Food, Morale And School Paper

We are no kind of educational editor this week attacking some subject vital to the interests of the students. We thought of all the gripes we have heard the last few weeks. The first thing that came to mind was the school cafeteria. It was natural that we suddenly realized dissatisfaction with the food is one of the major causes for low morale in the California Polytechnic community. (It is our personal opinion that morale is the lowest of the year. This is, so I am told, that we perfectly satisfy, go off to eat in the off-campus eating places, like the regular curriculum activities.) Low morale could be the cause for lack of interest in the school paper.

Student interest is lacking in the paper partly from the上面说法者几个人的对文章的几个方面的一种混淆。
