Mushtangs Meet Ramblers In Tonight's Fracas

Coach Ray McCott and ten first string junior college players arrived here yesterday afternoon by train from San Simeon to participate in the Poly-Mustangs basketball game to be played at the Crandall gymnasium tonight. The game is the third of a three game series.

The Poly-Mustangs have been in excellent form in their first two games, losing only one game to the University of California and defeated the Sonoma State College. The Mustangs are the undefeated champion of the league and are considered the best team in the state. The Poly squad is in fourth place in the league and will try to boost their record for the third place position.

Both teams will be playing for three points tonight. The Poly-Mustangs will try to improve their third place standing while the Mustangs will try to improve their fourth place position. The game is being considered a battle of the best between the two teams. The University of California Mustangs have defeated the Poly-Mustangs twice in the past, but the Poly-Mustangs have won only one game.
