75) is a database project leader for MDL Information Systems, a chemistry software company. She also serves as the continuing education officer for the Northern California section of the American Association of Clinical Chemistry. Leeder lives in San Jose.

David Pritchard (FM '75) received an honorary American FFA degree at the national FFA Convention in Louisville, Ky., in October 1999. For the past 23 years he has taught agricultural education at Southwest High School in El Centro.

Alan J. Ragan (BUS '75) is president of McCormack Baron Management Services Inc., a St. Louis, Mo., company that builds and maintains affordable housing in depressed urban areas.

Steven M. Rogers (NRM '75) retired from the County of Santa Barbara Parks Dept. Now he is manager of interpretation for Arizona Territory, a 93-acre cultural heritage park that is scheduled to open to the public in 2002 near Flagstaff.
• Steven Allen, who studied engineering science in 1976, won salesman of the year for Chrysalis Symbolic Design. He lives with his wife, Patricia Allen (IT ’89), and their two children in Saratoga.

• Janet Eastman, who studied journalism in 1976, authored the book Simple Indulgence: Easy, Everyday Things to Do for Me, published in 1999. She is the style editor for the Los Angeles Times and resides in Orange County.

• Kevin J. McNamara (MATH ’76) is mathematics chair at Righetti High School and coaches track and field at Allen Hancock College. He lives in Santa Maria with his wife.

• Edwin Studor (LA ’76) was promoted to administrative manager for the Riverside County Transportation and Land Management Agency. He lives in Beaumont.

• Weston Clark (CSC ’77) is manager of workstation administration in the IT Dept. of PeopleSoft Inc. in Pleasanton.

• Mike Conway (JOUR ’77) is the city editor of the Merced Sun-Star. He and his wife, Diane (Booth) Conway (JOUR ’76), have four children.

• David J. Highland (NRM ’77) is a fish habitat specialist with the California Dept. of Fish and Game. He lives in Atascadero with his wife and two children.

• Garet Kappers (TREN ’77) is a senior project manager on the engineering, procurement, and construction of the $188 million Aden Container terminal project in the Port of Singapore.

• Richard A. Webb (AERO ’77) is in the Navy jet pilot training program in Kingsville, Texas.

• Brent Willey (SPC ’77) is the evangelist for the Cayucos Church of Christ. He and his wife celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in October and have three children. His oldest daughter, Rachel, studies nutritional science at Cal Poly.

• Michael Dudley (AERO ’78) earned his M.S. in mechanical engineering from Stanford in 1990 and is associate director for aerospace at NASA Ames Research Center. He resides in Los Altos.

• Thomas L. Kessler (AERO ’78) was promoted to program manager in the solar orbital transfer vehicle program at Boeing Co. He and his wife live in Palos Verdes Estates.

• Richard Leflore (NRM ’78) is district planner for the California Dept. of Parks and Recreation’s American River District. He earned his master’s degree in 1990 from CSU Sacramento and resides in Davis with his wife and three children.

• Bradford Boyes (ENVE ’79) is vice president at Sierra-Pacific Environmental Inc. in Ventura.

• Steven R. Knell (AE ’79) is project manager for the water conservation and transfer project between the Imperial Irrigation District and San Diego County Water Authority. He and his wife have two daughters and live in Imperial.

• Russell L. Lambert (CRP ’79) is project manager at the Dept. of Community Development in Yuma, Ariz.

• Christy (Hughart) Lesicka, who studied physical education in 1979, is a singer and songwriter for Sonshine Praise Singers and volunteers teaching marching, symphonic bands, and drama at local high schools. She and her husband, Donald Lesicka (IA ’80), have two children and live in Parowan, Utah.

• Regina Gibson Moore (POLS ’79) travels extensively as a computer consultant. She lives in Arlington, Va., with her daughter and husband. She writes, “Greetings to all my professors and friends, especially Moan, Ann, Marla, and the rest of the B-suitors, and to Bayard and Tobe.”

• Mark R. Crawford (AERO ’80) is director of engineering on the joint strike fighter program for the Air Force Flight Test Center at Edwards Air Force Base. He lives in Lancaster.
Paul B. Dumas (BUS ’80) is director of finance for Remedy Corp. He resides in Redwood City with his wife.

Dwight MacDonald (PE ’80) teaches physical education at Arroyo Grande High School in Arroyo Grande. He and his wife have two young children.

Jim Schrempp (CSC ’80) started his own company, Wired Air Inc. He resides in Saratoga.

David Cline (ESCI ’81) earned a B.S. in mathematics in 1986 and a secondary teaching credential in 1991, both from UC Riverside. He is the operations staff analyst for Inland Empire Health Plan in San Bernardino.

Rick Habein (ASCI ’81) owns a meat business in Laupahoehoe, Hawaii.

Cheryl D. Kelling (ASCI ’81) is the Central Coast area manager for First American Home Buyers Protection. She lives in Atascadero.

Rob L. Martin (BUS ’81) is vice president of industrial real estate at Grubb & Ellis Co. in San Jose.

Lori (Scheuber) Coleman (AGB ’82) is a stay-at-home mom. She and her husband have three children and live in Turlock.

Chris Ford (ARCH ’82) is president of C3 Design Alliance, an architecture, project management, and strategic planning firm in San Francisco. He and his wife, April Ford (ARCH ’86), are active in the San Francisco AIA small business committee and have a young son.

John Furtado Jr. (NRM ’82) oversees nationwide project management for Bank of America’s Data Center Solutions Division. He lives with his wife in Benicia.

Thomas Roche (ACRE ’82) is vice president of the risk consultants division of EQE International, a risk management company. He authored the Loma Prieta, Northridge, and Kobe earthquake research publications for the Electric Power Research Institute. He lives in Laguna Niguel with his wife.

Dixie Cavigli (SOCS ’83) started her own business in San Luis Obispo called “A Touch of the Left Bank,” where she “plans to use talented local artists to teach art to people ages 9 to 90.”

Douglas Shaw Jr. (ECON ’83) has worked with CB Richard Ellis, a commercial real estate services company in Ventura, for the past 16 years.

Rachelle Cohen (LS ’84) earned her master’s in Montessori elementary education at Barry University in Florida in 1994 and now teaches a Montessori class. She lives in Boca Raton, Fla.

DeAnn Henderson (IE ’84) retired after 15 years from Intel Corp. She resides in Gilbert, Ariz.

Lynda Kiikvee (GRC ’84) is co-owner of Hartford Media, a company specializing in the design and imaging of personalized employee communications. She lives with her husband, William Kiikvee (ME ’84), in Richmond, Calif.

Alisone Kopita (NSCI ’84) is at home in Richardson, Texas, with her two young children. She volunteers with the Dallas Dietetic Association. She earned her MM.Sc. from Emory University in 1986.

Bruce Labins (ARCH ’84) relocated his architecture firm to a renovated Victorian house in downtown Ventura. He volunteers his time teaching perspective drawing to elementary students and crews in the local J-24 sailboat racing fleet. He and his wife live in Oxnard.

Maryann Quartuccio (HE ’84) is a personal insurance manager and personal and commercial insurance claims manager at Dorsey Hazeltine Wynne Insurance Brokers in Palo Alto. She was nominated for Who’s Who in California for the year 2000.

Bruce Richardson (CSC ’84) is a software manager at Raytheon and lives in Vancouver, B.C.
Robin (Nelson) Selden (BIO ’84) is vice president of marketing at FaceTime Communications, an Internet start-up company. Her husband, Mark Selden (AE ’86), is a physics teacher at Willow Glen High School in San Jose.

Peter B. Smith (CE ’84) manages Charles W. David Co., a civil engineering consulting firm in San Jose. He is married to Susan (Elliott) Smith (MIS ’84).

Patty Tindall (FDSC ’84) works part time as a vet assistant in Fayetteville, Tenn.

Bradford Boulais (IT ’85) is manager of corporate facilities at Metabolife International Inc. in San Diego. He completed his first marathon for the Leukemia Society in Vancouver, B.C., and is a volunteer for Compassion International.

Kevin Broady, who studied graphic communications in 1985, is president of Gardner Lithograph in Buena Park. His wife, Marilyn Broady, who also studied graphic communications in 1985, is a teacher in the Anaheim Union High School District.

Dena Caglierio (BUS ’85) received the vice president’s award for sales performance in 1998 at Merck U.S. Human Health. She resides in Santa Maria.

Jeanne (Clouse) Evans (AERO ’85) has returned to a music career playing violin after doing relief work in Africa and working as an aerodynamics engineer after graduation. She is the concertmaster for Opera Pacific in Orange County and assistant concertmaster of Pacific Symphony. She lives in Hemet with her husband and daughter.

Clifford C. Federspiel (ME ’85) earned his Ph.D. and is a project leader and researcher for Johnson Controls Inc. In 1997 he received an international award honoring achievements in indoor air quality engineering.

Dewitt Mark (ARCH ’85) was promoted to vice president at the architecture firm Backen, Arrigoni & Ross Inc. in San Francisco.

Clayton Mitchell (IE ’85) joined the Navy in 1986 and is stationed in Gulfport, Miss.

John R. Nydam (PM ’85, MBA ’87) works for Superstore Industries. His wife, Karen (Lucas) Nydam (BUS ’85), works for Thomas L. Vermeulen, C.P.A. They have two children, live in Modesto, and are “looking forward to harvesting our first almond crop.”

James A. Pena (AERO ‘85) is the principal at MDESIGN, a consulting company involved with engineering and designing electrohydraulic and hydromechanical mechanisms. “I also have a dozen patents in the diesel fuel systems area,” he writes. Pena lives in Encinitas.

Kristen (Crummey) Burke (AGB ’86) earned her master’s in education, with a specialization in reading, from the University of La Verne in 1999. She teaches first grade at Alvin School in Santa Maria. Her husband, John Burke (AGB ’78), is manager at the Hip Bark branch of Mid-State Bank.

Joseph C. Dalton (DSCI ’86) is an assistant professor of Animal Industries Management in the Center for Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. He earned his Ph.D. from Virginia Tech in 1999 and his master’s at Utah State. His wife, Neil (Johnson) Dalton (ASCI ’87), earned her DVM from Virginia-Maryland Regional College of Veterinary Medicine in 1999. She is studying for her M.S. in animal science at Virginia Tech and is in private practice in Minnesota.

Moira Delumpa (ENGL ’86) retired four years ago, after teaching ESL and English in the high school and adult education sectors, to stay home with her five children in Cupertino.

Michael Gooch (NRM ’86) is manager of environmental engineering facilities at Conexant Systems Inc. (formerly Rockwell). He lives in Los Alamitos with his wife, Rachel (Racioppo) Gooch (GRC’86), who worked in the printing industry before staying home with their three children.

“Thank you, Cal Poly, for providing us a solid beginning.”
• Martin Gopelt (BUS '86) is the international vice president with Comerica Bank in Long Beach. He writes that he has a "dream job."

• John V. Mares (ARCH '86) is senior vice president at Rivers & Christian in Los Angeles.

• Diego Olagaray (AGB '86) is president of the Lodi District Grape Grower’s Association, working to increase vineyard development acreage in the Lodi area.

• Heather Banks-Blackburn (NSCI '87) earned her master’s in psychology from Pepperdine. She works part time as a clinical dietician at Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, N.C., and does private consulting. She has a young child.

• Kim Carlson (REC '87) is director of tennis activities and a tennis pro at Mountain Gate Country Club in Los Angeles. She is also on the board for cystic fibrosis, juvenile diabetes, and the Arthritis Foundation tennis tournaments. She lives in Beverly Hills.

• Sean Cooper (IT '87) is a production manager for Schlumberger. He lives with his wife and young daughter in Moorpark.

• Laura Martin-Wild (ART '87) is a part-time manager at Imagic Inc. in Los Angeles. She and her husband have a young son.

• Beth (Landy) Swank (BIO '87) and her husband, Stan Swank (BIO '87), both are faculty at Lane Community College in Eugene, Ore. They have a young son.

• Gary Visser (CSC '87) and his wife, Cathi (Arnold) Visser (CSC '88), have a young son and live in Pleasanton.

• Matthew Woodfin (CRSC '87) works in the grower relations department for Grimmway Farms. He resides in Bakersfield with his wife and three children.

• Michael R. Haslett (CM '88) is assistant vice president at Lowe Enterprises Destination Hotels and Resorts. He and his wife have a young child and live in Encino.

• Lea (Edwards) MacLean (ENGL '88) earned her master’s in curriculum and instruction from CSU Bakersfield. For the past 10 years she has worked at Garces Memorial High School, where she is now the director of student activities, yearbook advisor, and teacher of American literature. She and her husband have a young daughter.

• Jeffery D. Miller (ME '88) is a project manager for the U.S. Navy Dept. of Defense. He resides in Oxnard.

• Candace (Trout) Pool (MCRO ’88) is a laboratory supervisor at the Division Clinic in Portland. She is also associate apprentice training director for the Mount Hood Ski Patrol. Pool resides with her husband and young son in Portland.

• Tom Preece (CE '88) is senior manager of golf club R&D at Callaway Golf. He lives in San Diego.

• Leslie Shamma (ARCH ’88) was promoted to associate at Wimberly Allison Tong & Goo, an architecture firm in Newport Beach.

• Robert Van Sickel (POLS '88) is an assistant professor of political science at Purdue University in Indiana. In 1999 he authored a book about Supreme Court Justice O’Connor, Not a Particularly Different Voice: The Jurisprudence of Sandra Day O’Connor.

• Cheryl Ades Anspach (EE '89) works in product marketing for Rockwell Automation. She and her husband have a young daughter and live in Waukesha, Wis.

• David Bradshaw (AET ’89) is supervisor of the irrigation management unit for the Imperial Irrigation District, where his wife, Vikki (Dee) Bradshaw (AM ’90), is an environmental resource specialist. They have two children and reside in Holtville.
• Cathy S. Cluff (SOCS '89) was elected to the board of directors for the International Spa Association. She is president of Fitness Advertising in Ojai.

• Kimi Cousins (CSC ’89) is a project manager of WebSphere in the software solutions group of IBM. She and her husband have a young son and live in Apex, N.C.

• William G. DeLey (BUS ’89) earned his MBA with an emphasis in internet marketing from MIT in 1999. He lives in Boston.

• Anthony Dunn (NRM ’89) is director of Sierra Energy Center in Sonora, Tuolumne County.

• David Furrer (BUS ’89) and his wife, Terri (McGuigan) Furrer (BUS ’91), have two children and live in Rocklin.

• Graham Gearing (CSC ’89) works for Cypress Semiconductor in its Bloomington, Minn. facility. His wife, Penny (Pinkerton) Gearing (BUS ’90), is a full-time, stay-at-home mom to their three children. The Gearings live in Apple Valley, Minn.

• Lynne Hasselman (JOUR ’89) earned her master of public health degree from Portland State University. She is a writer/communications specialist for Wellsource, a health communications and wellness assessment firm. She lives in Beaverton, Ore.

• Andrew Miller (ARCH ’89) earned his MBA from the University of Washington. He works at Intracorp, a real estate development company specializing in high-density urban residential projects. He and his wife, Sandra (Mahon) Miller (ARCH ’91), live in San Jose.

• Steve Peck (BUS ’89) is co-director for a week-long camp for burn-injured children sponsored by the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation. He lives in San Jose.

• Eric Recsei (EHS ’89) owns Acer Landscapes and lives in Morgan Hill.

• Joel F. Silva (BUS ’89) was named a vice president at The Northern Trust Company. He serves in the high yield division in Northern Trust Global Investments. Silva resides in Chicago, Ill.

• Marcos Della (CSC ’91) is president of CSTONE Consulting Inc., which designs and builds high volume platforms for supporting scalable Internet applications. He lives in Scotts Valley.

• Nora Milchen (AGB ’91) is a graduate student at Columbia University’s School of International and Public Affairs in New York.

• Jeff Borges (FDSC ’92) was promoted to plant manager at Universal Foods in Turlock.

• Laura Fawcett (JOUR ’92) is director of publications for the United States Figure Skating Association in Colorado Springs and serves as editor of Skating magazine.

• Chris Babb (BCHM ’90) earned his Ph.D. in analytical chemistry from the University of Hawaii in 1996. He is an assistant professor of chemistry at Berry College in Mount Berry, Ga. Babb and his wife have a daughter.

• Cheryl Jantzen (AM ’90, AGB ’91) is a project manager for Advanced Training Solutions, a startup Internet company. She lives in Seattle.

• Marcos Della (CSC ’91) is president of CSTONE Consulting Inc., which designs and builds high volume platforms for supporting scalable Internet applications. He lives in Scotts Valley.

• Nora Milchen (AGB ’91) is a graduate student at Columbia University’s School of International and Public Affairs in New York.

• Jeff Borges (FDSC ’92) was promoted to plant manager at Universal Foods in Turlock.

• Laura Fawcett (JOUR ’92) is director of publications for the United States Figure Skating Association in Colorado Springs and serves as editor of Skating magazine.

• James Hauer (SPC ’92) won the 1999 Gonzaga University School of Law Linden Cup, arguing an appellate brief before state Supreme Court justices.

• Wesley Hayes (SOCS ’92) is a captain in the U.S. Marine Corps stationed in Japan.

• Christine Heinemann (ASCI ’92) is a project manager at Hemphill, Green & Associates, an environmental administration and consulting company. She lives with her husband, Kevin Heinemann (BUS ’92), in Beaumont.

• Michael Kiley II (BUS ’92) was promoted to vice president of consulting services at AMI Visions Inc. He is married and resides in Denver, Colo.
- Caroline (Korock) Rankin (BIO ’92) is an optometrist at Kaiser Permanente in Sacramento. She and her husband have a young son.

- David Svetich (PE ’92) earned his master’s in physical therapy from the University of the Pacific in 1995 and works at Lodi Physical Therapy.

- Holly Sweet (SPC ’92) is a major account manager with Monarch Marking Systems Inc., a bar-code technology company in Hacienda Heights. She is also involved with various charities, including the American Cancer Society and Young Professionals Against Cancer.

- David H. Whitaker (AERO ’92) earned his M.D. from Western U/COMP and is an intern physician at Northside Hospital and Heart Institute in St. Petersburg, Fla.

- Claudine Auyong (PE ’93) teaches physical education at Harriet Eddy Middle School in Elk Grove.

- Roger Haring (CRSC ’93) is studying for his M.S. in agronomy at the University of Florida and lives in Gainesville.

- Michael Heatherly (OH ’93) works as a landscape pesticide applicator at Disneyland park in Anaheim.

- Marina Rubendall (OH ’93) started her own interiorscaping plant business, called “Mixed Greens,” in San Juan Capistrano.

- Eric Schmidt (ARCE ’93) and his wife, Cheryl (Bell) Schmidt (ARCE ’93), have a young daughter and live in Portland, Ore.

- Charles Schreiber (AGSC ’93) manages the export department at Tanimura & Antie, a produce company in Salinas. He is married with a young son.

- John A. Stob II (AERO ’93) is a senior engineer in the robotics division of H.R. Textron. His wife, Mary Stob (BUS ’90), is a customer service supervisor for Valencia Water Co. They have a young daughter.

- Timothy Thomas (CSC ’93) owns Thomas Consulting Services, which supports VRU applications with some CSU campuses. He lives in Chandler, Ariz.

- Frank Verdecanna (BUS ’93) was promoted to corporate controller at Interlink Computer Sciences. He lives with his wife in Santa Clara.

- Nicole B. Yuen (SPC ’93) practices law at Knox Ricksen LLP in Oakland. She also has been serving as an adjunct faculty member at John F. Kennedy School of Law. Yuen is married with a young daughter.

- Michelle Cannella (GRC ’94) is studying for her master’s in finance at Denver University and works as a financial advisor at Sawgrass Advisors. She lives in Golden, Colo.

- Jeffrey Esposito (BUS ’94) is a business manager for KNBR, KFOG, KSAN, and KTCT radio stations in San Francisco.

- Dave Glaeser (CSC ’94) is a senior developer of large custom software packages for the agricultural industry at John Deere, Agris-Lathrop division. He and his wife, Samantha (George) Healy (LS ’95), live in Ripon.

- Daniel Healy (IT ’94) works at Newport Biosystems. He and his wife, Samantha (George) Healy (LS ’95), live in Redding.

- Amy (Kubitz) Keefe (HE ’94) teaches first grade in the Tustin Unified School District. She lives in Tustin Ranch with her husband.

- Anthony Marci (AGB ’94) owns Marci Crop Care Inc. in Salinas.

- Randall Myers (EL ’94) is a senior electrical engineer at Aztek Engineering in Boulder, Colo.

- Kelley Olen (ASCI ’94) is a certified diver and lifeguard and works for Sea World in San Diego. She also works with children in the Special Olympics in Santa Fe, N.M.
Darryl Pauls (ET '94) is a design engineer for Sunrise Medical, manufacturer of power and manual wheelchairs. He lives with his wife in Visalia.

Reid Seidler (ARCH '94) started Seidler Design, for residential design and drafting services, and does residential construction. He lives in Aptos.

Stephen Yungling (POLS '94) is an associate at the law firm of Coombs & Dunlap, LLP. He lives with his wife in Napa.

Kelley Bannon (POLS '95) earned her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law in 1999 and lives in Campbell.

Christina Bloom (BUS '95) is a self-employed clinical research coordinator for pharmaceutical research and lives in San Luis Obispo.

Jason Choyce (CE '95) is a project engineer for DPR Construction Inc. He is engaged and resides in Austin, Texas.

Mary M. Paasch (AE '95) earned her master's in agricultural engineering from Texas A&M University. She works as a water resources engineer for Montgomery Watson, a civil and environmental consulting firm in Sacramento.

Peter Piccardo (CRP '95) is a code enforcement officer in the planning, inspections, and permitting department with the City of Folsom. He is also on the board of directors for the California Code Enforcement Corp.

Susan Pinza (MA ENGL '95) teaches reading, writing, and study skills at Bakersfield College.

Jared J. Tappero (FNR '95) is a forester with Collins Pine Co. in Chester.

Cindy Thomas (HD '95) works for Child Protective Services. Her husband, Bobby Thomas (REC '95), teaches sixth grade. They live in Valley Springs.

John F. Worthy (ARCH '95) and his wife, Marci Worthy (ENGL '94), have a young daughter and live in Ventura. John works for C.S.A. Architects in Santa Barbara.

Karen Ames (PSY '96) is working her way through graduate school studying educational psychology at Cal State Northridge. She lives in Agoura Hills and teaches infants and toddlers with special needs.

Michelle Barker (ENGL '96) teaches English at Westminster High School and lives in Huntington Beach.

Dola Contreras (EL '96) works for Hewlett-Packard's microprocessor design lab in Fort Collins, Colo.

Darin Grams (ARCH '96) is an intermediate architect in the health care studio for the architecture firm NBBJ in Seattle, Wash.

Ann Ho (LS '96) earned her M.A. in higher and postsecondary education from the University of Michigan in 1998. She works as assistant coordinator for orientation services at the University of Connecticut and lives in Manchester, Conn.

Calvin Monreal (AE '96) is assistant water master at J.G. Boswell Co. in Corcoran. He is the secretary/treasurer for the California and Nevada sections of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

Julie-Marie Reyes-Nelson (MATH '96) was married in 1999 and lives with her husband in Las Vegas.

Ira Sorensen (ME '96) is studying for his Ph.D. in mechanical engineering, specializing in thermal radiation detectors, at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Va.
• H. Keo Springer (ME ’96) earned his master’s in mechanical engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 1998. He works for Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory in Livermore.

• Gary Wells (LS ’96) earned his teaching credential and teaches fifth grade at Bauer Speck School in Paso Robles.

• Marcy Woolpert (HD ’96) is human resource director at Compass Health Inc. in Grover Beach. She obtained her administrator’s license and lives in San Luis Obispo.

• Michael S. Arnold (ARCH ’97) is a designer and planner at Edaw Inc. in Alexandria, Va.

• Shelly Baird (OH ’97) is a licensed pest control advisor and works at Hines Color Nursery. Her husband, Joe Baird (OH ’96), is also a licensed pest control advisor and works at Agri-Valley Consulting in Merced, where they reside.

• Michael W. Bek (BUS ’97) was promoted to accounting manager at USS-Posco Industries. He lives in Concord.

• Matthew W. Cox (CRSC ‘97) works for the family farm and dried goods business, Cox & Perez Farms and Just Tomatoes, in Westley.

• Christie Jamison (BUS ‘97) works for Redback Networks Inc. in Sunnyvale.

• Victor Lopez (AGB ‘97) is in product development at Keithly-Williams Seeds in Baja California, Mexico.

• Lance Pritikin (AERO ’97) is a spacecraft engineer for General Dynamics at the Naval Satellite Operations Center in Point Mugu. He is also president and CEO of Pritikin McCormick Engineering Consultants.

• Richard Robinson (ET ’97) is technology manager at E-Commerce in San Ramon.

• Christine (Wortley) Stabe (BUS ’97) was married in 1999. She and her husband own a new home in Elk Grove.

• Benjamin Swan (AET ’97) is an agriculture instructor and FFA advisor at Ripon High School. He is married and lives on a 20-acre school farm.

• Tiffany Varley (HIST ’97) is studying for her master’s degree and a teaching credential. She resides in Agoura.

• Christopher Conley (CSC ’98) is a software engineer at Intel Corp. He and his wife, Barbara Conley (ENGL ’96), live in Sacramento.

• Kelly Moriarty (MIS ’98) works in the integration, test, and sustainment group at Lockheed Martin in Santa Maria.