New Mail Delivery System to be Initiated

A dormitory system of mail delivery and pickup will be inaugurated at Cal Poly in the immediate future. According to Bill Troutham, in charge of resident students, the new postal system will be started just as soon as the boxes for collection and delivery are completed. This will be within the next two weeks.

The new service will operate in the following manner: Each dormitory will have a delivery box. A regular postman will leave the mail in the box for the dorm. The dormitory superintendent will then distribute the mail to the individual rooms. This will be done before noon, if possible. Individual delivery will be made to the dwelling units on the campus. The boxes in "Vitelle" are being numbered to facilitate this service.

Mail will be picked up at the post office on the campus for delivery to those students living at Camp Luis Obispo. Students are warned that this delivery will start very soon.

Correspondents should be notified of the change of address or telephone number. The address must include the name of the dormitory for proper service. In the case of those living at the student homes, the address should be: John Doe, Cal Poly University, Camp Luis Obispo, California. The post office will be located in the basement of MacKinnon Hall. The post office will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and closed from 12 noon to 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

Special guests who will be in attendance include C. O. McPhee, Carl Beek, Jack Kierle, former general manager of the Meat Products Cooperative Association, Lawrence R. Spraker, Atascadero postmistress, and president of the Board of Directors of the Poly Interfraternity Council, and Dwight Bailey, Superintendent of the Rosemary Poultry plant at Santa Maria.

Many acceptance of invitations in the former poultry students have been received, and as this is the longest meeting of Poultry club in 18 years, it has been looked forward to for the past months.

Polyn Club to Hold Banquet

Tonight the Poultry club will hold its 14th annual turkey banquet at 6:30 p.m. at the Atherton Hall on Belden Street in San Luis Obispo, in honor of all former poultry students.

Special guests who will be in attendance include C. O. McPhee, Carl Beek, Jack Kierle, former general manager of the Meat Products Cooperative Association, Lawrence R. Spraker, Atascadero postmistress, and president of the Board of Directors of the Poly Interfraternity Council, and Dwight Bailey, Superintendent of the Rosemary Poultry plant at Santa Maria.

Many acceptance of invitations in the former poultry students have been received, and as this is the longest meeting of Poultry club in 18 years, it has been looked forward to for the past months.

Pro-Geme Rally Slated Tomorrow

A Student rally, sponsored by the Rally Committee, will be held at the Fremont theater Friday night at 9:30. The rally will feature the band, and members of the Poultry club to provide a musical interlude during the intermission and have worked out by the lighting committee for the dancers. .

The Chico State game is the last football appearance of the Muskegians for the year and Rally committee, will be held Saturday evening following the game between Cal Poly and Chico State. The rally will feature the band, and members of the Poultry club to provide a musical interlude during the intermission and have worked out by the lighting committee for the dancers.

The decoration committee, under Arne Rehal, will supervise the construction of new decorations, in addition to the many new and intriguing items to be expected in the game. The decoration committee is also working on a new arrangement of an old jump game. One of the features will be an arrangement where the audience will have to prove that Cal Poly will win the game in order to have a chance to win the prize. The decoration committee is also working on a new arrangement of an old jump game. One of the features will be an arrangement where the audience will have to prove that Cal Poly will win the game in order to have a chance to win the prize.

Polyn Will Show At Great Western Fair in December

The Animal Husbandry department will exhibit more of its prize-winning livestock at the Great Western Livestock Show, to be held in Los Angeles, starting November 21st.

Those men who plan to exhibit livestock at this show will have their Thanksgiving vacation in order to get their animals in good shape and prepare them for the show. Nevertheless, some difficult problems may come up during this time. The Greater Western show is one of the largest shows in the country. Poly has exhibited for annual shows the past two years, and has done very well. The hope is to improve and increase this record at this largest Greater Western show in its history.

Project steers of several breeds will be on hand to represent Polyn. Six other students, Bob White, Fred Dam, and Fred Huebner, will represent other students project clubs. The school will not exhibit steers, except those owned by students as projects.

Poly Phase Dance Dinner

By Paul Magee

The Poly Phase, another appearance of the annual Survivor, will be held Saturday evening following the game between Cal Poly and Chico State. The Poly Phase club will be holding a dinner, buffet style, to enjoy the game and provide a musical interlude during the intermission. The concert will feature the Poly Phase club orchestra, in addition to the many new and intriguing items to be expected in the game. The concert will feature the Poly Phase club orchestra, in addition to the many new and intriguing items to be expected in the game.

The decoration committee, under Arne Rehal, will supervise the construction of new decorations, in addition to the many new and intriguing items to be expected in the game. The decoration committee is also working on a new arrangement of an old jump game. One of the features will be an arrangement where the audience will have to prove that Cal Poly will win the game in order to have a chance to win the prize. The decoration committee is also working on a new arrangement of an old jump game. One of the features will be an arrangement where the audience will have to prove that Cal Poly will win the game in order to have a chance to win the prize.
Fall Quarter Final Examination Schedule

Monday, December 2—
8-10 A.M.: Lab 12
10-12 A.M.: Lab 12
12-2 P.M.: Lab 12
2-4 P.M.: Lab 12
4-6 P.M.: Lab 12
6-8 P.M.: Lab 12

Tuesday, December 3—
1-3 P.M.: Lab 12
3-5 P.M.: Lab 12
5-7 P.M.: Lab 12
7-9 P.M.: Lab 12

Wednesday, December 4—
8-10 A.M.: Lab 12
10-12 A.M.: Lab 12
12-2 P.M.: Lab 12
2-4 P.M.: Lab 12
4-6 P.M.: Lab 12
6-8 P.M.: Lab 12

Count Your Blessings

This is our Thanksgiving issue. In spite of the impending examinations, the students in this school have much to be thankful for.

For most of us this is our first Thanksgiving that will be spent with our families in several years. It is the time when we will be able to serve you well during the winter term.

And now may we take this opportunity to wish you a happy Thanksgiving and a happy new year.

Hasta La Vista

This is the last issue of El Mustang for the fall quarter. The staff is not going to hang around here over the Thanksgiving holiday to print a paper that few, if any, would be around to read. The staff wants to thank you readers for your cooperation through this school year, and we will be able to serve you well during the winter term.

Remember, please, that this is your paper; we want your contributions and suggestions.

For Good Foods

No... This isn't the Tractor Skills class...
By Ted Lane

Saturday evening turned out to be a real doozy at the Mustang Stadium as the sturdy fullback, Jim Yates, and the agile quarterback, Rosa, led the Mustangs to a 12-8 victory over the El Toro marines.

In the first period, El Toro broke the ice with a touchdown pass to a receiver, but the Mustangs quickly retaliated with a successful field goal. The second period brought more of the same, with the Mustangs outscoring El Toro 6-2.

The third period saw the marines take the lead again, but the Mustangs were not to be denied, scoring the winning touchdown in the final minutes. The Mustangs' defense was solid throughout the game, and the offense was led by Yates and Rosa.

The Mustangs' victory was a great boost for their morale, and they are looking forward to their next game against the rival team.
The present equipment will be taught to disassemble, simple stereotyping, the fundamentals of making up and running forms on various makes and sizes of presses, simple stereotyping, the fundamentals of making up and running forms on various makes and sizes of presses, the place to shop for...