At one time California Polytechnic had a debating club. Now it is out of existence, the joining it is one way in which one can increase his knowledge of speaking and say what he wants to say.

A school or club should have a debating club within the Junior Colleges. Nearly all other Junior Colleges have debating clubs which have proved to be very successful.

If a debating club is organized, its members should stay in it and take an interest in it. A debating club cannot exist unless one has faith and confidence in it. The cause of the debating club's going out of existence was a lack of interest in the part of those who belonged to the club.

Let us have a new debating club organized. There is a member of the faculty who is willing to share her time to have a debating club within the school.

To Change or Not to Change?

One of the big advantages about the way the California Polytechnic is organized is the opportunity given to students who find themselves misfit in a course of study to shift to some course which more nearly fits their natural abilities and desires.

However, there is danger inherent in this very advantage. That danger is that some unthinking student will change courses not because of lack of adaptation to his present course, but because of sheer laziness or lack of patience and persistence.

To certain type of student, it seems to be a real pleasure to change subjects time after time. He tries one subject and then another. If he doesn't like one, he turns around and tries another. He is bound to suffer.

Gally Slaves

On Wednesday, April 24, the Gally Slaves continued their role as the annual seasonal show on campus. The Gally Slaves are a popular group composed of upperclassmen. They have been responsible for many of the entertaining events on campus.

The Gally Slaves decided to have their picture in El Rodeo this year as usual.

The College Bulletin is in its highest stages of completion. Two hundred and fifty students have worked on the paper, and everyone is pleased with the product. The heaters have gathered.

Annex Notes

Some of the newest Residents of the Annex were: Burton Reynolds, who has recently moved in, and Bill Maxwell, new student from Long Beach.

The Annex is a lively and vibrant place to be. The students are always ready to entertain and make new friends.

The Annex is a great place to call home and get involved in campus activities.
