WHEREAS, The development of curriculum should remain primarily the responsibility of those trained and professionally qualified to perfect and implement it; and

WHEREAS, The best means by which the non-English speaking population of California can achieve fluency in the English language should not be determined by the initiative process; and

WHEREAS, The Academic Senate of the CSU has strongly opposed Proposition 227; and

WHEREAS, The Academic Senate of the CSU has urged its campus communities, the Chancellor, the Board of Trustees, and the Governor of California to oppose Proposition 227; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of California Polytechnic State University urge its campus community and its families and friends to oppose Proposition 227 on the June 2, 1998 primary ballot because the initiative process is not the proper means for determining curriculum.

Proposed by: Academic Senate Executive Committee
Date: May 12, 1998
This will acknowledge receipt of the above Resolution of the Academic Senate. The Senate is to be commended for following the lead of the CSU Academic Senate and other academic communities in stating its view that the initiative process should not be used to effect changes in curriculum, but that this responsibility should be left to those trained and professionally qualified to make judgments about the curriculum.