TAKING THE DEFENSIVE... two ratters, a bleached and a green, keep a wary eye on the Boyce's king snake in their common home in the Poly biology lab. The chickuoze eggs by albumen-yielding hen once of over one of his room mates. These reptiles are on exhibition today (Photo by David H. Thomson)

Vet Guidance Center Changes Bosses

A change in personnel in the Vet Guidance Center was announced last week. Dr. Virginia J. Johnson has replaced Dr. Virgil C. Davenport, former chief of veterinary guidance at Poly.

Dr. Johnson has been a clinical instructor in various schools of veterinary medicine for over 12 years. A graduate of Washington State University, Dr. Johnson also spent some time in the Los Angeles regional office. Mrs. Johnson assumed her position at the Vet Center on July 12.

Gadgets Get A New Boost From Latest Addition

An importation from the land of the maple leaf is the most recent addition to the Poly faculty. The importation, Stanley Clarke, recently of Alberta, Canada, has taken over the position of acting head of Poly's Psychology and Education Department. Mr. Clarke takes with him a broad background in the field of psychology and recently studied under a Poly instructor. He is a graduate of the University of Alberta, with a B.A. in psychology, majoring in educational psychology, and is in the top 10 of his class. He is a recent graduate of the Poly College of Arts and Sciences.

Graduation To Job; Ex-Aero Students Secure Positions

Among the recent graduates of the Aeronautics department who went directly to new jobs are Don McKean and Jim Peters at Lockheed (Engineering); John Brown and Tom Ascher at Boeing (Engineering); William Smith and Paul Smith at Boeing (Aerospace); Ralph Kline, in the North-

Second Session Registration Made Easy For Students

According to Dean of Admissions C. Paul Winner, students who are currently enrolled for the summer quarter need not re-register if they plan to attend the next six-week session. July 24-September 8. First-year students registered properly at the start of the quarter may be entered second session courses as at that time. Necessary paper work changes may be made by using a change of program form which may be obtained in the Registrars Office, Adm. 101. Students should contact the proper departments in order to enter courses where seating is involved.

Local Farmers Market

The market will be held at the south end of the large pavilion next to the general store. The market will be held every Saturday morning from 8 to 10 a.m. The market is open to all local farmers and will be of great benefit to the local economy.

Enkeling

Mr. Enkeling has been appointed the new director of the Poly faculty museum. The museum, which has been in operation for the past four years, has been a source of pride and joy to many Poly students. Mr. Enkeling has been a member of the faculty for the past two years and has been instrumental in the development of the museum.

Studying the Past

Mr. Enkeling has been a member of the faculty for the past two years and has been instrumental in the development of the museum. Mr. Enkeling has been a member of the faculty for the past two years and has been instrumental in the development of the museum.

Psychology

This is the final week of the psychology course. The course is currently being offered by Dr. V. J. Johnson. Dr. Johnson is a graduate of the University of Alberta and has been teaching psychology at Poly for the past three years. He is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society and has published several articles in psychology journals.

Farms Suffer Acute Labor Shortage

The Poly farm under instructor Kent Campbell is currently suffering a shortage of labor. Any Poly student who would like to earn a little extra money by working on the farm may apply for a job with Campbell or in his office in the Farm Machinery building.

CLASSIFIEDS

For Two Week Period

This is the last week of the Poly farm employment program. The program is designed to provide Poly students with an opportunity to gain valuable work experience. The program is open to all Poly students who are interested in gaining practical experience in agriculture. The program will conclude on August 8. For more information, contact Mrs. Sarah Jones at Ext. 214.
Pro
About every three or four months, some bright campus character starts a rumor circulating about El Corral and other meeting places to the effect that the naval service co-educational in a very short time.

Perhaps this is a good thing, because if enough of the right people believe the rumors, they might do something about making it possible for voluminous folk like us to attend these events of our student lives.

Every Friday afternoon, about three or four hundred cars leave Cal Poly campus head for highway 101. Where is their destination? Was it ultimate destination? You guessed it! Three or four hundred girls and boys in attendance at Poly and decided that they came home and take them to see Stan Kenton. How can they dance to Stan Kenton is good material for another editorial; but anyway, every Friday afternoon a long caravan of cars heads for 101.

Of course, we can always rehearse the old cliché about male students on the campus improving their manners and dress if women were present in their classes. But again our point is that if women were present on our campus, 90 per cent of the risque pictures nd "petos" formerly on the side walk of chow hall 80 would never have appeared.

There are shortages of many things these days, but why must there be a shortage of women at Cal Poly? —E. L-

Doubles Lead

Singles in Summer Session Enrollment

According to Lee Philbin, registrar, Cal Poly this summer is probably the largest in recent years and that of the 137 single students enrolled, or approximately 30 per cent of the total student body has joined the Poly staff.

A further breakthrough of Philbin's was the number of premed students in the enrollment, this time this number is 137 single students enrolled, or approximately 30 per cent of the total student body has joined the Poly staff.

We couldn't borrow a Poly Royal queen. We would undoubtably jilt our home town steadys. We would have to wash and smoke. (Filthy things). We couldn't drive hot-rods and reigns—the kind of night when one gets ones studying from Cal Poly campus head for highway 101. Where is their destination? Was it ultimate destination? You guessed it! Three or four hundred girls and boys in attendance at Poly and decided that they came home and take them to see Stan Kenton. How can they dance to Stan Kenton is good material for another editorial; but anyway, every Friday afternoon a long caravan of cars heads for 101.

We are against co-education. We are convinced that coeducation will be a step in the wrong direction and that if it is to accomplish such a feeling of elation we never had. We flew over the campus in general would be a wonderful form and shop when he moves in a family.

In the classroom Poly students are the same or more than a moderate "hard time." His manners and language are sometimes downright affecting, but he is a precise lecturer and he knows his field. He is a patient to the extreme without bending. He is modest, but not retiring. He provokes lively discussion in almost every class session.

UP SO HIGH
We went flying the other day. It was the first time we've ever been up in a light plane and it was indeed a thrill. Don Elvong of the Nevada Flying Club and a good friend of ours took us up in one of the club's cubes and he even let us drive a bit.

Such a feeling of elation we never had. We flew over the campus for awhile and thought, "You suckers, you just ain't living!"

The upshot of all this is that we've joined the Mustang Flying Club with the intent of learning to fly. Everyone should.
For Chow And Football

By A. R. "Hoofle" Nogulie

I have been asked by My. Roth to say a few words about football. If I thought this stuff would be more than a column one to two pages I would write it. I know Willie is kidding. If he weren't, I wouldn't write a thing, I'm just like all the other by-line writers, a lot of wonderful ideas, but I can't put them on paper. Short of that I'm as useless to writers, as useless as a footstool.

I played football in the days of Steve Ruffen, Streak. He had what it takes, brown and spirit—what I mean, too, that you don't want to hear any big name players. There is no Fain on first, Hoss Majestic on third, Ram Chapman in center, Buddy Brown behind the plate, and Barney McConkey in right field. These boys have provided a spark for the rest of the team to ignite. It is my opinion that old Comice Meat is going to come up with another place club this year and watch out for the "A's" next season.

New York and Boston figure to battle it out for third place. The Yankees snapping the Red Sox at the wire. There is little to choose from between the teams except for pitching and here is where the Yankees figure to win out. With Rachel, BYU, Reynolds, and Halsey leading the line of pitchers they have a much stronger bunch of hurlers than the Red Sox. Not only that, but the Yankie Clipper, Joe Dimaggio.

Polly is now in a classy football league. We need more men with that old Ruffen spirit. We had a touch of that spirit in last year's basketball. The Indians and it doesn't look like they intend to let up. The rest of the club is not marked by brawn and spirit—Just what we need to make up the team. We need more men with that spirit of victory that was lost temporarily. This fall I think we are going to see a renewal of that spirit.

In these few words I am going to start. It doesn't sound worth it. (Ed. note—Amen) You're right, you're too lazy—that's the trouble. I hope you and J. S. are careful in your choice. (Ed. note—No loss). Roth is too lazy—that's the trouble. If we don't have him in the line up, it will somehow get by.

"He who hesitates is boied."
SPORTS QUIZ

by J. T. Morosky

This is a sports quiz to test the knowledgability of the El Mustang readers. All you need do is supply the answers to many of the following questions as you can, sign your name to the paper, and drop the contents into the El Mustang contribution box at the post office.

The three most correct entries will receive a carton of Chesterfield cigarettes.

The winners will be announced in the August 6 issue of El Mustang. The deadline for all entries is Monday, July 19. The contest is open to all but El Mustang staff members.

QUIZ

1. Who was known as: (a) The Sultan of Swat. (b) The Manassa Mauler. (c) Cowboy Jack. (d) The Golloping Ghost. (e) The Manassa Mauler.

2. In horse-racing, what three races make up the "triple crown?" (a) In the hitting department they have R. C. a. s, Hopp, Torgeson, Dark, and Holmes leading the list. Even a journeyman from San Joe could win those sluggers behind him. Cardo in A New St. Louis and Pittsburgh ought to battle it out for the runup spot with the Cards and keep them out to the end. In Harry Brecheen they have one of the top hurlers in the league. In fact if they had onf more than a head of St. Louis and Warren Spahn and that, looks like the margin of victory from here. Besides those two, they have Beckford, Barrett, and Voll.

3. In swimming, what three strokes are used in the "medley relay?" (a) (b) (c)

4. When a bowler says "wood" he is referring to (a) (b) (c)

5. Who won the American League pennant in 1947? (a) (b) (c)

6. Who won the world series in that year? (a) (b) (c)

7. When a bowler says "wood" he is referring to (a) (b) (c)

---

Pennant Winners Picked For Major Leagues

(Continued from page 3) Joe has hit his stride, along with Hendrick and Lindell. These sluggers are hard to get out once they start hitting. Sure, but how about Williams, Stevens, and Doerr, but what can they do without a winning pitcher?

National's Deadlocked

In the National league it looks like the Boston Braves, St. Louis Cardinals, and the Pittsburgh Pirates will stage a photo finish. It looks like the Braves will have all two game winners this year. In John Sain and Warren Spahn and that looks like the margin of victory from here. Besides these two, they have Beckford, Barrett, and Voll. These ought to be good for at least thirty games. What more can Manager Shorrock ask for in a pitching staff? In the hitting department they have R. C. a. s, Hopp, Torgeson, Dark, and Holmes leading the list. Even a journeyman from San Joe could win those sluggers behind him.

Cardo By A Nose

St. Louis and Pittsburgh ought to battle it out for the runup spot with the Cards and keep them out to the end. In Harry Brecheen they have one of the top hurlers in the league. In fact if they had one more than a head of St. Louis and Warren Spahn and that, looks like the margin of victory from here. Besides those two, they have Beckford, Barrett, and Voll.

Four pairs of apparently expensive eye-glasses have been found in the El Mustang book store. The book store management would appreciate it if the owner or owners would identify and call for them.

---

PL 16 STUDENTS TO REPORT

The Veteran's Administration requires that all students attending school under P. L. 16 report to their training officers at least once during each quarter. As yet many P. L. 16 students have not reported during the present summer session.

According to the VA it is important that they be done as soon as possible. The training officers are located at 864 Santa Rosa street.