Mustang Men Travel South To Ventura

Again taking to the road, this week finds the Mustangs of California Poly's State College bound for the Pacific Coast, with the Pirate-Of-Ventura junior college on an off-season tour. In the coming week, the junior high school stadium field in Ventura is to give the Mustangs a chance to use the artificial lighting system. They are happy about something but they know the team is making it close to the knit.

The season is over and the team will be back in the S. F. S. the day night to discuss preliminary plans for the future season.

The team will leave from San Luis Obispo and arrive at the junior high school stadium field at approximately 8 a.m. with an estimated time of arrival 12:30 p.m. This is approximately the same time as the game.

Between The Lines

Well, guys, football still holds the spotlight in the sports world. You know, there were some pretty good results on the coast last week. Troy Thorburn's Stanford Invitational final ljed their dancing up and held Cal. U. A. 14-13. This was California's first loss of the season. The game went on into overtime, the second over, but the Indians held on. Of course, the Indians were the better team that day. But in between, they held a 4-0 lead going from Oregon.

Ready Player Show Up.

These two shows both showed two boys who are real hell raisers. The first is Jackie Robinson; U. C. A. halfback, whose ability to pass and avoid protection prevented thevikings from being on the wrong end of the score. The other is George Radnich, Ventura's left end. He is one of these short, stocky boys who hits like a thunderbolt and can run like a scared deer in the open. Keep your eye on these two playmakers.

Colby didn't play this week but he was playingG with us all dark every night. And may your keep your eye on Bill Bezzet, of Santa Barbara. Harlow plays out. All this week he's been cracking dough, the salt packets like nobody's business.

I also noticed another guy out there. Ronnie Woods, the 6-2, 225-pound tackle; Eubanks (17), right end; Lilly (20), left guard; Martens (26), right guard; Eubanks (26), right guard; and Eubanks (26), right guard.

Starting Lineup Named

The starting lineup for tonight's Black vs. Blue game, of which there are three teams, is its first major hurdle as they are in one of the toughest leagues on the coast. Long Beach J.C., which is unbeaten and untied, just barely eked out a 1-0 beating from Oregon.

But Cal Poly tonight invades the lair of the Ventura J. C. Pirates. Although the Piras have been beaten three times by league opponents, they still figure to be a tough hurdle as they are in one of the toughest leagues on the coast.
