Campus Extends Last Respects To Kellogg—School Benefactor

Sympathy of students and faculty was expressed last week to the family of Dr. John Maxwell Kellogg, cereal magnate, who died Oct. 9. Dr. Kellogg was one of the major fund raisers for Cal Poly and will be remembered by the students for his generous gifts to the university.

Barrymore Proves Filthy Lucre Can't Warm Cashket

By Re Saylor

Lionel Barrymore manages to pull it off this time! With You right from under the watchful eye of the Wednesday-to-the-weekdays of the Film Society, Barrymore has again proved to the world that he is a better actor than he is a film producer. This time he has given us a film that is both entertaining and thought-provoking.

Columnist Whitney Out $500; Loses Story Contest By Hair

In response to her short story contest entry last summer, Ingrid Whitney, "El Mustang" columnist, recently received word from McPherson publications that her effort had missed being awarded a third prize by only two votes.

Ingrid, German-born refugee from the Hitler regime, based her contest entry on the transition of her life in brown-and-white Nazi Germany to the democracy of free Austria, she came to the United States in 1944.

From the pages of her story, "Coming here was a great surprise, in it was a little strange at first, not only the language and the people but things like driving cars, ordering things at the store, putting things away, cleaning and cooking, and all the little things which were things I had never known before. It seemed so unusual to see people who could spell a dictionary or a mechanics pulling their weeds and fixing their own cars. In Europe things like that would have been done for them, but here people did it all by themselves doing it.

"I like to look back on my early school days here because they taught me much more about reading and writing. I can remember when first looked me to read. There were only two students in the class looked me over very thoroughly, especially after my mother had asked the teacher to give me a little extra attention.

"I was easy for me to become acquainted with my new classmate. They tried to make me feel at home right away. I had been fairly popular in my former school, but here it was strange, but here people were different. It seemed as if everyone knew each other.

"I was quite a while before I could spell a dictionary or a mechanics pulling their weeds and fixing their own cars. It was quite a while before any kind of an attempt to make them like one of us.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 24

The Clam

"I should have kept my big mouth shut!"

Fresh out of Bivalve, N. J., he arrived on the campus all bug-eyed and his big mouth hanging open. He was immediately sucked into a "shell game" and found himself making all the quick-trick cigarette tests.

But his native instinct told him that such an important item as cigarette mildness couldn't be tossed off lightly. Millions of smokers everywhere have discovered, too, that there's but one true test of mildness.

It's the sensible test...the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camel as your steady smoke...on a pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camel for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why.

After all the Mildness Tests —

Camel leads all other brands by billions.

The Mustang Booster Club. This effort has placed main emphasis on the acquisition of new members. In other words, get the whole town of Sun Luis Obispo behind Poly.

The organization help Poly. In recruiting new members to the entire local student body. Students are morally bound to do what is right. It would appear about time to give the fellows who have the guts to call Cal Poly their school to get off the back instead of the back of our hands.

Arch Engineering Courses Receiving Accreditation Time
Poly's architectural engineering program, which has received accreditation from the National Architectural Accreditation Board, has been accepted by the State of California.

Harry B. McMillan, profes sor of architecture at Poly, has been named chairman of the accreditation committee for the state's architectural programs.

Norm Burns Appointed Line Magazine Editor
Norm Burns, an architecture student at Poly, has been appointed editor of the Line Magazine, which is published by the architecture department.

Norm is the third student to hold the position, following John J. Hollister and Jack L. Mckinley.

Norm is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burns of Los Angeles and 10314 Hillcrest.

Corn Objects - Too Many Big Shindigs
There's plenty of time left in which to wear out more than one pair of shoes. The 1951-52 dance season leaves a lot of room for improvement.

Tomorrow night the Air Conditioning Club is sponsoring the Kick-Off Dance in the Poly Field House. The dance is open to all Poly students.

The following day, Monday, November 2, the Faculty Dance will be held in the Field House at 8 p.m. The dance is open to all members of the faculty and their guests.

Other dances tentatively scheduled for this year include the Homecoming Dance on November 11, the Christmas Dance on December 1, and the Spring Dance on April 15.

If You Want Service - Be Prepared To Pay
Effective October 15, special groups using the 2C rooms in the Cafeteria at noon or evening will be charged an extra $1.00 per hour for the use of the facilities.

The increase was made to offset the cost of operating the facilities.

Postal Rates Increased
First-class stamp prices have been increased by 10 cents effective October 15.

For example, a letter weighing 5 ounces would cost 19 cents instead of 13 cents.

Tracks Given Johnson
The promotion of Johnson to captain in the State Guard artillery is the second such promotion in the State Guard in recent years.

Johnson, who has been in the State Guard for five years, is a native of Los Angeles and a graduate of Poly.

Shoddy Pass Defense Chills Poly Win Aims Over Aztecs

San Diego State's passing was strong—Poly's pass defense was stifling dull. And so it goes, the story of Coach Hughes' Mustangs' vain quest for victory over a favored Aztec team last Saturday. The score was 32-12; a predicted three touchdown advantage for the Montemontim.

It was similar to last week, as Coach Hughes could not get the running back in the possession of the ball. To the Mustangs, the Aztecs were an unannounced opponent for this week. For one, a starting team one day in serviceable workable pass defense, the lack of which enabled San Diego to tally mountains more than they would have otherwise.

Hefty Injuries

Riddled with heavy injuries, the Mustangs will have to be revamped for the week's contest, in which Coach Thompson reported several. Coach Eisen is out with a pulled muscle and Vic Rum has the flu.

Poly had a half time lead of 19-0, a Poly fumble set up easy scoring, Coach Thompson was cautioned for jumping over the back. Thompson hurled to Nicholsen. With Los Angeles State, five Poly fumbles were turned over in the second half.

Outback's tackling: however, he reeled a pass three yards for one. Combined efforts of B.U.I. and Ken Myers as boys won the second period skirt of their flank. Alex Bravo pounced upon it. Alex Bravo scored two plays later.

At the score of 25-0, San Diego took over on downs on the Poly 19 yard stripe. Held passed to Salome, and quickly over the goal line, where Bob Thompson spotted it. Alex Bravo scored two plays later.

For one, the Poly made the third ball, a Poly fumble set up easy scoring, Coach Thompson was cautioned for jumping over the back. Thompson hurled to Nicholsen.

Intramural Battles Progress in Both Green, Gold Loops

Four battling schools opened the first two days of intramural football with a bang.

Monday, on Poly's baseball field, a Green league Elector team went under a Clubs club, 32 to 18. In the Gold league, a battle between Delta Sigma Phi and the Bitters ended with the Bitters winning, 16-7.

Friday, on the outdoor track at Stockton Ballpark, the San Francisco College's track and field team defeated the University of California at Berkeley, 120 to 67.

Onward and Upward! Looking determined to move into the playoff field, Bill Whiles, who will captain the Mustangs tomorrow when they go against a brand-new, but veteran-filled—Los Angeles State College machine.

A victory-starved band of Los Angeles State college students were the trek north for a game against the Mustangs at 3 a.m. today. When the Mustangs in trim, they would choose to meet the best, according to Tom Rice, coach.

These injuries—none more acute to the strife-swept Mustangs can't hurt too much more. Perhaps we should be thankful for a few more days of practice before the season opens, for a few more days to work at correcting last season's mistakes. Good luck, Mustangs!

According to Cal Poly's 1960-61 annual report, enrollments for the school's first year doubled, with a total of 2,200 today. Student body activities at Cal Poly constitute big business when it is realized that a budget of upwards of $50,000 is proposed during the next school year. Associated student activity includes athletics, music, assemblies and undertakings such as the Poly Royal, which is supported by the School of Music.
