CALENDAR

Boone, Wilson to work for national defense program

Assistant Superintendents of Crop and Range Defense are the titles that Eugene Boone and Harold Wilson received when they ceremoniously vaulted their teaching posts at Poly. They will continue this work on national defense until July 1 at which time they will resume their teaching here at Poly. The national defense training is to be given to all blood-stained (boys and girls) from rural communities.

Based on the information provided, it seems that there is a focus on national defense, with a particular emphasis on the work of Boone and Wilson for national defense. The text mentions the beginning of the 111 plan for the El Rodeo and the presentation of snapshots. There is also a reference to Life of typical American farmer depicted by book.

Students urged to participate in Poly broadcasts

New voices are wanted for the CALENDAR program, which is mentioned as an event that will be held on Tuesday, February 24. The text does not provide further details about the event or its purpose.

The Ornamental Horticulture program, the Air Conditioning program, and the Air Conditioning program, along with other programs, are mentioned as opportunities for students to participate in Poly broadcasts. The text mentions the need for new voices in the program and encourages students to participate.

"Washington the Farmer" theme of Saturday's dance

Making its first appearance of the season, the high-spirited theme for the Max's Club dance will present a trip to Washington, DC in a mode that will give the impression of what the thousands of high school students who mark upon the campus during the term will be to see as good as not actu­

Colds necessitate moving of hen stock from plant

What’s going on in the poultry plant? A cold, harsh winter season in full swing and poultry students are barely getting their paws ready for breeding and planing. As things stand, the Poly poultry plant is having to move all of its eggs.

New building program will near two million dollar mark

Eighteen years of progress
Buried for 38 years in a tomb-like compartment are some of the oldest records of the advancement of sport in the state of California, and in the city of San Luis Obispo. Until then, when the new, Administration building was dedicated and the records buried in the cornerstone of the structure.

Next Tuesday at two o'clock, President Julian A. McPeck will sink a hammer through the walls of the stone in a ceremony opening the new Administration building. The records will be placed in the cornerstone along with various local newspapers which covered the event.

These papers that are stored in the compartment will be used by the Polytechnic for determining the progress made by the college in the past 26 years. Valuable also, the records that are kept in the college are these manuscripts which consist principally of early sketches and records of the California Polytechnic of 1905, along with others of the local newspapers which covered the event.

Soon we too will lay our corner stone of a new administration building: Perhaps in 1980 or so we shall come back to a ceremony when a dodge shall be thrust into the vital of the new records that today we are building. We will show as much advancement in the next fourteen or decades as it is shown in the past—The Editor.

SPRING, FOOTBALL, AND STUFF

Football, in the past quarter-century, has emerged from comparative obscurity to be the most important intercollegiate sport in the state of California, and in the city of San Luis Obispo.

The proposed schedule for 1941 is far by the hardest yet attempted by California Polytechnic. It is composed entirely of four year colleges and universities comparable with the class of Texas A. and M. There are Polytechnic colleges in Arizona, Utah, and Nevada. The things, then, that we do next fall in football before? Would you like to? If so, the studentbody wants to see what YOU look like in a pair of moleskin breeches. Do you have what it takes? BOOS AND BOUQUETS BY BROOPLY

The other day I had to laugh. I was sitting and listening in as a group of upperclassmen were counting the advantages and disadvantages of joining a fraternity. One fellow in particular seemed to think that the advantages outweighed the disadvantages. Why not get a job at this? you might get some service, you're lucky if you live in the fraternity there, but it was fun. I wonder if the other boys who live in the fraternity, because we put it on for her, oh well, every one is getting bit. But she kind of cute and she is kind of cute, kind of cute.

Speaking of my public, you should hear how they clamor for me! (Not saying why I would infer that if I'm in top form today, come (Please be sure to remember that ME and the Weather MAN:)

NUMB SKULL

It was this morning, had I been able to keep my hands in my pockets all the way to class. And my head down between my shoulders. (I am not saying that I can't keep my hands in my pockets, but it makes me wonder if the numbness stops at my waist. I could use my hands this morning. Winter is here.)
