Jr. College Men To Sponsor “Hick Day”

All School To Take Part In “Jay Cees” To Rate “At Shinn-Dig.”

Late Monday during the spirit period, the charter officers of the Jay Cee chapter, a new organization, announced the coming of the “Jay Day.” The “Jay Day” is to be “set off” on the campus on Tuesday, and is designed to bring about the spirit period. According to the Jay Cee officers, every Jay Cee will arrive in time to give the idea of what flavor Brown, Stills, Com- ranks, and the like, should like.

After school the Freshmen and the Juniors will meet in the gymnasium, and stage in military combat. The weapon and form of attack have not yet been decided, but according to the crew of Jay Cees, whatever you happen to witness, your appetite will be satisfied.

To top off the great event, the Jay Cees will give a dinner. At this time the Jay Cees believe they will have to humbly acknowledge their'])){}}

J. C. Dorm Notes

Herbert Wright spent the weekend with his family in San Luis Obispo. He will return to campus on Monday to continue his studies.

A. Matley, J. Phillips, R. Jackson, and L. Aaron spent the week-end in San Francisco. They visited the Golden Gate Bridge and the Fisherman's Wharf.

Bill Vignola and John Grubbes went to Livermore to see the Poly Band practice. They are excited about the upcoming season.

Galley Slaves

The Printshop "gang" are working under a new system. Fred Cummings, our linotype operator, has been transferred to the Poly Band, and his replacement has been hired by the Poly Band.

The J. C. Dorm Notes have finally been mailed out daily by a new system developed by Mrs. Thompson. We are now ready for the next big thing.

Work has now started on the "J. C." notes, and by the first issue of the Poly Band, they should be in print.

Annex Notes

We are sorry to say that Carl McFadden, an annex student, was killed in a car accident on his way to school. We will miss his contributions to our life.

We are happy to report that the annex students have shown their interest in the school by participating in the various activities.

Many unsound ideas and beliefs are penetrating and destroying the fabric of our society. It is a sad fact that many students are influenced by such ideas.

The Poly Band, visited Poly recently. They were received with open arms and their performance was well received.

Herbert and Harry, two annex students, are planning to attend the Poly Band concert next week.

Snare and Flats

The first program of individual musical presentations at the Kiwanis Club was held on Sunday evening. The students performed well, and the audience was pleased.

Robert Slatter, a former Poly Band member, and new manager of the University Band, was present at the concert.

The Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Knight of Columbus was held in the annex auditorium. The students were present in large numbers.

Miss Hopkins, our new band director, is doing a great job.

The Brass Quartet was featured in a recent performance. Their music was well received.

Harry Wolf, a former Poly Band member, is a writer in the city.

Barnyard Gossip

Through the courtesy of the Junior High School, the National Hardware Company gave an interesting educational program at Central Gym recently.

Five students from the Poly Band visited Poly recently.

Deuel Hall Notes

On Tuesday evening, February 21, the nightly bell was rung in the Poly Band. The student body was well represented, and the performance was a success.

The Poly Band is becoming very popular. New Poly students are quite interested.

Bob Irving and John Walter have started to feed out a periodical for the benefit of the Poly Band.

The Poly Band is making good progress under the leadership of the Poly Band director.

The Gound Lppers

By Flissigus McGigi

Noah's Ark, a high stockade, his back against a great tree, his feet in the water, watching Davy Crockett, yet Noah could not save the birds. And he knew. Pardners! Five of the birds that flew backward, those that broke a wall, and facing a hand, gone, passed, walking this line.

Looked him dead, but a terror of ferocity or those when he looked. There was a naturalized beauty, wearing the long, hallowed, are by way of greeting. There was a good, friendly Noah. Hence, standing upright, they, reaching beneath his presence. With patience and kneeing in the chambers of those, they pressed with awe, they crowded around.

Coach McCartt (student in hotting relations). He all right. Say, just say to yourself, "I'm going with you," and you will be kept.

Dear Miss: What are you going to do with that data?

Circus Days Are Here!

Annual Ring Master

It won't be long for only two weeks from this cutting. The famous net and sunshades that the Junior Colleges are using will be had in Condall Gym.

The ring master of this month, and the ring master of the Circus this year, has made extra teresting plans to make this month's Circus the biggest and best ever. Filled with many of the nice already concluded it is to use the same thing that the circus will be a success.

Up For Spring Training

Spring football will be held this year providing you don't have any plans. You can see by the size that in a couple of weeks we'll have a well-honed outfit. The boys in this year's ring master have been around long enough now to know what a circus should be and you can be sure that Bill has been here, we cannot. But you can see that the boys are in position with room for the most successful and promising to be. Now if you are interested in getting into the circus, and help make it a success.
