Take a Trip to Polywood for Open House April 14-16

Cal Poly's 18th annual Open House invites prospective and current students, alumni and the community to experience the glamour and glitz of "Polywood!," the theme for the April 14-16 event. On Thursday, April 14, the Open House Committee invites visiting students and their families to a "Casting Call" in downtown San Luis Obispo at the community's renowned Farmers Market. And Friday, April 15, takes students "Behind the Scenes," offering a sneak peak of Cal Poly's academics in which student can learn about curricula, hear from college deans and talk with faculty and current students.

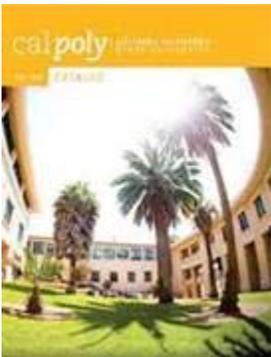

On Saturday, April 16, the Cal Poly campus will be "In the Spotlight," showcasing more than 200 clubs and organizations nestled beneath the "Polywood Hills." The Campus Showcase is open to the public and will feature special events such as the Poly Royal Parade, a Kids' Fair, live music, the Cal Poly Tractor Pull, the Cal Poly Rodeo and more.

For more information about Open House, visit <http://orientation.calpoly.edu/openhouse> or call ext. 6-7576.

Cal Poly Students Spend Spring Break Volunteering in New York

Twelve Cal Poly students spent spring break volunteering at New York's Food Bank. The group helped to organize goods in the Food Bank's Bronx warehouse, which serves more than 1,000 community-based programs throughout the five boroughs. The students prepared and served meals in Harlem's community kitchen, and they delivered meals to the elderly by foot on a snowy New York day. Together, they volunteered more than 300 hours over four days.

The trip was an Alternative Breaks service trip hosted by the university and sponsored by Student Life & Leadership. The group included freshmen through seniors, and represented all seven colleges. For more information about the program visit www.studentlife.calpoly.edu/communitycenter/AltBreaks.asp.

The 2011-13 Cal Poly Catalog is Now Online

The 2011-13 Cal Poly Catalog, effective summer 2011 – spring 2013, is now available online at <http://www.catalog.calpoly.edu/>. The web site is still under construction, but links are currently available to course descriptions; college and department pages, including curricula; general education; and US Cultural Pluralism. Links to all sections of the catalog will soon be provided.

Amateur Radio Club Members Help with Emergency Communications for March 11 Tsunami

Members of the Cal Poly Amateur Radio Club assisted with emergency communications for tsunami warnings along the West Coast on March 11, following the massive earthquake in Japan. Throughout the day, club members (who are all licensed ham radio operators) relayed first-hand reports of the tsunami's North American impact along the Pacific coast. The Cal Poly club worked with radio operators at the Morro Bay Fire Department, relaying reports on wave surges and swells to the nationwide Salvation Army Team Emergency Radio Network (SATERN).

Established in 1947 and currently the nation's largest collegiate amateur radio club, CPARC has participated in communications support for several historic disasters, including the Highway 41 Fire and the Loma Prieta earthquake. For more information about the club, visit <http://www.w6bhz.org> or contact Marcel Stieber at ext. 6-2737 or calpolyradioclub@gmail.com.

Wayne Montgomery Retirement Celebration April 13

After 29 years of dedicated service to students, faculty and staff, Engineering Librarian Wayne Montgomery will retire April 22. The Robert E. Kennedy Library invites the campus community to celebrate Montgomery's retirement and honor his many contributions to the campus through his service as a librarian and a member of the Cal Poly faculty. Join us Wednesday, April 13, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Kennedy Library, Room 511. For more information, contact Gayle Chipman at ext. 6-1491 or gchipman@calpoly.edu.

Campus Announcements

One-Day Parking Meter Permit Now Available

The parking program is now offering a one-calendar-day parking permit valid at all Cal Poly parking meters. The "scratch off" daily meter permit will sell for $9. There is no restriction on who may purchase the permits. Parking meters are located throughout campus and are some of the most convenient parking spaces available for campus visitors, guests, employees and students. Meter permits are sold at the University Cashier's Office, University Police, and the Visitor Information Center.

President's Diversity Award Nominations Due April 22

The President's Diversity Award is designed to celebrate campus units that have exhibited commitment to the value of cultural diversity. Provided that deserving entities are nominated in each category, the award is shared between a recognized student organization and another unit of the university or auxiliary (such as a department or program). Each winning unit receives a $1,000 augmentation to its budget for one year. Visit the Inclusive Excellence web site and get the nomination form. Any faculty, staff or student may nominate an eligible campus unit for this award. Nomination information and the electronic nomination form can be found on the Inclusive Excellence site. Deadline for all submissions is April 22.

Faculty and Staff Can Nominate Inspiring Students for Scholarship

Nominations are being sought from faculty and staff for truly unusual students who have overcome personal tragedy or hardship that suggests an inner strength and a commitment to maintain academic progress. Letters of nomination are due April 22 and should include: name of the nominee; a description of the nominee's personal strengths and potential for success; insight into the character of the nominee; and the nominee's ability to excel under personal adversity. Direct letters of nomination to: Courtney Elizabeth Smyth Memorial Scholarship, c/o Student Life & Leadership, University Union, Room 217. For more information, contact Stephan Lamb at ext. 6-6509.

Outstanding Student Employee Reception is Thursday

A reception for the 29 nominees for Cal Poly's Outstanding Student Employee of the Year is set for 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, April 14, in the Albert B. Smith Alumni & Conference Center. President Armstrong will give remarks and congratulate each student nominee. Cal Poly's 2010-11 Outstanding Student Employee of the Year will be announced during the reception. Cal Poly student employees, supervisors and supporters of student employees are welcome to attend. Attendees will celebrate the important achievements, contributions and exceptional service student employees give to the university. Congratulations to this year's outstanding student employees.

Cal Poly Community Center to Honor Student Volunteers Thursday

The Community Center at Cal Poly is hosting an event to honor Cal Poly students who have volunteered in the community. The event will run 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. April 14 in the Cal Poly Performing Arts Center lobby and will include complimentary food and drink. Students, faculty and staff are invited to see how Cal Poly students have contributed to the San Luis Obispo community and how they can get involved. Numerous local nonprofit agencies will showcase their organizations and celebrate the contributions of Cal Poly volunteers.
