April 23, declared Poly Royal cleanup day here.

The following statement of the purpose of Clean-Up Day, scheduled for April 23, and the student assignments, was made to the student body to convey the spirit of this chairman of the function.

"Surely we have all appreciated the desire PATCH students, from being at home during weekends, and asked, 'What are we supposed to do? Can we do this?' This can be answered by saying, 'Yes, you certainly are!' We must keep in mind that the purpose of this Clean-Up Day is to clean the entire Poly campus and not to make a lot of noise!"

Men's glee club comes back to work after annual tour

Once again the members of the California State Polytechnic Men's Glee Club place their names in the grandstands and ready themselves to open a new season after completing a successful tour of the campus and the surrounding area. This year the group covered more than 150 miles. Many of the members were missed in high school were visited. The tour was a success and will be remembered by the group for a long time. They were welcomed by the Poly principal, Mrs. Bina, the Poly principal's family, and the Poly principal's students.

Camera Club boasts 1500 pictures during past year

With a battery of fifteen cameras, a well-organized club, and the enthusiasm of the members, the Camera Club has grown in the last year. The club was started at the beginning of the year and has steadily increased in membership. The club has been an active group and has taken part in many local and national contests. The members have worked hard and the club has grown in popularity. The club has taken part in several local and national contests and has won several awards. The Poly Royal is here! These words have a great meaning and hidden meaning. They mean that next week will be one of the most hectic, most exciting, and most interesting weeks in the college life of every individual student. They mean that the time is now here for you to show your parents, friends, and the entire public what you have been doing in your college work. As a man or a woman those things missing steers, those wandering steers and guns... show everyone that Poly is becoming big... because her students and faculty are the ones who know what they want, and how they are going to get it.

The Poly Royal Executive Committee has been working for months courting up plans, working out details, developing new and novel ideas. The blueprints are finished. Construction must begin.

There are thousands of things yet to be done. We start with a wholesale cleanup day next Wednesday. Classes or no classes we work, and on next Friday's grand opening, even we Polyites will be amazed at the things that have been accomplished.

To Those new at Poly this year... we say that Poly has a great event. Don't take our word for it. Instead, just ask anyone... ANYONE... who has been here during a Poly Royal. However, it is made so much easier now that a Poly Royal. Any and all Poly Royals will be amazed at the things that have been accomplished.

Is there anyone who realizes that there are only 31 more working, I mean, school days till vacation period. There are but 12 Saturdays left for the Poly Royal, and that will also lose significance for during the coming week we are going to make Poly Royal. Nine hundred strong we work, and on next Friday's grand opening we Polymites will be amazed at the things that have been accomplished.

There are thousands of things yet to be done. We start with a wholesale cleanup day next Wednesday. Classes or no classes, Thursday, Thursday night, Friday, Friday night, Saturday, and Saturday night will all be devoted to one thing... a Poly Royal. Sunrise and sunset will lose significance for during the coming week we are going to make Poly Royal. Nine hundred strong we work, and on next Friday's grand opening we Polymites will be amazed at the things that have been accomplished.

It's that time of the year again, and there are some things you should know. Did you know that Poly is here?—John Carriaguerro.

It is News to me too!

Miss Margaret Chase, English instructor at Poly, heads quite an interesting but little heard of committee. She is the chairman of the students' council. The committee was organized for the sole purpose of providing coordination between the students and the administration of the college.

Perhaps John Jones has a bone with one of the instructors of Bill Smith doesn't like the way some groups on the campus, the janitors, the instructors, or practically anything failing are operating. Maybe it's the food, the mattresses, the doctors, heating system, some hazing. Perhaps it's not a beef but rather a case that needs some help or advice, then the council under the jurisdiction of the college or situation that the college.

Students may come before the committee and what they say will be kept in private if the individual so wishes it. The administration has authorized this committee to wish to hear from this board for it operates independent of the administrative council. If persons feel they have a just cause for registering a complaint the student welfare committee is the place for it.

Instead of getting out petitions, carrying banners, or just eternally "griping" about some situation that is troubling you and may be troubling others too, take a try before the committee, if they can't straighten things out no one on the campus can.
Dear Mr. Brophy,

We are sending you this official announcement as a reminder of your appointment as the College's representative to the national competition for the Walter Mack Job Awards. Your selection is based on your demonstrated qualifications and potential to contribute to the workforce as a significant and responsible individual.

Your participation in the annual Walter Mack Job Awards competition is highly valued. This program is designed to provide recognition and support to young people who are about to enter the workforce. The Walter Mack Foundation is committed to identifying and supporting candidates who possess the qualities of integrity, hard work, and dedication.

As the next forum speaker, you are especially well qualified to enlighten us on this topic. We have secured the services of the Foundation's expert committee to assist you in preparing your presentation.

We are happy to recall your kind interest last year in the Walter Mack Job Awards for American Youth, and your expressed desire to hear of its further progress. We know you will be interested to learn that yesterday we sent to your president the announcement of the 1941 Walter Mack Job Awards for American Youth, together with two application blanks. We cordially invite the entry of a qualified candidate from the University of California, at Berkeley. If you have already selected a candidate, we would be grateful if you could forward the application blank to us immediately.

We have received literally scores of letters from prominent people in key positions throughout the country, from the general public, and from other business organizations in support of the Walter Mack Job Awards. This year's competition promises to be even more spectacular, with increased interest and participation.

We are looking forward to hearing your insights and thoughts on this important topic. Your expertise and experience will undoubtedly provide valuable guidance and inspiration to our students. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

Suffolk ram is donated to Poly by Cammillo breeder

Carleton P. Banks of Greatfield Farm at Cameron currently owns the purebred Suffolk ram that is the subject of this article. The Suffolk breed is widely known and appreciated for its meat production qualities. This particular ram has been imported from England and is considered to be one of the finest examples of the breed in the United States. It is expected to have a significant impact on the Polytechnic sheep herd, contributing to both meat production and genetic improvement.

It is a pleasure to announce, according to Mr. Town, that several of the state's best breeders are now planning to attend the next Poly Royal show, which is scheduled to take place in late April. Among those expected to be present are prominent breeders of Shorthorn, Hampshire, and other breeds.

The public is encouraged to participate in the show, as it will feature a diverse range of agricultural exhibits and competitions. The show is an opportunity for students and alumni to showcase their work, share knowledge, and network with others in the agriculture community.

April 23 declared Poly Royal clean-up-day here

The end of the school year brings the time for the much-anticipated "cinch" notices, according to announcement from the registrar's office. These notices will be sent out on April 23, it is stated.

The names will be posted on the bulletin board across the hall from the main office in the agricultural education building, and will be handout through the Cal Poly post office. In the boxes located on the campus the check will be delivered by their respective dorm superstitions along with other mail.

The boys that live off the campus are being requested to pick up the mail at the post office for them.
