Retirement reception set for Jane Paris

Academic Records is hosting a retirement reception for Jane Paris from 12:30 to 2:30 pm, Wednesday, Feb. 4, in Adm. 301.

The campus community is invited to stop by to say farewell and enjoy refreshments.

Solicitation of vacation/sick leave

Employees are being asked to donate sick leave and vacation credits for Rebecca Ramsey, a records associate in the Academic Records department, and Jennifer Bounds, a secretary in the MESA Engineering Program.

Donations of either sick leave or vacation credits will help them remain in full-pay status during an extended absence.

Anyone interested in donating leave for Ramsey may contact solicitation coordinator Janice Anderson-Donaldson in Fiscal Services at ext. 6-1543 or jayd@calpoly.edu.

To donate leave for Bounds, contact Roy Haynes in the MESA Engineering Program at ext. 6-1433 or rayhaynes@calpoly.edu.

Eligible state employees may donate up to 16 hours total of sick or vacation credits per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Vacancy information may also be accessed from the Cal Poly home page on the World Wide Web (address: www.calpoly.edu click on "General Information").

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2844)

Candidates interested in faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all applications materials to the department head, unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

CLOSING DATE: March 6, 1998

*PSM/46: Counselor (SISP-IL AyA), Psychological Services (805)756-2511/fax 756-6525. Full-time, tenure-track academic position available 9/14/98 salary $17,972-$44,924/yr.

Experienced counselor with clinical experience with diverse college population required. Doctorate in counseling preferred. Basic knowledge of California licenses eligibility and attainment within one year of appointment. Contact Jim Aiken, Health and Psychological Services.

CLOSING DATE: March 6, 1998

*PSM/46: Counselor (SISP-IL AyA), Psychological Services (805)756-2511/fax 756-6525. Full-time, tenue-track academic position available 9/14/98 salary $17,972-$44,924/yr.

Experienced counselor with clinical experience with diverse college population required. Doctorate in counseling preferred. Basic knowledge of California licenses eligibility and attainment within one year of appointment. Contact Jim Aiken, Health and Psychological Services.

Inventor donates $1 million to CAED

Professor Preston T. Brown of the College of Engr. has donated $1 million to the California Advanced Engineering Development (CAED) program of the California Polytechnic State University.

The gift, which will be used to purchase equipment and to provide for student scholarships, is expected to have a significant impact on the field of environmental engineering.

The donation was made possible by the partnership between the College of Engineering and the California Advanced Engineering Development.

The gift will be used to purchase equipment and to provide for student scholarships, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

Bequests to CAED have been made by alumni, including the late William R. Hay, a former regent of Cal Poly.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environmental engineering.

The gift will support research in the field of environmental engineering, as well as to support research in the field of environment
Tickets at $5 will be sold at the door. Proceeds from ticket sales will benefit Cal Poly’s Women’s Programs and Services Office and the San Luis Obispo Rape Crisis Center.

For more information on this and other Women’s History Month events, call Pat Harris at Women’s Programs and Services at ext. 6-2600.

Psychological Services receives accreditation

Psychological Services has received accreditation by the International Association of Counseling Services Inc., an organization of the United States, Canadian, and Australian counseling agencies.

Psychological Services met the IACS’s standards of counseling practice and was found to offer competent, reliable and professional services.

The organization found members demonstrated excellent counseling performance.

Psychological Services is led by Director Martin Bragg and Associate Director Jim Aiken.

Tickets still available for Service Awards Lunch

Tickets are still available for the 1998 Annual Service Awards Luncheon from 11:30 am to 1 pm Thursday, Feb. 12, in Chumash Auditorium, where “A Heartfelt Thanks” will be extended to more than 200 State, Foundation and ASI employees.

Tickets cost $9 each and can be bought through the Career Services Office at 12-11:45 pm and 1-2:15 pm in the Staff Dining Room.

She will explore such questions as the life of black American women in the “free” California in the early years of statehood and how unusual it was for black women in the West to acquire wealth.

The presentation is sponsored by the Women’s Studies Program Office. For more information, call ext. 6-1525.

Favalora wins rideshare prize

Kara Evelo, a sophomore Math Department won the fourth quarter 1997 rideshare prize — a compact "Day\"niner" book with a yearly calendar, calculator, address book, pen, paper and photo section valued at approximately $25.

Favalora rode the city bus more than 15 days in a single month to be eligible to win the drawing. She has been in the rideshare "registry" program since November 1994.

For information on joining the rideshare registry program, contact Commuter Services at ext. 6-6800.

‘Mother of Civil Rights’ topic of Feb. 9 talk

In celebration of black women’s and women’s history months, history professor Lynn M. Hudson will talk on Monday, Feb. 9, about the career and legal battles of Mary Ellen Pleasant.

A Gold-Rush-era abolitionist and entrepreneur, Pleasant made her fortune in San Francisco by operating lavish boarding houses where some of the West’s wealthiest men lived.

Pleasant is also known for her efforts to desegregate the city’s street cars and has been celebrated as the Mother of Civil Rights in California.

Hudson, a specialist in African-American history, will present "When ‘Mammy Becomes a Millionairess: Mary Ellen Pleasant in San Francisco" from 12-11:45 pm in the Staff Dining Room.

She will explore such questions as the life of black American women in the "free" California in the early years of statehood and how unusual it was for black women in the West to acquire wealth.

The presentation is sponsored by the Women’s Studies Program Office. For more information, call ext. 6-1525.

Baeball Dance Club to hold workshop

The Ballroom Dance Club will hold a waltz workshop on Saturday, Feb. 7, from 10:30 am to noon for beginners and from 12:30 to 2 pm for intermediate and advanced dancers at the Odd Fellows Hall, 520 Dana St., San Luis Obispo.

For more information, call Patrick Pereira, club secretary, at 545-9278 or visit the club’s Web page at www.calpoly.edu/~bhdw/bdc.

Cal Poly MBA students can soon study in Israel

Cal Poly MBA students interested in learning about the Middle East’s business climate in an opportunity to do so firsthand while studying at an Israeli university.

Named the Israel Program, the two-year option will take students to the Ruppin Institute in the first year. Students will return to Cal Poly the second year.

Participants in the program, beginning in fall 1998, will be exposed to the emerging business management opportunities in the Middle East and to Israeli culture and society. Special programs on business, economics, and politics in Israel, as well as on the peace process and on the increasingly entrepreneurial kibbutz movement, will be offered.

Hebrew language instruction will also be available.

"The mix of American and Israeli students will organize an environment and will allow students interested in business in the Middle East to benefit from the networking process that is so important in a business career," said David Peach, director of the College of Business Graduate Management Programs.

Founded in 1949, the Ruppin Institute is located in East Jerusalem, near Netanya, a resort city on the Mediterranean coast 20 miles north of Tel Aviv. The Israel Program is sponsored by the Office of the College of Business. For more information, call Peach at ext. 6-7187.

Cal Poly to host career symposium

Cal Poly and Cuesta College students can learn about international career opportunities at a symposium on Saturday, Feb. 7, in the Business Building.

The 3rd annual International Careers Symposium, from 10 am to 3 pm, is intended for students interested in working in the United States for a company with international markets or working and living in another country.

Speakers, workshops, an alumni panel discussion, and a site "video "up link" with students in Ireland also interested in international jobs is planned.

Representatives from international companies interested in recruiting students for careers and internships abroad will be attending.

Lunch and entertainment by Cal Poly cultural clubs will be provided.

Registration costs $10. To register or for more information, call Lauraativas at 781-9891. Information is also available on the Web at mslab.calpoly.edu/~isindyp.

$1 million for CETF system

A technology system, which consists of a series of "roofpond" water elements and insulation, was installed.

In recent months, the CAED faculty and students from the Architecture, Construction Management, and Landscape Architecture departments have designed, repaired and renovated some of the home’s interior and exterior.

The property will be used by the college for meetings and lectures on the house’s concept and performance, for research into new passive solar design, and as an instructional facility.

The house’s concept and performance, for research into new passive solar design, and as an instructional facility.

The house’s concept and performance, for research into new passive solar design, and as an instructional facility.

Technology skeptic, critic, to speak Feb. 18

Technology skeptic, literary, critic and writer Bill Joy will talk on "Reality, Technology, and Reading" at 7:30 pm Wednesday, Feb. 18, in the Performing Arts Center’s Philips Recital Hall.

Bickerts, who teaches at Mt. Holyoke College in Massachusetts, has written a number of books, essays and reviews. One acclaimed book, "The Gutenberg Elegies: The Fate of Reading in an Electronic Age," questions the public’s embrace of technology.

The talk is a Lyceum arts and lectures series presentation. For more information, call Mary Kay Harrington, director of the Lyceum series, at ext. 6-2067.

CPR

The Cal Poly Report is published every Wednesday during the academic year by the Communications Office.
Tickets at $5 will be sold at the door. Proceeds from ticket sales will benefit Cal Poly's Women's Programs and Services Office and the San Luis Obispo Rape Crisis Center.

For more information on this and other Women's History Month events, call Pat Harris at Women’s Programs and Services at ext. 6-2600.

A Gold-Rush-era abolitionist and entrepreneur, Pleasants made her fortune in San Francisco by operating lavish boarding houses where some of the West's wealthiest men lived. Pleasants is also known for her efforts to desegregate the city's street cars and has been celebrated as the Mother of Civil Rights in California.

Hale has written, producing and performing one-woman plays nationally and internationally for 10 years. She is published extensively from the American Revolution Biography to contemporary women's history. The artist (1593-1652) found her own voice in the Baroque court and is known for her depictions of Baroque women artists. The play about 17th century Italian Baroque painter Gentileschi reveals facts about her career as an artist and how she came to terms with the painful events she suffered as a rape victim.

Favalora's lawsuit against her assailant, the physical torture employed by the court, and the public discrimination she encountered are dramatically portrayed.

Thearas' lawsuit against her assailant, the physical torture employed by the court, and the public discrimination she encountered are dramatically portrayed.

Psychological Services receives accreditation

Psychological Services has received accreditation by the International Association of Counseling Services Inc., an organization of United States, Canadian and Australian counseling agencies. Psychological Services met the IACS's standards of counseling practice and was found to offer competent, reliable and professional services.

The organization found that many women have encountered are dramatically portrayed.

In the early 1970s, a HUD grant funded a research program to develop multi-disciplinary programs and to give students following different degree program directions the challenges of collaborating on passive solar design projects.

The property will be used by the college for meetings and lectures on the house's concept and performance, for research into new passive solar design, and as an instructional facility. The house can also be used to accommodate visiting professors.

Cal Poly Mba students can soon study in israel

Cal Poly MBA students interested in learning about the Middle East's business climate and history can now pursue their studies in Israel. Named the Israel Program, the two-year option will take students to the Ruppin Institute the first year. Students will return to Cal Poly the second year.

Participants in the program, beginning in fall 1998, will be exposed to the emerging business management opportunities in the Middle East and to Israeli culture and society. Special programs on business, economics, and politics in Israel as well as on the peace process and on the increasingly entrepreneurial kibbutz movement, will be offered.

In recent months, the CAED faculty and students from the Architecture, Construction Management, and Landscape Architecture departments have designed, repaired and renovated some of the house's interior and exterior.

The property will be used by the college for meetings and lectures on the house's concept and performance, for research into new passive solar design, and as an instructional facility. The house can also be used to accommodate visiting professors.

Cal Poly to host career symposium

Cal Poly and Cuesta College students can learn about international career opportunities at a special symposium on Saturday, Feb. 7, in the Business Building.

The 3rd annual International Careers Symposium, from 10 am to 3 pm, is intended for students interested in working in the United States for a company with international markets or working and living in another country.

Speakers, workshops, an alumni panel discussion, a visit to an international “video “up link” with students in Ireland also interested in international jobs is planned. Representatives from international companies interested in recruiting students for careers and internships abroad will be attending.

Lunch and entertainment by Cal Poly cultural clubs will be provided.

Registration costs $10. To register or for more information, call Laura Paris at 781-987 for information is also available on the Web at mslab.calspoly.edu/~indsym.

Favalora won the fourth quarter (1997) ride share prize — a compact "Dayvroom" book with a yearly calendar, calculations, ad­dress book, pen, paper, and photo section valued at approximately $25.

Favalora rode the city bus more than 15 days in a single month to be eligible to win the drawing. She has been in the ride share "registry" program since November 1998.

For information on joining the ride share registry program, contact Computer Services Ext. 66-6800.

Favalora won the fourth quarter (1997) ride share prize — a compact "Dayvroom" book with a yearly calendar, calcula­tions, address book, pen, paper, and photo section valued at approximately $25.

Favalora won the fourth quarter (1997) ride share prize — a compact "Dayvroom" book with a yearly calendar, calculations, address book, pen, paper, and photo section valued at approximately $25.

Favalora won the fourth quarter (1997) ride share prize — a compact "Dayvroom" book with a yearly calendar, calculations, address book, pen, paper, and photo section valued at approximately $25.

Favalora won the fourth quarter (1997) ride share prize — a compact "Dayvroom" book with a yearly calendar, calculations, address book, pen, paper, and photo section valued at approximately $25.

Favalora won the fourth quarter (1997) ride share prize — a compact "Dayvroom" book with a yearly calendar, calculations, address book, pen, paper, and photo section valued at approximately $25.
Retirement reception set for Jane Paris

Academic Records is hosting a retirement reception for Jane Paris from 12:30 to 2:30 pm, Wednesday, Feb. 4, in Adm. 301.

The campus community is invited to stop by to say farewell and enjoy refreshments.

Anyone interested in donating to a gift to Patty Warrick, ext. 6-7272.

Solicitation of vacation/sick leave

Employees are being asked to donate sick leave and vacation credits for Rebecca Ramsey, a records associate in the Academic Records department, and Jennifer Bounds, a secretary in the MESA Engineering Programs.

Donations of either sick leave or vacation credits will help them remain in full-pay status during an extended absence.

Anyone interested in donating leave for Ramsey may contact solicitation coordinator Janice Anderson-Downs in Day Service at ext. 6-1453 or day@calpoly.edu.

To donate leave for Bounds, contact Roy Haynes in the MSSA Engineering Program at ext. 6-1453 or raynes@calpoly.edu.

Eligible state employees may donate up to 16 hours total of sick leave or vacation credits per fiscal year in increments of one hour or more.

S.A.F.E.R. Program looking for 'real men'

The S.A.F.E.R. (Sexual-Assault-Free Environment Resource) Program is sponsoring a universitywide search for the 10 "best" men on campus.

"Real men" are those who demonstrate a respect for the fact that sex should be "shared, not taken," and have an understanding that everyone deserves to be treated with consideration without regard to race, sex, or sexual orientation.

Those chosen will be asked to give two presentations to men's groups.

Students, faculty and staff are welcome to enter the contest. Pick up applications at the Peer Health Education office downstairs in the Health Center, the Rec Center, Public Safety, Women's Programs and Services, Student Life and Activities, the Residence Halls, and Kennedy Library.

Applications must be returned to the Poo, 000, and Education office by Friday, Jan. 30. For more information call ext. 6-2282.

Resident advisor candidates sought

Housing and Residential Life is looking for candidates to fill 60 resident advisor positions for the 1998-99 academic year.

The position is a challenging and comprehensive leadership opportunity open to students who want to learn about themselves while helping others.

Resident advisors develop skills in advising, multicultural awareness, limit-setting, programming, public speaking, and group communication.

Faculty and staff are encouraged to talk about this opportunity. Interested students should call ext. 6-1226.

"ADA Quiz" results on Web

Here are some questions and correct answers to the "ADA (Americans with Disability Act) Quiz" that was distributed to faculty and staff fall quarter by the Disability Resource Center.

The information is also posted at www.sas.calpoly.edu/drc.

Other questions and answers will appear in upcoming issues of the Cal Poly Report.

Closing questions are where added.

Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Vacancy information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly home page on the World Wide Web (address: www.calpoly.edu click on "General Information").

FUNDATION

/Foundation (Adm. Building, job line at ext. 6-7106). All foundation applications must be received by 5 p.m. of the closing date. (No faxes)

CLOSING DATE: February 6

/ Post Doctoral Research Assistant, Dairy Science (Dairy Products Technology Center), $11,760-$13,300.

FACULTY

(Adm. 312, ext. 28-448)

/ In faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head, chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and time base where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

CLOSING DATE: March 6

Answer: Yes. An individual with a disability is a person who: (1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity; (2) has a record or history of such an impairment; or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

Inventor donates $1 million to CAED

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407 Vol. 52, No. 18 • January 29, 1998

California Poly Plan committee to setting timelines

The Cal Poly Plan Steering Committee is working with a consultant to determine in how approximately $500,000 in academic fee revenue should be spent in each of the next two years to meet plan goals.

In February the campus should be given guidelines on how to apply for this money to support projects that enhance teaching and learning and benefit students' academic progress.

Fourteen projects were funded this year, ranging from advanced computing labs to supplemental instruction in high-risk classes to electronic advising.

A full description of these projects as well as those in operation last year can be found on the Cal Poly Plan Web site at the Cal Poly home page.

Projects both years were selected from proposals invited from the entire campus. Last spring the proposals were reviewed by unit or college committees as well as university panels that included faculty, students, staff, and administration members.

The Steering Committee is now working to make the application and selection process less time-consuming.

Their work in the classroom is increasing access to major and general education courses and enhancing student progress toward the completion of their degrees.

The steering Committee has invited the campus community to contact its members regarding the project selection process and other Cal Poly Plan matters.

The committee meets in open sessions from 3 to 5 pm the first Thursday of each month.

Members are:

- Faculty: Anny Morrobel-Sosa, Materials Engineering and Architectural Engineering; Anna Salazar, Italy; Rene Hernandez, Languages and Literatures and chair, Academic Senate; Irene Hoffman, Library; Bernard Whittington, Mathematics and CFA representative.

- Staff: Patricia Broering, Environments Horticultural Sciences and chair, Staff Council; Rosemary Bowker, Biological Sciences; Stephen Hughes, College of Business; Joseph Baranek, Public Safety and Labor Council representative.

- Students: Cindy Entzi, ASI president; Kevin Schmelldahl, Hill Smith, ASI representatives.

- Administration: Paul Zieg, provost and vice president for academic affairs; Juan Gonzalez, vice president for student affairs; William Boyton, dean, College of Business; Committee chair: President Baker.