CAL POLY ENTERTAINS SANTA BARBARA

Friday, October 11 will always be a red letter day in the hearts and minds of the California Poly student body! We learned more in those twelve hours than we will probably learn in a long time to come.

We learned just how "unfriendly" a student body can be. The size of Santa Barbara State can be. We learned that to put your hand out in a friendly manner to these types of individuals is simply to ask for a foot in the face. And at last we found out what Senator Henry meant in saying he hoped we would not "go college" now that we had a degree added to our curricula. Yes, we agreed! If the way the Cal Poly students were treated at Santa Barbara is an example of "true collegiate spirit" then we want none of it here at Poly.

Open Arm Policy

In some respects we were forced to expect any other treatment from the Gauchos after the royal welcome they gave us when we made our publicity trip down there last April. They showed us then that we were not considered to be much more than "The Boys from Cow College." Now they have erased any doubts that we might have had in those respects. We were treated in the fairest and most courteous way possible. And, through this we have arrived at the opportunity to see the ratio they publicized. Only in this case their concerns seem to realize not only their own proposals but they have had everything in common with them.

Transportation was "furnished" to the game, to the dance, and back by a commercial bus line. The dance was free—if you don’t count the twenty-five cent charge for "incidentals." At last we had the opportunity to see the ratio they publicized. Only in this case it was 1-5, five Poly to one female, who for the most part was escorted by a Santa Barbaran.

As I said before, we have wanted and have tried to promote good relations with the Santa Barbara State student body but those seem to be the kinds of hands they want. If even our student officers had received any consideration the mutual feeling might have been different, but the Gauchos saw it to our overtook them.

Next Gauche Game Here

Nothing we can say, write, or do will change things now but we remember we still have our turn coming up; all of the iron are not out of the fire as yet. Our last one the date of the Santa Barbara game next year and that day we will have the opportunity to act as the hosts to the Gauchos. But instead of returning the same treatment they gave us when we were visiting, we will give them a reception they will never forget—a Poly reception! Meet them with the student body and the band, bring the wagons for transportation, have a free barbecue and dance, and really show the Gauchos what the label of the Mustangs looks like. And just why we never will want to "go college."

In the past, the exchange of vital
I am just about ready to explode over the game in the southern part of the state last week. If you remember, Santa Barbara with the bonus and San Luis Obispo with the Mustangs were players entirely different from the rest of the teams. They came out and stated that they were right—very right—and that next year we would send down a team that was a little better. This will be true, as we are not playing over our small poll but will be playing over their small poll. All in all, our team is playing better than any ever before. The contribution of the referees and during that time I feel that the Mustangs had been playing over their heads.

Howie will have a hard time finding the two first downs they gave us credit for. Even though Platz surveyed the heads in shame. It is due we should receive it and not be quartered for. Even though this may have been the case and showed that the contribution of the referees and during that time I feel that the Mustangs had been playing over their heads.

The pass for a touchdown from Platz for a touchdown from Santa Barbara State to a 18 to 14 score. It was a thrilling game with the lead going back and forth. The teams appeared even and consequently gave Poly only two points. Then Santa Barbara, with a well mixed attack of passes and running plays, went all the way to the half. With the half time score of 6 to 0 it showed that the Mustangs were getting the game more than they bunched for. The teams appeared even and consequently gave Poly only two points. The Mustangs opened the third quarter with a sustained drive that settled them another touchdown. But Platz wasn't through. With Platz, Smith, Singleton, and Pollock in the backfield, the team had the ball on the goal. The Mustangs were not to be denied. The team had the ball on the Poly's 35 yard line. Then Reid dropped back and threw a pass out into the flat zone. Pollock jumped up from nowhere and intercepted the pass and was off for the touchdown. The Mustangs not only scored, but they intercepted the passes of the Poly's again and consequently gave Poly only two points. Air Conditioning Freshmen Pledges Initiated at Avila
After wearing gowns and other insignia representing the first part of best wishes to the incoming class of the air conditioning club were transported to the Avila by their superintendent where they were formally initiated into the air conditioning club Wednesday, Oct. 5.

The initiation was directed by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomson, who welcomed the pledges into the club.

President of the air conditioning club at Cal Poly in James McDonald.

Poultry Project Money Is Shared By 35 Students
A total of $500 was shared by 35 students last year as part of the university's defense project. The project is entirely managed and run by students who contribute their time and energy and share the profits in direct proportion to the amount of their work. The project fund is set up by the school. All students contribute to the project fund, and students are free to use the money as they see fit. The profits are used to support the project and to support the school.

San Luis Forum
San Luis Forum director, Dr. Graham, spoke about the forum's history and the importance of its role in the community. The forum is a place for people to come together and discuss important issues. The forum is also a place for people to meet and make new friends. The forum is open to all people, and it is free to attend.

San Luis Obispo he predicted the defenses of the country, no one can afford to personally meet the men who are in the forefront today. As he speaks several languages these meetings have been highly valuable to him.

Dr. Graham's grasp of international affairs, which he has been studying for many years, will be of great value to the college and the community.
