Polymen's Privileges Are Threatened

Consider this a last warning:

Unless the rowdies in the local theaters come to an abrupt stop, Poly students are going to be paying regular admission prices to view the pictures. Student body tickets are going to be useless as a knockdown on theater prices.

At least 90 per cent of the Poly fellows are gentleman. I dare say, it isn't the fellows who will read this editorial that cause the disturbance in the local theaters. You are that 90 per cent, but it is up to you to see that the other 10 per cent begin behaving like college men instead of high school punks.

Some of the cat calling and occasional rambling that goes on in the cinema house is almost excusable, but the vulgar remarks that some so-called "Polymen" pass around certainly aren't! Yes, it is a known fact that all the filthy and loud remarks made in these theaters come from the "men" of Poly. The management of the San Luis Obispo theater has enough proof to warrant their taking action. Their first action will be to cut out the "dross"— Because of Poly student body cards.

Gentlemen, it is up to you to act first and stop the rowdies. It is up to you to start your own reputation unless you do so. Don't let a few ill bred individuals spoil our college's good name. —D. C.

The Thoughts That Bloom in the Spring

Of Suzanne's got me kid—oh yea, man... spring fever is here! ... That lovely spring ... humans.

You may as well admit that these lazy warm days really set a guy on his back. Work is almost impossible—home work especially.

Spring showers only arrive as a stimulant for a short time and rain as well, Poly students will know it's spring. Time for dreaming about the beach.

Yet here is work to be done. We have to do it, or get out of school. College life is good, but for the ambitious young man who wants to make something of himself. We are all here for one reason—to get a useful education. You can't get an education by huddling around a Bradley, get up on your own bunk . . . I'm tired . . . just gotta' go to sleep. It's been a long week, I'm sure that there must be one.

Glee Club, Musicians Appointed for Arroyo Grande

An Apache dance, comedy, and a large variety of songs selected here will be presented by the glee club this year. The members of the glee club: Paul Dodgert (Arroyo Grande, Fort Stockton, Tex.), Paul Klein (San Luis Obispo), Paul W. Knauff, and Donald Bischoff. The Apache dance will be presented by George H. T. Potts. The dunce orchestra, the college orchestra, and vocal quartet of California State Polytechnic, under the direction of Harold P. Davidson, director of music, will also be presented.

Crops Students Start Two Projects Off Campus

Crops students at California Polytechnic have started two projects off campus. The first consists of 15 acres of alfalfa that will be used for hay and oats and wheat. The second project consists of two classes in the dairying cattle raising and showing business. The latter project will be presented during the summer and permanent jobs, and the present grants cards and changes in the room created by the students.

The El Rodeo presented a spirited discussion of participation in Poly Royal work. Participation in Poly Royal work will be the subject of a discussion during the next meeting of the club.

John Who Will Be Poly's Next Presxy?

"Johnny Carberry is not going to be back at Poly next fall. You fellows are going to have to see to your own reputation unless you do so. Don't let a few ill bred individuals spoil our college's good name. —D. C.

Cal Poly Students Get High Graduating
At Marketing Day

Most students at California Polytechnic, who had six fresh meat clinics held last week at the Union were students who had fat hogs, sheep, and cattle that they had raised on their farms or in the stockyards.

This was the idea of the marketing department, which is responsible for the marketing of the cows.

Baseballers Travel To Southland for Two Heavy Games

San Dimas is today playing host to the Poly. A hard-fisted club that wields with skill and precision, the Poly will find the San Dimas corner a hard one to crack. Moreover, the Poly will meet the San Dimas crew under less than ideal conditions, for the Poly will play in San Dimas with a new second baseman, Joe Snataos, who has not been permitted to enter the field of play. Joe Snataos has been a stand-out in every classification of play and his absence will be noticed immediately by Poly fans. For Joe Snataos is a man to be missed in any team that he plays for. He is a hard worker, a good hitter and a fine fielder. His absence will be noticed by the Poly fans and will be a source of great regret to them.
