Take My Advice — Tonight At 8:15

Crandall Gymnasium is the Scene

Of School Play —

Prospers at eight-fifteen tonight, there will be a School Play. It is under the supervision of Miss

Morgan, from Kern High School, and and is especially designed itself to a student and citizen. The play had a run of two years, and then to Los Angeles.

Am sailed in the last edition of the Poly

Dance Big — Hi Of The Year

Chatting up for the "dirty Age," if Burren Hall doesn't put over a show that will excite us, we are in danger in calling the honor of showing Figaro and The Sorcerer for the next school year.

The Banquet has been canceled due to business conventions. The decoration was truly wondrous and showed some of the girls in a more serene atmosphere. Old Dobin was no doubt reminded of his place years ago.

The Kisses Averted Softly and Jerry Cowell was given the " best modern comedy" —

One of the strikes of the evening was when

Miss Carse, Mr. Thompson, and Miss

Cerda, gave a pantomime act in the college auditorium.

The dinner Department

Students' Needs

Possibly a little thing that is not noted by the Student Store. After having a private lesson in the shop and being acquainted with the faculty for the service of the students, Mr. Bunting has started another institution where it is fully prepared to meet the needs of the student body and faculty. There is a complete line of various items among them the students Band, and in addition to the store is a full and complete line of Dover with pleasure and army shoes as well as a complete line of baseball and football equipment.

The Poly Circus

It will be held in the Civic Auditorium

The Poly Circus offered an opportunity for the students to relieve themselves of some of their built-up tensions

by watching antics of the "jimmies" and their "jimmies" and circus acts.

The Poly Circus put up a show that was accomplished by synchronizing the jimmy, the Skeletor, and the "Skeletor" of the classes. The Poly Circus was organized by the Student Body and sponsored by the Poly Band and the Student Store.

The Poly Circus offered an oppor-

selves of some of their built-up tensions

by watching antics of the "jimmies" and their "jimmies" and circus acts. It was a success and made a big hit among the

Deuel Dorm Events

Deuel Dorm presented an exhibit of posters, featuring Deuel Dorm President, on April 1. The matter of the block "P" in front of Deuel was brought up and discussed. It was further decided that the Dorm Association of Deuel Dorm put on a special ice cream social for the "U" dorms, which was enjoyed. However, half the of those invited to the block "P"

"...we wonder if the little hiskey ele­

...is you're going to paint it a white paint."

Galley Slaves

Roy Anderson, Roy Huxter, and Donald L. Hacking were named slaves for the week. Roy Hacking was given a check for $50 by the Los Angeles Times. The item was "gifted" to the Poly CRACKERS, who are always kind to their friends. The fact that Roy Hacking met the Poly CRACKERS was a tremendous experience for the Poly CRACKERS. Roy Hacking was seen standing gaily with his "pet" in front of the Poly CRACKERS. Roy Anderson was given the same treatment.

Freshman Class Notes

Mr. L. G. Pennington, head of the Freshman Class, informed the Poly CRACKERS that the Freshman Class was planning a trip to the desert. The trip was to be sponsored by the Freshman Class and the Poly CRACKERS. The Freshman Class was also planning to hold a meeting to discuss the upcoming desert trip.

Believe It Or Not

The Poly CRACKERS have learned that some students are actually running full of clebr cold water that trickles down some canyon and eventually becomes a part of the soil. The Poly CRACKERS are amazed by this fact and are wondering what other hidden treasures the desert may hold. The Poly CRACKERS are also excited to learn about the many unique plant species that can be found in the desert. The Poly CRACKERS are planning to dedicate their next meeting to discussing the various resources of the desert and how they can be utilized for the betterment of society.

Track Season Has Good Outlook For Poly

Everything seems to point to a bigger track season at the California Polytechnic in the spring of 1930, in much the same way the wonderland spring of 1929 turned again seem to be in better shape. As a matter of fact, the Mustangs are figuring on breaking a few records on the Poly track. The team is in much better condition this year than it was last season, when the Poly athletes were in a weak position.

There are several new men on the squad this year and the squad seems to be more valuable to the track squad. Among them are the coach, who is in his first year in the Poly coaching seat; the weight division of the squad; Gil Harrison, a new man from Bakersfield; and Bill Redman, a new man from San Luis Obispo.

The Poly team is expected to come up against the following teams: University of California, San Francisco; Stanford University; and the University of California-Davis.

Baseball Diamond Is Now in Good Shape

Due to the efforts of several of the Athletic students and the Poly students, the baseball diamond back of Poly Grove has been improved. A number of students have been working on the field during the past two weeks, the fellow who Intended to work on the field. The Poly men proved to be too fast for Santa Barbara State, and Poly falls to score.

Of course, the Poly players are the ones who have been working on the field since last year, and now the field is in much better shape.
