Oceans of Opportunity
Open House events begin Friday
This weekend, April 15-17, is Open House. A schedule of events is available online at: http://orientation.calpoly.edu/openhouse/general/eventschedule.html. Friday is Admitted Students Preview Day. Campus will be full of newly-admitted high school seniors (incoming freshmen for fall 2005) and their parents between 8 a.m. and noon. Here are some other Open House highlights:

- The Design Village competition begins 9 a.m. Friday when teams of architecture and construction management students from around the nation arrive at Poly Canyon to build and live in shelters of their design. The competition continues through Saturday, with Design Village open to visitors 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Awards will be given on Sunday, 10-11:30 a.m.
- The Rodeo kicks off 2:30 p.m. Friday, with the finals at 5 p.m. Saturday, Rodeo Arena.
- Campus-wide activities, 10:30 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, include a carnival, displays, activities, food booths, exhibits, and demos.

Watch for road, parking lot closures
Traffic delays and limited parking are expected this weekend during Open House. In an effort to provide a safe environment for campus visitors, traffic flow will be modified. On Thursday, April 14, the parking lots adjacent to the Agricultural Engineering Building will be closed. After 5 p.m., there will be no parking in the spaces on Via Carta adjacent to Campus Market. Disabled parking will be available in the C-7 lot on Friday and Saturday. North Perimeter Road will be closed to traffic from Via Carta to California Boulevard beginning 5 p.m. Friday. During the parade on Saturday, 9-10 a.m., South Perimeter and North Perimeter will be closed. North Perimeter from Poly Canyon Road to California Boulevard will be closed all day Saturday. For more information about access and parking, call University Police at ext. 6-6675.

Nominations sought for Diversity Award
Nominations are due Monday, May 2, for the annual President’s Diversity Award. On the recommendation of the campus Equal Opportunity Advisory Council, President Baker established the award in 1997-98 to recognize campus units that have “exhibited commitment to the value of diversity.” Any faculty member, staff member, student, or campus unit may nominate a campus unit for the award, which carries a $1,000 augmentation to the winning unit’s budget for one year. For more information, contact Valene Mathews at vmathews@calpoly.edu. Nomination forms are available at http://www.academics.calpoly.edu/diversity.

Follow signs to the Leaning Pine Arboretum
Avid gardeners and spring visitors to the Leaning Pine Arboretum can now enjoy the grounds even more, thanks to a series of new interpretive displays. The colorful, informative display signs are located in eight areas of the five-acre arboretum. The new signs are designed to enhance visitor experiences by explaining the botany and horticulture associated with nearby plantings, as well as providing home gardening tips. The Arboretum is open to the public Monday through Saturday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., year round, and is closed Sundays and academic holidays.
Use of Social Security numbers changes
The passage of Assembly Bill 3016 has resulted in changes to California Civil Code Section 1798.85 which limits the CSU's use of Social Security numbers as identifiers for students and employees. To view Assembly Bill 3016 on the Web go to: http://leginfo.ca.gov/pub/03-04/bil/asm/ab_3001-3050/ab_3016_bill_20040823_chaptered.pdf. For questions, or if you are unable to comply, call Vicki Stover, campus information security officer, at ext. 6-2171.

Passings
Richard K. "Dick" Simon, 60
Richard K. "Dick" Simon, director of Humanities and English professor since 1988, passed away April 4, 2005, surrounded by his family after a courageous battle with cancer. Simon, 60, had chaired the Humanities program in the College of Liberal Arts since 1995. A well-known and well-liked professor, he was remembered by colleagues and faculty for his lecture-appropriate hats. Simon is survived by his wife, Kathy, and son, Noah. The College of Liberal Arts held a memorial celebration of his life April 10, in the Orfalea College of Business Rotunda, where Simon taught many of his classes. For information on donations, e-mail Terry San Filippo in the College of Liberal Arts at tsanfili@calpoly.edu.

Service Award nominees wanted
Nominations are currently being accepted for the President's Service Awards. The awards are presented to students, faculty, and staff for their contributions to the quality of life in San Luis Obispo and their spirit of civic involvement. There are three award categories: Innovation in Service, Significant Contribution, and Greek Community Contribution. Each one is designed to highlight specific achievements in service. The awards are competitive and are selected on the basis of the written nomination by a panel of faculty, staff and students. President Baker personally recognizes award recipients for their efforts. The awards ceremony will take place at the University House on Thursday, May 12, 4-5:30 p.m., and will feature music and refreshments. E-mail Joy Pedersen at jmpeders@calpoly.edu to make a nomination.

Reception for student employee Thursday
Morgen Marshall, a senior majoring in business administration, was recently named the 2004-05 Outstanding Student Employee of the Year. Marshall was nominated by Greg Avakian and Nancy Clark from ASI Recreational Sports. The campus community is invited to attend a reception recognizing Marshall and the other nominees 11 a.m.-noon, Thursday, April 14, at the University House Patio.

Somerville named UCLA Senior Fellow
Mary Somerville, assistant dean of information and instructional services at Kennedy Library, has been selected a 2005 Senior Fellow at UCLA. Somerville is one of 15 leaders in the college and university library field to be appointed, following a nationwide competition at the UCLA Graduate School of Information Studies. She and the other fellows will attend a three-week program at UCLA this summer. Somerville is in charge of the information and instructional activities of subject specialist librarians working with faculty and students across campus.

Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday. E-mail submissions to polynews@calpoly.edu by 4 p.m. on the Friday before publication.
