Success of Homecoming

Activities

Victory by Ernest Robles' grid iron warriors by Polly's Mustangs gave an impulse to a winning victory in southern California. TheSan Luis Obispo football team has in no way at this time lost its spirit. The first game was played Oct. 28, with the Mustangs the guests of the University of California at Berkeley.

Many Projects In Shops
Completed By Electrical
Students

W. D. Maxwell, department head in the School of Electrical Engineering, is planning to have a large number of projects done by the electrical engineering students. When completed, these projects will be exhibited in the senior room of the mechanical building.

The Polytechnic band earned high marks as to musical ability from returning alumni during the southern California tour. Many stated that this is undoubtedly the finest band in the history of the school.
Furthermore, the band is the latest organizational formation which has been realized.

Two competent men, G. W. Wilder, and J. J. Hyde have the supervision of the Junior College band. The band, under the able leadership of Mr. Wilder is a graduate of Wisc-consin University. Mr. J. J. Hyde has been at the Polytechnic for several years, and is well known.

chemistry, and English are eligible.

W. T. Adams and G. A. Tilton, graduates of the Junior College, are principal speakers were President H. P. Bower, assistant president of California Polytechnic, and President Swan of Stanford.

Electricals Help In Construction Work

Many Projects In Shops
Completed By Electrical
Students

Writing of the new football stadium, Mr. Van N. Rippy, the construction engineer, reports that the work under taken by the electrical engineers is of a very fine order. In the history of the school, this work was done by the electrical engineers.

Many projects of the work has been completed and are now ready for inspection. Among these projects are the new student center and the new gymnasium.

Faculty Women Enjoy

The Mustangs defeated by Santa Barbara 7-0 in a dull game Saturday afternoon, October 17th, was won by Poly by a score of 13-0.

The Mustangs had their chances in the first half, but a series of opportunities, both in the air and on the ground, went uncapitalized. The Poly defense was too well placed as was the Poly offense, which was up by only 7-0 at the half. A big win for Poly is due to the fine work of Carter, who made two field goals, and the tough punting of Martin, who averaged 40 yards on his three punts.

POLY UNIFORMS

The Poly team has improved greatly since they were badly defeated by Montana, but there is still room for improvement. Both teams were playing well, but the offense is not up to par as yet. The Poly defense, however, is expected to show progress in the second half.

The starting lineup for the game was:

Cal-Poly—Steve Barnett, quarterback; George André, halfback; John Smith, fullback; Dick Carlson, end; Bob Warden, tackle; Billy Munding, guard; Bob Barlow, center; Jim Humpries, tackle; and Ed Mendenhall, guard.

By Score of 13-0.
