Take My Advice" Tonight At 8:15
Crondall Gymnasium is the Scene of the Junior\nSchool Play...

Properly at nine-thirty tonight the curtain will go up on the production, "Take My Advice," under the supervision of Miss Florence Parsons, director, and Miss Edith Lufkin, student director. The dramatic production is intended to give the students a chance to prove their skill in reading, writing and speaking.

The play had a run of two years in the Bay Area, but due to the fact that the players have found it necessary to devote their energies to other than theatrical pursuits, it was decided to present a new production of the play.

The play was opened at seven-thirty under the direction of Miss Florence Parsons, director, and Miss Edith Lufkin, student director. The dramatic production is intended to give the students a chance to prove their skill in reading, writing and speaking.

SPRING VACATION

Now is the first week of the year. The mountains and valleys are flowered, set off by a back ground of rich, green grass. Creeks are running full of clear cold water that trickles down some canyon and by natural water falls from the warm spring air that is blowing from a sky of fluzzy clouds. And those hovering trees and vines are filled with singing birds that broadcast their harmony with nature.

The young man’s thoughts turn to girls and dreams of vacation. The young lady also dreams of love, spring bonnets and frocks.

Barracks Brecks

Have you noticed the blue streaks sneaking around like a fossil fish? Well, Bay Bivouac has moved into the barracks. The 1st floor was flung open to make the Barracks Brecks. The old minorities were shown and all the representatives were in attendance.

First Reel Picture

The first reel pictured how the Indians were conquered on April 25, 1847. Movie* from the General Trust were shown during the week. The trip was educational and the boys profited by it.

Visitor’s Assembly

Visitor* coming to Poly and outing to visit friends. We showed the student body a 16mm picture of the Proceedings and to us by Mr. Plek with a Chevrolet for a drive through the town of Shell Beach. During the week-end it is going to get the new bevy of students. The interesting new student to be noticed this week was a Sophomore girl from Cal Poly. The second reel was a view of the Missions of California, showing how the missions looked at the time when they were built and given by the Franciscan Fathers.

Patronize Those Who Are Figuring on Breaking a Few Records

There are also several new men out this season who are well raised and are coming in strong. Boys like this will come up along side of such stars as Young, who can take a few honors for Poly in this particular event. "Pop" Millaap is one who will come up again, having won last year's 440 yard dash.

Four-Man Tennis Team

To Go Conference

A big tennis tournament is planned for this year.

Most of the fellows who intend to play have been out practicing for the past two weeks and are in good trim.

There is a long list of event entrants, and the team is coming along in great form.
