President McPhae Blasts
General Moral Laziness

Charging that "character training" has been neglected in American homes and schools, President Julian A. McPhae yesterday appealed to students to help fight the moral degeneration which is weakening the American nation. Speaking to his law class, he said, "We must return the atmosphere which prompted Christian ideals of honesty, kindness, and love."

President McPhae referred to the "school of life" as the "nightmare posted on the bulletin board." He said, "We must return the atmosphere which prompted Christian ideals of honesty, kindness, and love."

Mize Releases SAC Agenda; Editor Explains by Note

Student Body President Vern Mize, today released the tentative agenda of the Tuesday, Oct. 8, Student Affairs council meeting.

The agenda follows:

1. Budget committee report in state of union.
2. Clarification of student president, dues, and SAC resolution on allocation of funds for student activities to each department.
3. Important department reports.
4. Important decisions in SAC.

U S Grants Provide Foreign Studies
Opportunity Here

Opportunities for more than 700 American students have been announced by the Department of State.

Countries in which study grants are available include: Australia, Austria, Belgium, Burma, Canada, Ceylon, France, India, Iran, Italy, Japan, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan, Philippines, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, and various nations in both Europe and Asia.

For One Year

Grants are normally made for one academic year and generally involve full-time study. In some cases grants can be used for summer school attendance, but not for vacation. In others, grants can be used for a combination of vacation and study.

All grants under the act are made in foreign currencies.

For practice judging a few of the entries to stop on at the Fresno fair, students from the Poly team along with 30 teams from around the state will be there on Saturday, September 18 and October 10 only. Bring your entry tickets to the City Recreation office, 801 Santa Rosa street.

 cited today. VA added that it is doing everything possible to keep delays to a minimum. It has suspended, for the time being, those administrative procedures that directly relate to the conduct of veterans into training, but does not expect all delays to end soon.

Veteran students can help matters, VA said, by refraining from writing to the agency about delays. Replies to letters take time that otherwise could be spent on procuring subsistence checks.

When the checks do arrive, they will include all payments due from the veteran started class, the VA concluded.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 23 THE AARDVARK

This classy campus cager-cutter got his smootch of cute cigarette tests. It didn't take him long to dig out the fact that cigarette mildness can't be determined by a mere single puff or quick-sift experiment! Millions of smokers, on and off the campus, have discovered there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

IT'S THE SENSIBLE TEST...the 30-day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke - on a day-after-day basis. No snap judgments. Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests - Camel leads all other brands by billions

LOBO'S FALL FESTIVAL

VIRGINIA MIZK, ASST. PR. Pres.

... such a question. It is one of the quickest methods of starting colleges for student help. Sacramento, not Cal Poly, sets the community seems to insist upon following. would be a better word) wage sets a bad example which the part-time help slightly more than six-bits an hour they are, therefore, paying above a set wage. If this is logical, we'll go back to the first grade and start over.

There should be a thing of the past. Fewer and fewer veterans enroll.

Several years ago it was pouring salt (not into still unhealed wounds. As it is, they hadn't already seen the quality of the Texans, they might feel velocity to Poly) have been and still are one of the real sore spots that need a lot of healing. We invite anyone to offer a single good argument in defense of low wages paid by local employers.

We should live here. This is logical, we'll go back to "domestic trade and start over."

The old argument put forth for so long about veterans getting paid less than professional people, paying less pay should be a thing of the past. Fewer and fewer veterans enroll everyone. It cost of living around here is low-enough to qualify the wages we would like to know. Are clothes and food cheap? Cal Poly is supposed to be the biggest single industry for veterans, but the students are paid one sixth what they think it was an unauted stephild.

No, you forget. We have a few ditch-digging jobs available right now. Know what this back-breaking work pays, a whole dollar an hour. Wow! The line forms to the right.

Welcome Anytime, Lobos

They may have been rough-and-rugged on the football field, but the Lobos from Sul Ross state certainly left a 100-to-100 crowd wondering why so many students are paid one sixth what they think it was an untended stepchild.

It's an old saying that three people know you best; your spouse, your doctor, and your employer. From mouse to manager, the Anderson hotel staff has been singing the praises of the community and the pleasant group of young men we've had in the house for years. And when the maids in particular remarked on how well the visitors were fed and entertained and didn't bother us. It's the highest kind of a super-endorsement.

Ordinarily, and we might as well face facts, a hotel cringes at thinking of harboring any group of students—gigs cluck, hired hands, deck hands or vigilantes. Generally, they consent as public service, ruefully anticipating the equipment that will need to be replaced, the guests that will need soothing, the help they'll have to talk into staying on. Therefore any group conducting itself as mannerly adults with regard for property and consideration for others is immediately outstanding.

That some people also have been commenting on the excellent impression made by the visitors.

VETERAN'S CORNER

By Ernest Mersey

Conditions under which World War II veterans obtained home ownership with the aid of government guarantees and low-interest rate housing loans have been somewhat revised in the new defense housing act which was approved by President Truman last week. Law 199, the Veterans administration said this

The new law, (1) reduces substantially the amount the veteran must pay down when buying a home, (2) makes eligible for new guaranteed loans many of the non- veterans who previously used all or part of their benefits for non-military purposes such as education and business loans, and (3) revives the direct government loan program for veterans areas where the amount per rent financing is unavailable.

The new schedule, which governs the minimum amounts the veteran must pay down when buying a home, is as follows:

- In any area where the prices of single-family homes average more than $7,000, the veteran must pay down six percent of the purchase price.
- In any area where the prices of single-family homes average more than $11,000, the veteran must pay down eight percent of the purchase price.
- In any area where the prices of single-family homes average more than $15,000, the veteran must pay down ten percent of the purchase price.

In all areas, the minimum amount the veteran must pay down is $2,000. The veteran must also pay one percent of the purchase price in interest for the first year of the loan, if the loan is for the purchase of a home.

A substantial preference is maintained in the lower and middle price ranges for veterans. In the lower price range, the veteran is required to pay down ten percent of the purchase price, or $2,000, whichever is the greater. In the middle price range, the veteran is required to pay down ten percent of the purchase price, or $2,000, whichever is the greater.

Motorists Asked To heed Signals

Cal Poly buses are now equipped with flashing red light signals in accordance with the new state law concerning motor vehicle signals.

Effective last Saturday, the law requires flashing red light signals on front and rear of school buses to signal for other vehicles to stop before passing or meeting a school bus.

Drivers must remain stopped as long as the lights are flashing. Bus drivers are held responsible for operating the signal whenever they are stopped for the purpose of leading or following passing and meeting other vehicles.

Motorists driving on a two or more lane highway, which does not have a center dividing strip, must stop when the bus flashing lights begins working, whether meeting or overtaking the bus.

On a highway with separate roadways, drivers of other vehicles need not stop on passing or meeting a school bus when the bus is stopped at an intersection or on the other roadway, says Steiner.

The law does not apply to meeting or passing a school bus when the bus is stopped at an intersection or on the other roadway and drivers of other vehicles are controlled by a traffic officer or official traffic lights.

Motorists Ask for Change, Pay Mrs. Erqcat Steiner, chief coordinator with the new state law requiring flashing red light signals on school buses, said that motorists need to be educated as to the purpose and importance of the signals.

Mrs. Steiner stated that motorists are often inclined to disregard the signals, especially when they are not familiar with them. She recommended that motorists familiarize themselves with the signals and their purpose to ensure the safety of school children.

Bus drivers are held responsible for operating the signal whenever they are stopped for the purpose of leading or following passing and meeting other vehicles.

Students Advised On Check Policy

Students were advised today, through an announcement by Cal Poly's business office, that the on-campus checking policy is now in effect.

On-campus checking policy will accommodate students who have to handle their finances on campus. Checks will only be obtained at the campus depository, unless the student requests a different arrangement.

City Cleaners

Students were advised to check the job offerings at the Cal Poly business office, where they may find opportunities to make extra money.

City Cleaners specializes in garment cleaning and pressing services. They offer a wide range of services including drycleaning, laundry, and alteration services.

Students have the option of drop-off or pick-up services and can choose to pay by cash or credit.

City Cleaners is located at 709 Higuera Street, and can be contacted at 1181 Phone 1181.

Milkers, Athletes Sign Big Contract

Les Lockhart dairy club, at the last regular meeting, voted to go into contract with the Board of Athletic Control for sale of milk products at athletic events.

Signing of the contract will be the culmination of several meetings by the dairy club and Lockhart Dairy Co.

The project was made possible through the cooperation of the Young Farmers.

The committee, appointed by new club president, Paul Atkinson, consists of Tom Quick (chairman), Roger Corrals, Monroe Laid, Rich Lohr, Jordan Gable, and Clayton Moore.

This will provide good use for Poly's BRRM supplementary milk to create revenue for the dairy club. The contract, says Clayton Moore, Les Lockhart,5.

Reedley Hosts Clubs
On Gridiron Saturday

Junior varsity Colts journey to Reedley Saturday afternoon to improve on their showing against Coalinga last week. Not much is known of the Reedley squad, so a prediction here would remind one of the people who live in the place homes.

The Coalingas, contest started like a comedy of errors. Performing like perfect hosts, the Colts fumbled 10 yards on the 1 yard points to the anchor, stopped them on the Falcon 14: Free interception.

The second Coalingas tally came off of one of five interception prey passes. Bilbrey lugged one of 15 yards for the score. In the fourth quarter a roughing penalty on the home gold ball on his two-yard line, from which Bilbrey scored again, this time, 21 yards. The final TD came when Page

Aztecs Strong Favorite For Tomorrow’s Clash

By Will Thomas

Ranked as definite underdogs in high-spirited and fighting game between Cal Poly Mustangs line up against a strong and RCA champion-minded San Diego State Aztecs club, Friday night. The Montezumans are expressively confident they can run roughshod and unbounded against the San Diego Lolipoms in the first RCA game of the season—evidently, they can’t possibly be taken down by Mike Berra and Co.

It will be up to the man of Ray Roost and Bob Fouser, fast driving Art Jeppson and Vel Burrell, to shatter and throw a string of success.

Strong Defense

With the lights and green lines, and abundantly established as the Dimples may have a tough time throwing the intricate into the on-call-starter Aztec machine. Coach Bill Shottle had at first predicted the Montezumans forward wall to be big, but that philosophy changed after his throwing against San Francisco State and Inland Empire. Even junior college grid stars and play on the Rube Pox, the Aztec no longer a strong defense is without a strong backbone, and armed a 39-7 win.

Poly has shown same improvement in past games, but the question is whether he is good enough to combat a first-rate club. For Tomorrow’s Clash.

A Bouquet For Sumner

Marven Sumner, Goal Post editor, who tossed a bouquet of roses by Bill Abbey, the Aggie football coach of Southern Oregon. Even though his team was manhandled by Poly, Abbey still was gentleman enough to compliment Sumner on the fine football program turned out by Marvon and his assistants.

Abbey remarked that it was one of the best he had seen in a long time and reflected great credit on the school.

student a sense of moral responsibility—the sac redness of honor," he explained.

Character Stressed

President McPhee concluded, "We want Cal Poly graduates to be known throughout the world as outstanding in their respective fields. We stress the importance of making them to be known as men of good will, men of character and manly—men who believe in the sac redness of honor.

Vera Mills, student body president, introduced President Mc­ Phee. Included on the assembly program was an award to Fred Price, newly elected state president of the California Association FFA, from the Santa Fe railroad with the form of a check to pay for a new educational convention at Kansas City. Also included on the program was Poly's Paul Johnson at the piano.
