IV. Consent Agenda:

V. Business Items:
   A. Resolution on General Education and Breadth Program: Proposed Administrative Structure, second reading: The Chair reviewed the procedures that would be adhered to during deliberation on this resolution. Hampsey read a statement from the GE&B Ad Hoc Committee mentioning the change in representation made to the report since its first reading.

   Lewis made a motion to call the question. M/S/F to call the question.

   Introductory remarks:
   (Amspacher) We have different assumptions we bring to this discussion. It appears our conflict is based on this difference. If GE&B is to be regarded in the same way as a student’s major, then it makes sense to have faculty who teach GE&B courses dominate the GEB Committee. But is we read the goals of GE&B as serving a supportive role to a student’s education, then these goals don’t require a weighted representation in order to be achieved.

   (Zingg) I think we all see the need for reform of GE&B for various reasons. We have little ability to achieve the goals of GE&B unless confident, trustful, positive steps are taken. This resolution provides the promise that these steps can achieve its goals. We have a shared responsibility to make GE&B special and productive.

   (Vanasupa/Botwin) M/S/F 8-37 to roll-call all voting of alternative reports.
Alternative report 3.1:
(Vanasupa) The request for equal representation on the GE&B Committee is not made out of political interest but out of the desire to share equally in the decision making for GE&B.
(Amspacher) There are two completely different models for how GE&B should be administered and this is what is at conflict. (Smidt) Last year's GE&B standing committee opposed the Ad Hoc Committee's proposal, but this year's report is much improved. The standing committee supports this proposal but there were differences of opinion regarding the makeup of the membership.

M/S/P to call the question on alternative report 3.1.

Alternative report 2.3:
M/S/P to call the question on alternative report 2.3.

Alternative report 1.7:
(Zingg) The Provost's office will provide some level of support for the position of director, but a commitment of two-thirds released time cannot be made at this time.

Alternative report 3.3:
M/S/P to call the question on alternative report 3.3.

The alternative reports to the General Education and Breadth Program: Proposed Administrative Structure (1.27.97 Proposal) were deliberated and voted upon as follows:

ALTERNATIVE REPORTS to the GENERAL EDUCATION AND BREADTH PROGRAM:
PROPOSED ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE (1.27.97 proposal)

(Alternative reports appear in italics)

Conceptual Goals of the General Education and Breadth Program
The California State University requires General Education and Breadth programs designed to assure graduates have made noteworthy progress toward becoming truly educated persons and provide means whereby graduates will have:

A. the ability to think clearly and logically, to find information and examine it critically, to communicate orally and in writing, and to reason quantitatively;

B. appreciable knowledge about their own bodies and minds, about how human society has developed and how it now functions, about the physical world in which they live, about the other forms of life with which they share the world, and about the cultural endeavors and legacies of their civilizations;

C. an understanding and appreciation of the principles, methodologies, value systems, and thought processes employed in human inquiries.

1.1 (add new paragraph to read):
D. an understanding of how technology influences and is influenced by cultural and environmental factors, the applications of technology to contemporary problems, and the potential of technology to negatively affect individuals and societies. DEFEATED 19-27
1.2 (add new paragraph to read):
E. the ability to see themselves in relation to people of foreign countries, their geography, political and economic systems, and religious and ethical values. DEFEATED 17-30

1.3 (add new paragraph to read):
F. a basic understanding of the nature of symbolic and aesthetic expression as embodied in significant literary and artistic achievements. DEFEATED by voice vote

It is the ultimate aim of the program that the habits of thought and discussion, of engaging one’s curiosity, creativity, and penchant for discovery, and of inquiry and learning, nurtured in Cal Poly’s GEB program, will persist throughout the lives of all students.

Responsibility for the General Education and Breadth Program
General Education and Breadth is a university level program and requires the strong leadership of the university provost and president.

Cal Poly’s General Education and Breadth program is the administrative responsibility of the GEB Committee.
This administrative function is meant to be consistent with normal university procedures involving curriculum and to parallel the process used by departments in making programmatic proposals. Just as a department makes curricular and programmatic recommendations via a dean to the Academic Senate, the GEB Committee, after appropriate consultation with affected units, makes curricular and programmatic recommendations to the Academic Senate via the provost. The provost submits the GEB proposals to the Academic Senate for review and recommendations. The ultimate decisions and responsibilities for the General Education and Breadth program, as with any program, lie with the president.

The GEB Committee
The GEB Committee is charged with assuming a vigorous leadership and administrative role in the development and maintenance of a strong and coherent General Education and Breadth program that meets the noble purposes of its conceptual goals and fosters a stimulating academic and intellectual environment on the Cal Poly campus.
By its own initiatives, and those of the university community, and by consultation with appropriate campus groups, the GEB Committee will make recommendations, through its director, to the provost on all matters and aspects pertaining to the General Education and Breadth program including philosophy, content, format, delivery, and adherence to standards of quality.

Among the Specific Duties Assigned to the GEB Committee are the Following:
* program development, monitoring, and assessment
* designating GEB courses
* encouraging innovation
* issues related to community college GEB programs
* interaction with academic and administrative units
* acting on petitions regarding GEB requirements
* promoting and coordinating GEB related activities such as conferences, seminars, and speakers

Membership: A director and eight committee members will compose the GEB Committee; two from the College of Science and Mathematics, two from the College of Liberal Arts, and one from each of the four professional colleges. Committee members will serve three-year renewable terms that are staggered to promote continuity.
2.1 (replace the wording in this section with the following):
The GEB Committee will be composed of a director and seven members, one from each of the six colleges and from Professional Consultative Services (PCS). Both the director and committee members will serve a maximum of two three-year renewable terms to promote continuity. WITHDRAWN

3.1 (replace the wording in this section with the following):
The GEB Committee will be composed of a director and six members, one from each of the six colleges, as well as nonvoting members (one each) representing Professional Consultative Services (PCS) and ASI. Committee members will serve three-year renewable terms that are staggered to promote continuity. DEFEATED 18-29

4.1 (replace the wording in this section with the following):
The GEB Committee will be composed of eight members: a representative from each of the six colleges, a student representative selected by ASI, and a director. Committee members will serve three-year renewable terms that are staggered to promote continuity. WITHDRAWN

5.1 (replace the wording in this section with the following):
A director and eight committee members will compose the GEB Committee; two from the College of Science and Mathematics and Liberal Arts, two from the College of Liberal Arts Science and Mathematics, and one each from each of the four professional colleges. Committee members will serve three-year renewable terms that are staggered to promote continuity. A maximum of two consecutive terms may be served. DEFEATED by voice vote

5.6 (if alternative report 2.1 or 3.1 is passed, then this alternative report will be considered):
In the event that a PCS member is added to the GEB Committee (whether as an 'ex officio member' or otherwise), a student member will also be added in same capacity. In addition, members of the Office of Academic Affairs and Evaluations and Records and other consultative entities shall also be added. NOT CONSIDERED

Qualifications of GEB Committee Members: Committee members will be faculty members with a demonstrated interest in GEB and who have a thorough understanding of, and deep conviction and commitment to, the philosophy and conceptual goals of the General Education and Breadth program.

1.4 (replace the wording in this section with the following):
