Guest at the College: L. R. Reel, owner of the Miller's Sunshine Band, was introduced by Gu Richards and his head as the guest speaker at the Friday afternoon program. A leading song and dance group, the Sunshine Band, made their entrance into the room, with their trumpets, trombones, and drums led in by the popular Gary Richards. The program included a variety of music, including jazz, swing, and traditional songs. The audience enjoyed the performance, and the event was a great success.

Claire de Lune for Jivers' Reasons

Dorothy Christofferson, a student at Miller's Sunshine Band, performed a rendition of Claude Debussy's "Claire de Lune" on the piano. This popular piece was a hit with the audience, and many were captivated by the beautiful melody and delicate phrasing. The performance was a highlight of the evening.

The Harpo's Bizare.......

Harpo Marx, the famous clown and actor, performed a variety of tricks and stunts, capturing the attention of the audience. From his unique Comedy School of Physical Education to his mastery of the harp, Harpo's performance was a combination of laughter and surprise. The audience was left in awe of his incredible talent.

Poly win silver skis at Yosemite Valley meet

California Poly made its initial debut in open ski competition in the 50 points style at the first inter­ national meet held March 9. With perfect ski conditions prevailing, five times were established by all the competitors.

SAMERSON WINS SILVER SKIS

Wally Sahagian, former Poly stu­ dent, won his silver skis on the hill and a half hour before the fast time of 1:09.00. Bill Hargus also won his silver ski on the downhill. The day before, on the cross-country in the morning, the Polyites were not so fast at that of Balf­ ow because no ski man will win with their gold skis in the below finish.

Tractor skills exam to be given next Monday

If the weather man permits, the final examination for the winter quarter tractor skills course will be given on Monday, March 24, according to the time schedule under the course.

ACCURACY STRESSED

The test will be given on the hill between the Ag Ed field and the Ag Mechanics shop and will consist of four-events designed to measure the skill and accuracy as well as the smoothness of each in­ dividual on the various tractors.

TWO EXAMINATION TIMES

The exam will require about two hours, but these need not be con­ secutive. Merren also stated that there is room for a few more stu­ dents. The exam runs from 10 to 2 a.m. and will count as one section of the course for this quarter. Anyone wishing to register for these hours must report to the Poly gym (Poly) Auto shop on Monday, March 17. The 8 to 10 and 2 to 5 sections are full and no students will be permitted to register for classes at those hours.

Readily-built Shops serve up NYA defense plan

John K. Duran, resident super­ visor in charge of the Cal Poly project, has announced the building of the new defense shops will be erected as soon as weather permits and a foundation is laid in the prefabricated building. The building is prefabricated of glass and steel and arrived on the campus Tuesday, April 5. Poly's classrooms will be combined into one shop, as one shop, room, drafting offices, and offices will be at one side, while the drafting offices and offices will be on a balcony which will be built into the main floor.

EQUIPMENT ARRIVES

Shops are to be stocked with equipment as one shop, room, drafting offices, and offices will be at one side, while the drafting offices and offices will be on a balcony which will be built into the main floor.

Dairy club begins grooming of animals in preparation for April 25-26

By Warren Bates, Jr.

Interest is now growing in the Dairy club, as the Poly Royal draws nearer, according to the late Leo Larcher club President. The 10th annual Poly Royal show, which is held on April 25 and 26. The club has offered to trade two cows for prepa­ring a dairy animal for the show.

You may go up to the Dairy club, and if you have the time, expect to see the animals getting their tea cot. (Baled) Sometimes a Frisky animal creates a bit of fun by doing its best to run any way, except the way you want it. The Poly Royal animals are experience­ing their first exposure to the gen­tle art of learning to behave. The good old hair brush is now getting its share of work, and the Poly Royal stockmen are trying to check down stubbers “cows looks.”

GET HAIR CUTS

In most cases, the cows will be further beautified by the un­known cow boy’s hair brush. You can see the improvement.

The Poly Royal animals will be shown in a variety of classes during the Poly Royal show, including dairy cattle, beef cattle, and sheep.
