Poly Royal Takes To Air As Radio Depicts Affairs

On Monday night, the first in a series of radio programs will be aired by the Poly Royal, the student radio station. The programs will be broadcast from 7 to 8 p.m. and will feature various topics related to campus life.

---

Editorial

For Poly, this week must have its own radio station. The radio station will be a great addition to the campus, but we do not want it to be a distraction from our educational purposes. Poly radio will be a valuable tool for public information and entertainment, but it must be used in a responsible manner.

Highly-Touted Faculty Show Has Presentation Today in Associated Students Assembly in Gymnasium

A musical comedy revue, in preparation for three weeks, was scheduled for performance today in the Poly gymnasium. The Faculty Revue, consisting of faculty members, will perform a variety of songs and skits.

Manages Staging

John J. Nyce, a theatrical producer, is organizing the electric lighting effects for the Faculty Revue. Nyce has been involved in various productions and is known for his innovative lighting designs.

---

When Fence Leaks This Little Pig Goes to School

Students have been advised to bring their earphones to class during the next week. This is due to the breaking of a water line that caused the Poly gymnasium to be closed temporarily.

Students Demand Freedom of Eats; Committee See Action

Students have been demanding freedom of choice regarding food in the cafeteria. They have expressed their dissatisfaction with the current food offerings and have requested more variety and flexibility in the cafeteria menu.

---

Cal Poly Football Field for Public Use

The north end of the stadium for public use will have better lighting on the grandstand and improved lighting effects on the field. This will be a benefit to football fans and guests attending games.

Redheads, Heavyweights Will Be Admitted Free At High School Dance

An admission fee of $1 is charged for the high school dance, but redheads and heavyweights will be admitted free.

Students May Vote on Whether Entrance is Alcoholic
