Mustangs Favored Over SF Gators; Poly Coaches Speak At Assembly

Harden Lauds Team Support By Rooters

Coach Sheldon Harden, first speaker at the Wednesday morning rally-assembly, predicted that the Mustang football squad has an excellent chance to win over the San Francisco Poly team at the Poly stadium tomorrow evening.

"We have had the San Francisco football team as a foe so far," said Hardy, "but we have not played the Poly team yet.

"If the team continues to improve, we will make it to the end of the season and we may play the Poly team.

"The Mustangs have played with the Poly team and we have won.

"The Poly team has shown that they can be beaten.

"The Mustangs have shown that they can be beaten.

"The Mustangs have shown that they can be beaten.

"The Mustangs have shown that they can be beaten."
Cash Basis for College Sales

The board of directors of the college foundation has arranged to put all college services, such as milk and egg sales, on a cash basis, according to Donald Nelson, college business manager.

A cash register has been ordered through which departmental items, such as milk and eggs, may be bought, but it has not yet arrived. Credit will continue to be extended until the machine arrives. Nelson said, and then notice will be given as to when the cash basis will go into effect.

Dairy Sales Room Extends Inventory

Married students, faculty members and campus employees are eligible to buy milk and other dairy products at the college dairy sales room, now located at Hillcrest. Ken Hurst, dairy manufacturer, instructor stated today. Campus dairy prices, he said, are slightly lower than downtown prices.

At the present time, only charge account sales are handled at the dairy sales room. Cash sales are handled at the creamery, and then notice will be given when the cash basis will go into effect.

Dry Grass Blazes At Campus Orange Grove

An estimated 1000 square feet of dry grass was burned off in a fire which broke out shortly after last Saturday’s football game, according to William Quinlan, college janitor.

The fire was discovered in the orange orchard next to the path leading from Parson’s apartments to the dormitories. According to Quinlan, the fire seems to have been started by a discarded match in his cigarette. Quinlan stated no serious damage resulted.

Library Periodical Gets Face-Lifting

Head Librarian Francis F. Allen is initiating a new feature to the monthly Mustang, published by the library as a service to the faculty and students.

Each issue will include a cover page with stories covering the library’s activities, humorous incidents and items of historical interest about the school. Available approximately the 15th of each month, a copy is sent to each faculty member and is on the reading racks for student use.

The first cover contains some humorous incidents taken from a paper by the late Dr. Letty Aiken, first president of Cal Poly, written in 1915. A new method of presenting the book listings will soon be inaugurated and will be explained by Allen in use of the book. For instance, for the list are cut at the library, and it is mimeographed in the basement of the Ad building.

A Word For Athletics

An analysis of the Oxy game does not turn out as depressing, for Cal Poly, as does the score. The Mustangs certainly have their ups and downs at any one time of the season. Fumbling, while not eliminated, was considerably less frequent than in the team never returned to the field for a win in the contest.

The second two Oxy touchdowns seemed to happen almost accidentally, and the visitors were not in the least subtle in their desire to score a fourth trip over the goal line before the final gun sounded. Backing back the Cal Poly team and coaching staff, therefore, would be in extremes bad taste.

The players were doing their best. It is certain that they feel a lot about losing the game that does the student body at large. Instead of panning the team, let's get behind them. They still have a chance to get a conference win or two before the season ends.

I don't believe one can always ask the question of how a student body can back its team. An enthusiastic cheering section is supposed to be a tremendous help to the players—any creature article or are the view of the writer and do not necessarily represent the opinion of the Associated Student Body, nor Official opinion, Student Union, Polyman, or El Mustang. Receiving Room

By Fred Hillman

An important department of any library, large or small, is the ordering and receiving room. At Cal Poly this department is located in the basement of the new Walter P. Post Library and is provided over by Arthur Stobbe, assisted by Lucy Parent. Stobbe trained at Pepperdine University and has gained additional experience at several southern libraries. Miss Parent attended Pepperdine College and has been with the Pulp Library for three years. As soon as possible, the department functions to order new books and number them at time of delivery. Requests for new books are generally made by instructors, students, however, may suggest new books providing the volumes could be of use to a sufficient number of other students. Parents submitting a request for any new book should know the title, author, volume, publisher and year of publication. This information is obtained from the Cumulative Book Index, a publication which lists almost all books published. Because these listings are grouped under the years of publication, the ordering staff must sometimes wade through hundreds of volumes before finding the requested book. After the needed information for a new book is found, seven separate files are checked to assure the best possible quality of the book. This building, constructed in 1940-41, has 66,000 square feet of floor space.

Orders, Numbers New Books

non-duplication. The order is then sent to the Vroman or the Technical Book company for purchase. Occasionally some other company will be called to supply the desired volume. Should the book be out of print, second-hand dealers' lists must be checked. If book is received, it is checked for defects and is given an accession number. The accession number shows the number of books admitted to the library. The book is then ready for processing by the cataloging department.

Two cafeterias, both serving three meals per day, seven days per week, and capable of accommodating a total of 2,000 students per meal, are located on the campus.

Boehm Outruns Rivals In SPAAU Four Miler

Wall Boehm led the Mustang cross-country team to second place honors in the Southern Pacific AAU meet held in Santa Barbara last Saturday. The men from Eagle Rock almost lived up to their pre-meet expectations.

Boehm ran through the three miles and will be run around Lake Merrit. Last year in cross-country meets, Cal Poly defeated the Mustangs in their only meeting and took out two of three meets from San Jose. Coach Jim Jensen has announced that two meets will be added to the Mustang schedule making a total of eight meets.

Intra-Mural Corner

By Ken Kincheloe

Intra-mural football is nearing a climax, and the teams are fighting hard to keep their standing at the present time. The rockies, soon-to-be YMCA boys are leading the Foot league by a six game margin. Those boys will have to fight to keep that lead and take the league. In the Afternoon league, the El Toro's and the Jesperson hall are tied up for first place. Watch those men fight for the lead. The El Toro's are the favorites by seven points.

The Colt Poly Fresh get a much needed rest this week after performing on foreign fields for the last two Saturdays. Several boys were battered and bruised in the Santa Clara and St. Mary's games and the reserves will be welcomed. A big, powerful Santa Clara yarding squad was held to a 8-6 down on four line bucks. The Poly came to life during the second half to hang up on the Bronco 40, but they out ran another to even matters.

Home Games

Including the Saturday tilt with the San Francisco Gators in Poly stadium, the Mustangs will have four more home football games this season.

Architects Commence Hillcrest Landscaping
For Department Unit

In an effort to improve the horticultural grounds on the campus, the Architectural Department has undertaken the landscaping of a new area in the north end of Hillcrest, near the drafting hall, as a part of their department's ongoing initiative.

"On their own initiative, the members are planning, designing, and doing the actual work themselves," said Robert Smith, chair of the Architectural Department. "We're using this project to gain practical experience in our field and to offer an opportunity for growth to our students."
