Moore (Continued on page 6)

Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Vacancy information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly World Wide Web (address: www.calpoly.edu; click on "Informational Department").

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 6-2236 or job line ext. 6-1533). Official application forms must be received by 4 pm on the closing date or postmarked by the closing date. (No fax)

CLOSING DATE: February 25

#89085: Equipment/Systems Specialist, College of Agriculture (Unit 9), $3565-$4295/mo. Ph.D. preferred; ABD acceptable. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

CLOSING DATE: March 13

#83050: Lecturer Pool (part-time), Electrical Engineering Department, (805/756-2781). Possible part-time positions available as determined by need during the 1998-99 academic year. B.S. in electronics engineering or computer engineering required for lab courses; M.S. (or B.S. with applicable industrial experience) required for lecture courses (Ph.D. preferred).

CLOSING DATE: May 1

#83052: Lecturer Pool (part-time), History Department, (805/756-2760). Part-time positions available depending on funding, summer, fall, and/or spring 1998-99. Ph.D. preferred; ABD in history and university teaching experience required. Apply to Carolyn Stefancic, History Department.

#83053: Lecturers (full-time), History Department, (805/756-2760). Possible full-time positions available depending on funding for 1998-99 academic year, teaching multiple sections of general education survey courses in modern world history. Ph.D. in history with university teaching experience required. Apply to Carolyn Stefancic, History Department.

CLOSING DATE: March 11 or until filled

#88087: Associate Vice President, University Advancement (Administrative III). Under the administrative direction of the vice president for university advancement, the associate vice president is responsible for the direct leadership and management of the Cal Poly Fund and Advancement Services Department. The associate vice president has primary responsibility for all state and Foundation budgets and personnel management as well as responsibility for strategic planning for the University Advancement Division. Works collaboratively with the vice president and senior management staff in developing and implementing the Centennial Campaign Plan. Assumes responsibilities of the vice president in his absence. $70,000-$80,000 annual salary range commensurate with the background and experience of the individual selected. Direct specific inquiries regarding the position to: William Boldt, vice president, University Advancement, at ext. 6-1465.

NOTE: For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants currently bargaining under Unit 2, 5, and 7 will be given first consideration.

FACULTY

(Adm. 312, ext. 6-2844)

Candidates interested in faculty positions are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the phone number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

CLOSING DATE: March 13

#89085: Associate Professor, Electrical Engineering Department, (805/756-2781). Possible part-time positions available (as determined by need) during the 1998-99 academic year. B.S. in electronics engineering or computer engineering required for lab courses; M.S. (or B.S. with applicable industrial experience) required for lecture courses (Ph.D. preferred).

CLOSING DATE: May 1

#83050: Lecturer Pool (part-time), Electrical Engineering Department, (805/756-2781). Possible part-time positions available (as determined by need) during the 1998-99 academic year. B.S. in electronics engineering or computer engineering required for lab courses; M.S. (or B.S. with applicable industrial experience) required for lecture courses (Ph.D. preferred).

CLOSING DATE: May 1

#83052: Lecturer Pool (part-time), History Department, (805/756-2760). Part-time positions available, depending on funding, summer, fall, and/or spring 1998-99. Ph.D. preferred; ABD in history and university teaching experience required. Apply to Carolyn Stefancic, History Department.

#83053: Lecturers (full-time), History Department, (805/756-2760). Possible full-time positions available depending on funding for 1998-99 academic year, teaching multiple sections of general education survey courses in modern world history. Ph.D. in history with university teaching experience required. Apply to Carolyn Stefancic, History Department.

CLOSING DATE: March 2 or until filled

#83054: Health and Wellness: Basketball Coach, Intercollegiate Athletics, (805/756-2924). Full-time, 12-month appointment, September 1, 1998 through May 31, 1999. The University of California, Santa Barbara is an equal opportunity employer and a smoke-free environment. Qualifications: California CCAA Division I program including recruitment, scheduling, advancement, budget management, staff supervision and other duties as assigned by athletic director. Undergraduate degree required. Coaching experience at the NCAA Division I level preferred. Demonstrated ability in recruiting, public speaking, and commitment to academics and NCAA rules compliance required. Submit letter of application with list of references and resume to John McCutcheon, athletic director.

Send items by Feb. 23 for winter Credit Report

Monday, Feb. 23, is the deadline to submit items for the winter quarter edition of The Credit Report, the newsletter distributed by faculty and staff professional accomplishments.

When submitting news, please keep in mind we use certain guidelines to help us determine what to publish. In general, items should be about significant accomplishments clearly related - and in most cases that mean directly related - to the faculty member's teaching or a staff member's job at Cal Poly.

Mail items typed or double-spaced, please, and fax to Jo Ann Lloyd, Communications Office, Heroic Hall, or fax them to ext. 6-6533, or e-mail to polynews@calpoly.edu.

Please be sure to include a phone number in case we have questions.

For more information or a copy of the full guidelines, call ext. 6-5111.

Fraternity suspended for 25 years

For more information, contact the campus newsroom at ext. 6-6533.
Evolutionary planning
topic of Feb. 20 talk

An internationally known speaker and software technology author will talk on "Evolutionary Project Planning: A Radical Planning Approach for Better Results From Any Type of Project" on Friday, Feb. 20, at 10 am in Business Building Rotunda (Room 213).

Tom Gilb, an expert in the areas of software quality, software testing, and metrics, has developed a "universal" approach to all aspects of planning and engineering.

Gilb is a consultant to firms worldwide, including software, aircraft, and telecommunications companies. His articles, books and slides can be accessed from his Web site at www.result-planning.com.

Gilb is visiting Cal Poly as a College of Business Boswell Lecturer. Funding for his visit comes from the Boswell Faculty Development Fund, established in 1978 with a gift from the J.G. Boswell Foundation.

For more information, call the College of Business at ext. 6-2704.

Parking now free for disabled visitors

Visitors to Cal Poly who have a DMV disabled placard or license plates can now park free in the DMV areas.

Under the new policy, disabled visitors can park in controlled "event parking" areas at the campus by showing their DMV placard. To park free in other areas, they must, on each visit, obtain a special disabled parking pass at the Grand Avenue visitor's information booth. The passes are valid in most types of parking spaces, including metered spaces.

The free parking policy, which was decided in the chancellor's office, does not apply to disabled veterans or employees. They must still pay to park on campus.

For more information, call Public Safety Services at ext. 6-6654.

Get facts about CETI

The campus is urged to get informed about the California Education Technology Initiative (CETI), a planned partnership between CSU and four technology firms to create, improve, and continually update communication technology throughout the system. Faculty and student opinions are solicited and should be forwarded to Jerry Hanley, vice provost, Information Technology Services (ext. 6-1119). Complete information is on the CETI home page: http://ceti.calstate.edu/.

Retired art historian talks to Feb. 12

Mario A. Del Chiari, a UCSC art history professor emeritus, will speak on "A Roman Villa in Etruscan Territorium from 11 am to noon Thursday, Feb. 12, in Philips Hall of the Performing Arts Center's Cohan Center.

Del Chiari will talk about his excavation of a Roman villa in Tuscany. It is speculated that the villa was built by a notable Etruscan family and is within the 2nd century B.C. to the 5th century A.D.

The retired professor and department chair was a member of the UCSC art history department for 38 years. He has directed several projects in Italy, including at the Forum in Rome. He has also participated in archaeological expeditions in Turkey, Yugoslavia and Italy. For more information, call Jeanne LaBarbera, UU Galerie curator, at ext. 6-1182.

Nationally known poet,
Los Osos resident to read

A Los Osos poet who has achieved national recognition will read and show slides at the next Cal Poly WriterSpeak event at 7 pm Friday, Feb. 13, in Philips Hall of the Performing Arts Center.

Michael Hannon, whose first book of poems was published in 1972, was acclaimed by poets David Wagoner and Kenneth Rexroth. He has published more than 15 poetry titles, including two trade paperback collections, "The Black Dogs" and "Ordinary Messengers."

The poet will show slides of his recent collaboration with artist William T. Wiley, who has translated Hannon's poems into sculptures, drawings and paintings. In turn, Hannon has produced a growing body of work influenced by Wiley's life and art. They have exhibited together at a number of venues, including the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art.

The San Francisco Review of Books said, "Hannon's lyricism is truer and closer to the bone than much of what is written for literary magazines." Because it asks such urgent questions and refuses to back down from the sometimes appalling answer, these are poems of achieved beauty.

The WriterSpeak presentation is sponsored by Cal Poly Arts, the College of Liberal Arts, and the English Department.

For more information, call English Professor Adam Hill at ext. 6-1622.

 architecture

The three President's Awards for Powerhouse operations will be given to outstanding community members for outstanding service to the community.

The board has also ordered that the operating plan for the planned Polytechniques limited liability company be postponed pending further board directions. PowerHouse Media would have operated under this new company.

The board has also authorized Visual Education Production (VEP) to continue operating and program under the Foundation's mission. VEP has produced multimedia educational materials through the Foundation for many years, and PowerHouse grew out of this activity.

Finally, the board directed Foundation officials to work with university personnel in evaluating financially viable programs and services needed to enhance the education of teaching and learning. A new report of these findings is expected in June.

The President's Awards have been expanded this year to also recognize a faculty member who develops a project that adds a community-service dimension to a course.

The three President's Awards for Community Service go to an individual student and a group of students who have demonstrated long-term service and a faculty member who has developed a class-related service project.

One Emerging Service Leader's Award honors a student who has completed service during the past year, has at least two years to go at Cal Poly, and shows promise of increased service. Another recognizes a newly involved group with activities that show promise of continuing.

The awards are given to:
- Recognize student groups and individual students for outstanding service to the community.
- Inspire student groups and individuals to address unmet social needs in San Luis Obispo County.
- Encourage students to enhance their education by becoming involved in programs that allow them to investigate, organize and lead activities.

Students may be nominated for class-related activities if those activities extend beyond class requirements. Faculty could provide recommendations for graduating seniors in their departments for the President's Award as well as the award program in their college(s).

For a nomination form, stop by UU 217 or call Maureen Forgen or Sam Li, Student Services, Lawrence 459, ext. 6-2476.

Winners will be selected by a committee of faculty and city and county government, the ASI, and the Academic Senate. Awards will be presented at President Baker at a reception in May.

Instructional materials on display in library

Faculty and staff can stop by the Kennedy Library to view and comment on instructional materials being considered for adoption by the State Board of Education.

This year, resources for visual and performing arts and health education are being evaluated for use in kindergarten through eighth grade.

Comments regarding educational content must be postmarked by Thursday, Feb. 26, to be considered by the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission.

The instructional materials and forms for sound are in the library's Learning Resources Display Center (LRDC). Faculty and staff may view the availability of instructional resources for review or to make a group reservation, call the LRDC coordinator, Cindy Jagger, at ext. 6-2273.

Survey Results

What percent of respondents answered:
- Correct: 68%
- Incorrect: 25%
- Don't Know: 7%

Question 1: Faculty and staff are required to provide a student with a disability accommodation even if the student does not request it.

"ADA Quiz" results on Web

Here is another question and correct answer to the "ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) Quiz" that was distributed to faculty and staff fall quarter by the Disability Resource Center. The information is also posted at www.sals.calpoly.edu/.

Other questions and answers will appear in upcoming issues of the Cal Poly Report. Comments and questions are welcome at ext. 6-1393.

Question 4:
- Faculty and staff are required to provide a student with a disability accommodation even if the student does not request it.
ADVANCEMENT

Cal Poly political center receives $21,000 donation

A gift of stock totaling more than $21,000 will be used by Cal Poly's Center for Practical Politics to fund student-faculty research.

The gift is from Jack and Linda Gill of Houston, Texas. The center's first major project will be an analysis of recent congressional legislation.

The Center for Practical Politics is a non-profit, non-partisan entity affiliated with the Political Science Department. Established in 1984, it provides faculty, students, and the public with opportunities to apply social science concepts and analytical tools to problems in public policy, legislative impact, polling, and public management.

As a problem-solving organization, the center is equipped to provide services on a contract or fee basis. In addition, it seeks grants targeted for specific projects, computer analysis, student stipends, special speaker programs, and other related activities.

Gallery Exhibits:

University Art Gallery: "Explorations: An Invitational Exhibit of Forms in Metal." Feb. 17 through March 16.

Artists' reception: 4-6 pm, Friday, Feb. 20.

University Union Gallery: "Fire and Water." Through March 8.

Summer job fair set for Feb. 26

More than 30 organizations are expected to participate at this year's Summer Camps and Resorts Job Fair, where students can learn about positions ranging from general counselors to instructors of arts and crafts, music and drama, equestrian sports, physical fitness activities, and swimming.

Employers will hold interviews after the job fair, which is set to run from 10 am to 1 pm Thursday, Feb. 26, in Chumash Auditorium.

Opportunities exist at a variety of camps, including some designed for special populations such as children and adults with disabilities, children with cancer or diabetes, and those with emotional and behavioral problems.

Representatives will come from camps located in such places as Catalina Island, Yosemite and Malibu. In addition, officials are expected from Lake Tahoe hotels and casinos, a resort on the Deschutes River in central Oregon, a Kern River raft tour company, the Army ROTC, and Cal Poly's Conference Services department.

For more information, call Joan Ganous, Career Services, at ext. 6-5970.

Exhibit of forms in metal to run Feb. 17-March 16

Artists and metalsmiths from across the country have been invited to exhibit works ranging from knives to brooches in a show to run Tuesday, Feb. 17, through Monday, March 16, in the University Art Gallery.

Titled "Explorations: An Invitational Exhibit of Forms in Metal," the show was put together by Crissa Hewitt, art and design professor and metalsmith. An artists' reception is scheduled from 4 to 6 pm Friday, Feb. 20, in the gallery in the Dexter Building.

Some of the items to be displayed include steel, brass and copper knives; steel, silver, and gold jewelry; sterling silver cups and a sugar bowl and creamer; forged iron bowls; wall pieces; and silver, copper and gold bowls.

The University Art Gallery is open from 11 am to 4 pm daily plus Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9.

Proposals invited for Cal Poly Plan projects

The Cal Poly Plan Steering Committee has invited the campus to submit project ideas that address plan goals. One- or two-year proposals are sought for 1998-99 and 1999-00.

A statement of intent is due to the provost March 6 for projects with a universitywide application or that are a collaboration between two or more units. About $200,000 will be available for these initiatives each year.

Another $300,000 a year will be used to fund unit and college-based projects. Application details for this separate project category will be announced in early March.

An orientation meeting explaining universitywide and collaborative projects will be Thursday, Feb. 19, 4 pm, in Swain 205. Proposal guidelines are available from the Provost's Office (ext. 6-2186) and on the Cal Poly Plan Web site off the Cal Poly Home Page.

Women's History Month luncheon set for Feb. 20

A Women's History Month luncheon is planned from 11 am to 1:30 pm Friday, Feb. 20, in Chumash Auditorium.

Festivities will include a silent auction, an awards ceremony, and entertainment by Mother Tongue, a local women's theatrical troupe.

During the event, the recipients of the Committee on the Status of Women scholarships and the winners of two Cal Poly Women of the Year awards will be announced.

Mother Tongue will read "On Being an Old Woman."

Silent auction items include gifts and certificates for goods and services from local merchants. Proceeds from the auction will benefit the Women's Programs and Services office.

The cost for the lunch is $10. The Women's History Planning Committee encourages faculty and staff to invite a student to attend.

For reservations and more information, call the Women's Programs and Services office at ext. 6-2600.
New dollar limits allowed for tax-deferred plans

Starting with the 1998 tax year, the amount of money employees can contribute to tax-deferred and tax-sheltered savings and retirement plans has been increased.

The annual dollar limit has been raised from $9,500 to $10,000 for the 403(b) Tax-Sheltered Annuity program and the 401(k) Thrift Plan, and from $7,500 to $8,000 for the 457 Deferred Compensation program.

Additionally, employees are now permitted unlimited Salary Reduction Agreements under the 403(b) program.

Unlimited payroll contribution changes have always been permitted under the 401(k) and 457 programs.

The 403(b), 401(k), and 457 programs enable employees to accumulate tax-deferred savings for retirement. The maximum amount an employee may contribute in a tax year is determined by different formulas, including at least three for the 403(b) program.

To change a payroll contribution, call Human Resources at ext. 6-2237 for the appropriate form.

Institutional Studies reports employment statistics

The total number of faculty members increased from 1,037 in fall 1996 to 1,096 in fall 1997. The latest figure includes 606 tenured and tenure-track faculty and 490 non-tenure-track faculty.

New tenure-track numbers include 16 faculty positions funded by the Cal Poly Plan campus academic fee.

The chart reflects figures for fall 1997 state employees only and includes those who were on the Human Resource System database that quarter. Faculty on sabbatical and faculty, staff and management personnel on leave are not counted.

Foundation and ASI employee records are maintained separately and are not included in these figures.

Full-time faculty, staff and management personnel trend data for 1990 to 1996 are available in the Cal Poly Fact Book.

Readers should note that Institutional Planning and Analysis does not publish the numbers for groupings of five or fewer in gender and ethnic origin categories. Such numbers are considered "identifiable" and might violate information privacy protections.

Detailed data for internal use only are available to individual colleges and departments on request.

For fall 1997 data or a copy of the Cal Poly 1996-97 Fact Book, call Institutional Planning and Analysis at ext. 6-2204.

Cattaneo memorial gifts benefit scholarships

Charles Cattaneo, president of San Luis Garbage Co. and several related businesses, who died Jan. 29 of an apparent heart attack, had established two scholarships at Cal Poly.

Friends and family have asked that memorial contributions be made to the William, Joseph and Charles Cattaneo Scholarship, in care of the Financial Aid Office, or to a charity of choice. The scholarship, named for Charles and his two deceased brothers, benefits students preparing to teach home economics. The intent is that if the fund reaches $10,000 it will be used to create an endowment.

Cattaneo also established the Carlo Luis Garbage Co. and several related organizations. Cattaneo also established the Carlo Cattaneo Memorial Scholarship, in honor of his parents.

Musicians can learn to improve technique in demo

An occupational therapist who specializes in pain management and physical rehabilitation will demonstrate ways performing artists can improve their technique on Friday, Feb. 20, from 2 to 4 pm in Room 218 in the Davidson Music Center.

Lisette Rabinow will talk on the Alexander Technique - a type of "psycho-physical re-education."

"Students learn how holding tension in their bodies has negative effects on their musical performance," said Mary Rawcliffe, a Cal Poly music professor. "Students learn how to 'direct' their bodies in a more constructive way through the Alexander Technique."

Rabinow teaches the Alexander Technique in the Music Department at CSU Northridge.

The presentation is sponsored by the Music Department and College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.

‘Smokey Joe’s Cafe’ to play Feb. 24-26

"Smokey Joe’s Cafe - The Songs of Leiber and Stoller" will bring rock 'n roll hits of the '50s and early '60s to the Performing Arts Center's Harman Hall for three performances at 8 pm Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 24-26.

Winner of the 1990 Grammy Award for Best Musical and nominated for seven 1995 Tony Awards, the show is a "fully staged, non-stop dancing" musical revue of the songs that made famous such superstars as Elvis, the Coasters, and the Drifters.

"Spanish Harlem," "Hound Dog," "Love Potion No. 9," "Stand by Me," "Yakety Yak," "There Goes My Baby," "On Broadway," and "Jailhouse Rock" are some of the 40 songs that flow into a "fully staged, non-stop dancing" musical revue of the songs that made famous such superstars as Elvis, the Coasters, and the Drifters.

Tickets cost $26 to $44. The performance is a Cal Poly Arts event.

The presentation is sponsored by the Music Department and College of Liberal Arts. For more information, call the Music Department at ext. 6-2406.
Retired art historian talks to Feb. 12

Mario A. Del Chiario, a UCSB art history professor emeritus, will speak on "A Roman Villa in Etruscan Territorium from 11 am to noon Thursday, Feb. 12, in Philips Hall of the Performing Arts Center's Cohan Hall.

Del Chiario will talk about his excavation of a Roman villa in Tuscany. It is speculated that the villa was built by a notable Etruscan family and dates from the 2nd century B.C. to the 5th century A.D.

The retired professor and department chair was a member of the UCSB art history department for 38 years. He has directed several major projects in Italy, including at the Forum in Rome. He has also participated in archaeological expeditions in Turkey, Yugoslavia and Italy. For more information, call Jeanne Labarbera, 68-4985, or ext. 6-1182.

Nationally known poet, Los Osos resident to read

A Los Osos poet who has achieved national recognition will read and show slides at the next Cal Poly WriteSpeak event at 7 p.m. Friday, Feb. 13, in Philips Hall of the Performing Arts Center.

Michael Hannon, whose first book of poems was published in 1972, was acclaimed by poets Robert Creeley and Kenneth Rexroth. He has published more than 15 poetry titles, including two trade paperback collections, "Poems & Poems" and "Poems & Days," and a hardcover volume, "Poems & Hall in the Performing Arts Center.

The poet will show slides of his recent collaboration with artist William T. Wiley, who has translated Hannon's poems into sculptures, drawings and paintings. In turn, Hannon has produced a growing body of work influenced by Wiley's life and art. They have exhibited together at a number of venues, including the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art.

The San Francisco Review of Books said, "Hannon's lyricism is truer and closer to the bone than much of what we call 'lyric,' because it asks such urgent questions and refuses to back down from the sometimes appalling answers. These are poems of achieved beauty.

The WriteSpeak presentation is sponsored by Cal Poly Arts, the College of Liberal Arts, and the English Department.

For more information, call English Professor Adam Hill at ext. 6-1622.

Prague Chamber Orchestra to play Feb. 20

"Each musician is a maestro," wrote an American critic about the Prague Chamber Orchestra during its first North American tour.

Now in its 13th season, the ensemble, featuring Valentina Lisitsa on piano and Sagar Nakarikar on trumpet, will play compositions by Mendelssohn, Mozart, Beethoven and Hugo Wolf beginning at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 20, in the Performing Arts Center.
The 36-member troupe plays without a conductor, "sustained instead by the superlative musicianship of each player.

The program in the Cohan Center's Harman Hall will include "The Fair Melusina," Op. 32, by Mendelssohn; Symphony No. 39 in E-flat major by Mozart; "Italian Serenade" by Hugo Wolf; and Symphony No. 1 in C Major, Op. 21, by Beethoven.

The New York Times described the orchestra as a "marvelous precision instrument. A superlative ensemble." The Washington Post called the group's music "light, clear, perfectly articulated and fresh as a spring gust of wind."

Tickets cost $18 to $32.

Parking now free for disabled visitors

Visitors to Cal Poly who have a DMV disabled placard or license plates can now park free on campus.

Under the new policy, disabled visitors can park in controlled "event parking" areas at no charge by showing their DMV placard. To park free in other areas, they must, on each visit, obtain a special disabled parking pass at the Grand Avenue visitor's information booth. The passes are valid in most types of parking spaces, including metered spaces.

The free parking policy, which was decided in the chancellor's office, does not apply to disabled vendors or employees. They must still pay to park on campus.

For more information, call Public Safety Services at ext. 6-6654.

Here's how to reach us

The Cal Poly Report is published by the Communications Office every Wednesday during the academic year. Please submit items by 10 am the Thursday before you'd like them to appear.

For information, call ext. 6-1511, or e-mail articles, suggestions, and questions to polynews@polymail. Items can also be faxed to ext. 6-6533.

Evolutionary planning topic of Feb. 20 talk

An internationally known speaker and software technology author will talk on "Evolutionary Project Planning: A Radical Planning Approach for Better Results From Any Type of Project" on Friday, Feb. 20, at 10 am in Business Building Rotunda (Room 213).

Tom Gilb, an expert in the areas of software quality, software testing, and metrics, has developed a "universal" approach to all aspects of planning and engineering.

Gilb is a consultant to firms worldwide, including software, aircraft, and telecommunications companies. His articles, books and slides can be accessed from his Web site at www.result-planning.com.

Gilb is visiting Cal Poly as a College of Business Boswell Lecturer. Funding for his visit comes from the Boswell Faculty Development Fund, established in 1978 with a gift from the J.G. Boswell Foundation.

For more information, call the College of Business at ext. 6-2704.

Get facts about CETI

The campus is urged to get informed about the California Education Technology Initiative (CETI), a planned partnership between CSU and four technology firms to create, improve, and continually update communications technology throughout the system. Faculty and student opinions are solicited and should be forwarded to Jerry Hanley, vice president, Information Technology Services (ext. 6-6660).

Comments regarding educational and technology topics can be posted at CETI's home page: http://ceti.calstate.edu.

Foundation stops Powerhouse operations

The Foundation Board of Directors has suspended authority for Powerhouse Media to operate under the business and marketing plan previously approved by the Foundation.

The board has also ordered that the operating agreement for the planned Polytechniques limited liability company be postponed pending further board directions. Powerhouse Media would have operated under this new company.

The board has also authorized Visual Education Productions (VEP) to continue operation of the program with its own mission. VEP has produced multimedia educational materials through the Foundation for many years, and Powerhouse Media ceased this activity.

Finally, the board directed Foundation officials to work with university personnel in evaluating fiscally viable programs and services needed to enhance the ethos of technology on teaching and learning. A new report of these findings is expected in June.

Student, faculty nominees sought for service awards

Faculty members can now be among the nominees for the annual President's Awards for Student and Community Service. Nominations for the 13th annual President's Awards and the university's Emerging Leaders Service Awards are being accepted through Friday, March 6.

The President's Awards have been expanded this year also to recognize a faculty member who develops a project that adds a community-service dimension to a course.

The three President's Awards for Community Service go to an individual student and a group of students who have demonstrated long-term service and a faculty member who has developed a class-related service project.

One Emerging Service Leader's Award honors a student who has completed service during the past year, has at least two years to go at Cal Poly, and shows promise of increased service. Another recognizes a newly involved group with activities that show promise of continued growth.

The awards are given to:
- Recognize student groups and individual students for outstanding service to the community;
- Inspire student groups and individuals to address unmet social needs in San Luis Obispo County;
- Encourage students to enhance their education in college through programs that allow them to investigate, organize and lead activities.

Students may be nominated for class-related activities if those activities extend beyond class requirements. Faculty members could recommend undergraduates and graduating seniors in their departments for the President's Award as well as the award program in their college.

For a nomination form, stop by UU 127 or call Margaret Foringer or Tom Gilb, 68-4985 or ext. 50278, for Student Leadership and Activities, ext. 6-2476.

Winners will be selected by a committee of faculty and city and county government, the ASI, and the Academic Senate. Awards will be presented by President Baker at a reception in May.

Instructional materials on display in library

Faculty and staff can stop by the Kennedy Library to view and comment on instructional materials being considered for adoption by the State Board of Education by January 1.

This year, resources for visual and performing arts and health instruction are being evaluated for use in kindergarten through eighth grade. Comments regarding educational content must be postmarked by Thursday, Feb. 26, to be considered by the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission.

The instructional materials and forms for the library's Learning Resources Display Center (LRDC) can be accessed at http://calpoly.library.ca.gov. Submit comments and materials for review to or for making a group reservation, call the LRDC consultant's office at ext. 6-2373.

‘ADA Quiz’ results on Web

Here is another question and correct answer to the "ADA Quiz" of the Feb. 5 issue of the Cal Poly Report. Comments and questions are welcome at ext. 6-1395.

Question 4: Faculty and staff are required to provide a student with a disability accommodation even if the student does not request it.

Survey Results

Correct Incorrect Don't Know

Percent of Response

No 70% 30% 0%

Yes 5% 95% 0%

No opinion 25% 0% 75%

The student has the responsibility to self-identify to the designated compliance officer or disability services office, provide documentation of a disability, and ask for accommodation before the institution is required to provide an accommodation.

Answer: No
Fraternity suspended

(Continued from page 1)

"I concur with the Student Life and Activities Department’s hearing panel that the fraternity did, in fact, provide alcoholic beverages in an excessive manner to at least one minor," Gonzalez said in his letter to Delta Tau President Perry Young. He rejected Young’s argument that individual members, not the organization, supplied alcohol to the young man on Nov. 22 at the fraternity’s house. Young contested the fraternity acted responsibly in taking care of the victim after the incident and that the punishment is too severe.

The young man, after drinking heavily, slept in a position that cut off the flow of blood to his arm. When he woke, fraternity members took him to a local hospital, where he remained for four days before it was determined his arm did not have to be amputated.

Gonzalez said Cal Poly will continue both to impose severe sanctions on university-related groups that are involved in the abuse of alcohol and to pursue several active programs designed to educate students in the dangers of alcohol.

Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications for the following positions are available from the appropriate Human Resources office. Vacancy information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly website on the World Wide Web (address: www.calpoly.edu; click on "General Information").

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 6-2236 or job list ext. 6-1833). Official application forms must be received by 4 pm on the closing date or be postmarked by the closing date. (No fees.)

CLOSING DATE: February 25
#80985: Equipment/Systems Specialist, College of Agriculture (Univ. 99), $2605-$3262/mo. Career level.

CLOSING DATE: March 4 or until filled
#80486: First Year Coordinator (BSF IV), Student Affairs, $3356-$4295/mo. M&Q’s: A master’s degree required with eight years of progressively responsible professional student services work experience or a doctorate with five years of progressively responsible student services work experience or professional experience in a closely related field.

CLOSING DATE: March 11 or until filled
#80667: Associate Vice President, University Advancement (Administrator III). Under the administrative direction of the vice president for university advancement, the associate vice president is responsible for the direct leadership and management of the Cal Poly Fund and Advancement Services Department. The associate vice president has primary responsibility for all state and Foundation budgets and personnel management as well as responsibility for strategic planning for the University Advancement Division. Works collaboratively with the vice president and senior management staff in developing and implementing the Centennial Campaign Plan. Assumes responsibilities of the vice president in his absence. $70,000-$80,000 annual hiring salary range commensurate with the background and experience of the individual selected. Direct specific inquiries regarding the position to: William Boldt, vice president, University Advancement, at ext. 6-1445.

NOTE: For positions marked with an asterisk, qualified on-campus applicants currently bargaining in Units 2, 5, 7, and 9 will be given first consideration.