Homecoming Celebration Set For October 8 and 9

Rejuvenated Mustangs Face Fresno State

An improved Mustang slayer will meet the Fresno State Bulldogs in the Homecoming grid contest Saturday night, Oct. 9, and it promises to be a hard-fought affair matching last year’s game. The 1947 Cal Poly gridiron club of their best game of the season against the Fresno Bulldogs and is set to give a repeat performance this year, hoping to change a certain item in their book.

Last year Fresno State won 24-0, but the Mustangs will have something to say about being on the losing end of the score this year. A big, fast-flying Mustang line is sure to give the Bulldogs trouble. Anchoring down the front wall is the veterans, aggressive tackle, Marv Kenna. Performing with him will be Lineman Don Chambers, John Fitzgerald, Joe Griffin, Don Dutil, Bill Hume, Dave New, Hal Winalow and others.

Field general for this year’s squad is tri-capt Al Gomes, transfer from Santa Clara College and San Jose State College. Working with him is the backfield with “Pinky” Bebernea, Bob McCutcheon, Dave Martinet, Hal Winalow and others.

An improved Mustang eleven will be in on the game this year, moving into the head elve tackle, Marv Samuela. Per­

To Climax Alumni Program

Graduates of California State Polytechnic College who left the school in 1935, 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940 and 1941, will come back to the campus on Friday and Saturday, October 6-9, for the Alumni Association’s celebration. Alumni will be given plenty of opportunities to renew a lifetime membership and inspect improvements and plans for the campus in a program which opens Friday night, October 8, with a rally and bonfire for the Fresno State college grid game and closes Saturday night, October 9, with an after­ game dance.

Fresno State, president of the Alumni Association, has extended an invitation to all graduates attending the Diet Homecoming. Letters of invitation have been sent to all who addresses are on file at the college. Men and women graduates will be welcomed at the celebration, ending in Home.

Hanna has asked that alumni remembers to notify the Alumni chairing committee at the college so that they will be on hand for the celebration.

Grades who arrive on the campus Friday afternoon will have the opportunity to visit college facili­

Leach's Ten Year Plan To Attempt Super Chicken

- I. Leach, poultry departmental head, is conducting an improvement program for the Cornish breed of chicken which he believes will take another ten years to perfect.

- Leach plans to obtain a faster growing bird and one that will have fewer pin feathers at market age. Although the Cornish breed will not construct other types of classes at maturity, he has taken more time for the Cornish to develop.

- Each chicken in the program is scored at intervals for early maturity and fast feathering.

- The experiment has been under way for six years now with no significant results as yet.

TAKING THE DEFENSIVE... two rattlers, a bleached and a green, keep a wary eye on the Boyle's king snake in their home in the Poly biology lab.

INSTRUCTOR FATTENS REPTILES FOR COLLEGE BIOLOGY MUSEUM

The huge angry water moccasin blamed, formed a hasty loop and struck. His target was one John Klop, El Mustang photographer, and when the strike netted a perfect bullseye.

This action took place some little time ago and Klop is now recovered. But he's nursed along a healthy respect for all reptiles ever since that day. He wasn't overjigged when assigned to snap some glamour shots of the corn snakes.

Klop's misgivings were further confirmed when the rattler clan was represented by two separate species of very gentlemanly rattlers—once he has been cornered, one hisses and savage displays of fang were completely absent as the rattlesnake posed obligingly with a spotted whipsnake.

...a gentlemanly rattlesnake — one of the Cal Poly reptile collection. Like this: "All snakes contribute to the success of one's photography." Mr. Klopp frequently emphasizes the 'gentlemanly nature of snakes, which is as true of the corn snake, a gopher snake, a rosy boa, as it is of a black rat snake. A separate snakes are also planned, of course.

Steal Groundsman Ready by First

Home Ball Game

A contract for a new steal ground was signed by the Cal Poly football field has been authorized by President Julian A. McPhee. The new stands, which will boost the seating capacity at Poly Stadium to over 5000, will cost approximately $710,000.

The steel stands will be 62 feet high and 70 feet long and will be constructed between the first year marks on the east side of the field on October 2.

Future plans call also for the extending of the present stands on the west side of the stadium and expansion of the present press box.

Land Grants Give Former Students Arizona Acreage

Two former Cal Poly students who have government lands in this project near Yuma, Arizona, have received their appointments.

The land acquired by Waite and Monet are estimated to have a value, as is, of $600,000 each. Under the laws of the homestead act, both men will have to take possession of the land and work it personally for at least six months of each year. At the end of three years, under regulation traveling expenses only, they may acquire title to the land.

Gleason cut the 91 players who reported for fall practice to the Poly squad.

The entire Cal Poly lot, which represents Robert Ashley, formerly Santa Ana junior college and was injured in last year's games. Others will be Reg Dugan, and Boud Bill Barden, which will give the Mustangs many of the men who enrolled picked out by the new coaches returning to the Poly.
California Future Farmer Magazine Travels To All Corners of Globe

One of the activities which helped spread the name of San Luis Obispo was the Cal Poly poultry department. It has been the publication policy for many years to feature the work of agricultural magazines, the Cal Poly poultry department. However, there has been no opportunity for the Cal Poly poultry department to be featured in such a manner. At the request of an international agricultural magazine, the Cal Poly poultry department sent a group of representatives for a one-year period to publish their work in that magazine. Later, after the work was received at various times from abroad, the magazine sent an advance by mail to the Cal Poly poultry department. At the request of a number of California agricultural editors throughout the state, the group of representatives was asked to return to the Cal Poly poultry department to write the publication policy for the Cal Poly poultry department.

Names of 56 former California Polytechnic students who were killed in World War II are listed in the cataloging department of the New York Public Library in New York. The group of representatives, which includes students, teachers, and members of the Cal Poly poultry department, are members of the Cal Poly poultry department.
