Outstanding Faculty Advisor Named

Curtis Illingworth, architect and Architecture faculty member, has been selected as the 2008-09 Outstanding Faculty Advisor. Illingworth’s nominations described his excellence at direct student advising, as well as his broader efforts to ensure advising excellence throughout his department. One nominee said, “He was instrumental in establishing a Faculty Advising Center, with drop-in hours, and he wrote the book on advising: he created the handbook for Architecture faculty advisors.” Another said, “Ilingworth has given freely of his time at Open House and SOAR, where students first encounter his ‘down-to-earth, open’ approach.” Illingworth, the eighth recipient of this award, was selected from eighteen worthy nominations.
