Mustang Athletics Director Alison Cone Announces She Will Retire in December

Alison Cone, Cal Poly's director of athletics since 2004, will retire in December after 16 years at Cal Poly. "This is the right time in our execution of our strategic plan for me to move on," Cone said. "We have great coaches in place, and they have the right focus on developing our student-athletes for success on the field, in the classroom and in their professional lives." Interim President Robert Glidden said a national search will be conducted over the next few months and timed so the next Cal Poly president can select Cone's successor.

Cal Poly to Host Dairy Producer Symposium

Oct. 15-16

Cal Poly's Dairy Science Department and the Cal Poly Dairy Farm Advisory Team will host the Third Annual Cal Poly Fall Dairy Producer Symposium and Symposium Sale on Oct. 15 and 16 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in San Luis Obispo. The theme of this year's symposium is "Future of Milk Price." The event kicks off Friday night with a barbeque at the Cal Poly Dairy from 5 to 7 p.m. The first annual symposium sale follows at 7 p.m. in the Dairy Pavilion on campus. Sale attendees can bid on 60 live lots that include 40 lots of Jersey and Holstein cows and 20 lots of embryos. Admission to the sale is free and tickets for the Friday night BBQ prior to the sale event are $10.

Architectural Engineering Student is Cal Poly's 2010 Hearst Scholar

Cal Poly architectural engineering student Pablo Ramos, a young father who grew up in Santa Maria, has been named a 2010 Hearst Scholar. Ramos grew up in a single-parent home in a tough part of town. An internship at his community college helped him discover a passion that would propel him to higher education - and Cal Poly.

Faculty and Staff

Zeuschner is Interim Director for IEP

On Aug. 30, Raymond Zeuschner, professor emeritus of Communication Studies, was named interim director of International Education and Programs (IEP). John Battenburg is on leave. For questions, e-mail IEP at IEP@calpoly.edu.

The Cal Poly Valladolid Fall Program invites faculty to apply for the resident director and/or for faculty positions to teach in the fall 2011 program. Interested faculty can contact William Martinez for a copy of the application and information materials. He can be reached at 756-1212 or wmartine@calpoly.edu. Deadline for submitting applications is Nov. 5, 2010. For information on the program, check www.cla.calpoly.edu/spain

Changes in the Office of the Registrar

The Office of the Registrar, having increased enrollment management, technology, curriculum and academic policies initiatives, has modified its staffing structure to better serve students and the campus community.

Academic progress counselors (APC), formerly known as evaluators, will report directly to the registrar. Helen Bailey will serve as assistant registrar and will take charge of day-to-day operations and serve as the general contact for all campus inquiries concerning evaluations. APC staff roles have not changed, and faculty and staff may continue to work with their individual APC contact without change or interruption.

Maureen Muller will concentrate her efforts on the upcoming PeopleSoft 9.0 implementation, the new EDI/OCR implementation for incoming transcripts, ERS reporting, and day-to-day supervision of degree audit and transfer articulation staff. For more information about the Office of the Registrar and staffing changes, contact Cem Sunata at ext. 6-6012.

Faculty and Staff Asked to Protect Student Information

- Insure privacy when asking for a student's Empl ID number and discussing confidential information.
- Do not leave "graded" papers unattended or display student scores or grades publicly when in conjunction with the student name, Empl ID, Social Security number or any other personal identifier. Papers, scores and grades may be posted using a code known only to you and the student. That code may NOT include a sequential part of the Empl ID or SSN.
- Only when necessary, ask for only the last four digits of the Empl ID on exams and other documents to identify different students with the same name.
- Keep only those student records necessary for the fulfillment of your teaching or advising responsibilities.
- Keep any personal records relating to individual students separate from their educational records. (Remember: Private notes concerning a student that are intended for your own use are not part of the student's educational record.)
- Properly dispose of (shred) all papers and documents pertaining to students.
- Refer requests for student educational record information to the Office of the Registrar at ext. 6-2531.
- Be mindful of email content and be sure that you are sending confidential information to the proper recipient.
- Do not share student educational record information with other faculty or staff members of the university unless their official responsibilities provide for a legitimate educational interest.
- Do not share information from a student's educational record, including grades and advising information, with parents or others outside the university, including within letters of recommendation, without written consent from the student.

For questions, visit www.ess.calpoly.edu/records/stu_info/ferpa.htm, or contact Patty Warnick-Wait at ext. 6-2723 or pwarnick@calpoly.edu.

Campus Announcements

Get Your Green On!

A groundswell of spirit is taking place at Cal Poly. The university is encouraging students, faculty and staff to Get Your Green On! every Thursday. The spirit campaign kicks off on Thursday, Sept. 23, at 11 a.m. in UU Plaza. The goal is to celebrate Cal Poly's rich traditions, support all our student-athletes and show our pride for Cal Poly. We want to SEE a SEA of Green every Thursday and at every athletics event!

Prizes for the best display of Green and Gold at the Sept. 23 spirit rally include:

- Four $25 campus dining gift cards
- Two tickets to see Bill Cosby on Sunday, Sept. 26, courtesy of Cal Poly Arts
- Free book rental for the quarter courtesy of El Corral Bookstore

To schedule an appointment, call the ASI Business Office at ext. 6-1281.

Cal Poly Open Enrollment Period Brings Changes to Your Benefit Plans

Important benefit changes are coming that may have a fiscal impact on how much you pay for your benefit plans. The annual benefits Open Enrollment period is the time to learn about plan changes and make decisions about your coverage options. This year's Open Enrollment period for Cal Poly state employees begins Sept. 13 and ends Oct. 8.

Highlights include: Health, dental and vision coverage for children of benefits-eligible employees is being extended to age 26. (Previously terminated dependents must be added during Open Enrollment); Both San Luis Obispo County medical groups will be available for members of the more economical Blue Shield NetValue HMO plan.

Read the Benefits Newsletter for premium rates, health plan comparison chart and benefit plan changes coming in 2011. Visit the HR Benefits web site to review benefit plan details and download an Enrollment Worksheet. All Enrollment Worksheets requesting an Open Enrollment change must be received in Human Resources as soon as possible, but no later than 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 8 in order to be processed. Questions can be directed to Human Resources at ext. 6-5436.

Events

Pop Arrives in Spanos Theatre with Dan Hicks Sept. 24

Hear pop classic Dan Hicks & the Hot Licks Friday, Sept. 24, at 8 p.m. in the Spanos Theatre. Long considered one of pop music's truly original figures and America's finest songwriters, Hicks serves up sharp, dry-witted lyrics and clever musical fashion, attitude and swagger with an outlaw eccentricity and insightful charm for a totally unique sound.

Details on Hicks at www.calpolyarts.org

BRAVOSLO! Free Performing Arts Showcase

Back by popular demand BRAVOSLO! will offer a preview of its upcoming season. The free arts showcase is set for Saturday, Sept. 25, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and features more than 20 organizations that perform at the Cohan Center and Spanos Theatre throughout the year. Mini performances are all day in Harman Hall and the Pavilion; talk to participating performance groups at their lobby exhibits and pick up information about their upcoming seasons.

Music Faculty in Recital Sept. 25

Cal Poly music faculty Jacalyn Kreitzer, mezzo-soprano; Brynn Albanese, violin; and Suzan Azaret Davies, piano, will perform in recital Saturday, Sept. 25. This night of blockbusters features works by J.S. Bach, Gustav Mahler, Giuseppe Verdi, Charles Gounod, Richard Strauss, Richard Wagner and Sergei Prokofei. Tickets are $10 for general admission and $6 for seniors and students.

Comedy Great Bill Cosby at the Cohan Center Sept. 26

See one of America's most popular comedians, Bill Cosby, live at the Cohan Center on Sunday, Sept. 26. Cal Poly Arts presents Cosby in two performances: 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Cosby has dazzled generations of fans with his comedy routines, also captured on his iconic albums and best-selling books such as "Fatherhood" and the groundbreaking The Cosby Show. His comedy transcends age, gender and cultural barriers. A Cohan Center favorite, The Cos returns for two "face-hurtingly" funny shows.

Details on Cosby at www.calpolyarts.org

Benise Performs in 'Spanish Guitar' Sept. 29

Concert, performance and history blend in "The Spanish Guitar," set for Wednesday, Sept. 29, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cohan Center. Recently filmed for PBS, The Spanish Guitar is a "Latin Riverdance" -- an epic tale that integrates live performance with brilliant choreography, orchestral pieces, and footage of the artist's voyage across the globe. An evening of passion, music and dance starring international guitar sensation Benise, this stunning concert features the enchanted Spanish guitar as the keeper of stories of glory and tragedy through times and worlds gone by.

Details on Benise at www.calpolyarts.org.
