Students, faculty and staff are invited to a "healthy lifestyle" health and wellness fair from 11 am to 1 pm Wednesday, May 27, in UU 220.

Door prizes will be given away, and information will be available from the Arthritis Foundation, Crux Climbing Gym, Cal Poly Rez Sports, the personal trainer company Strictly Personal, Beauty Divine Aromatherapy, Miracle Ear Hearing Aid, Peter & Jennifer Music, and SLO Kick Boxing.

Ree will be giving free massages, power walking demonstrations and free Ree Center passes for summer quarter, Cal Poly’s Exercise Science and Health Promotion Club will give body composition and blood pressure tests.

Watch for details in a full-page flyer. The event is sponsored by the Employee Assistance Program.

New fees to be charged for UU rooms

Beginning July 1, new University Union and Plaza reservation fees, approved by the ASI Board of Directors, will be charged. A copy of the new fee schedule may be picked up at the UU Information Desk. The fee schedule is also on-line at the ASI Web page, www.asi.calpoly.edu.

Music students win Allied Arts contest

Four music majors won cash prizes in the eighth annual Allied Arts/Bert Evans Music Competition in Cambria.

Shelene Singh, a senior, won the first prize of $750 for her piano interpretation of music by Debussy and Prokofiev.

Kathleen Rupp, a senior, won first place vocalist. She was awarded $375 for her presentation of music by Richard Strauss and Franz Ferris.

Ellen Delmore Van Slyke, a senior, won second-place vocalist and $500. She sang music by Handel and Florence Price.

Frank Marino, a sophomore received $150 as a finalist. The bassist performed music by Capuzzi and David Walter.

---

Position vacanices

Vacancy information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly home page on the World Wide Web (address: www.calsite/col-get-on-information/). Call 756-2828 or write to Position vacanices, Attn: Chairperson, Human Resource Services, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407. Vacancy information for all categories is available on-line at the Human Resource Services World Wide Web (address: www.calsite/hrweb/index.html).

FACULTY (Adm. 312, ext. 6-2844)

Vacant positions are listed in faculty appointments. Interested candidates for faculty appointments are asked to contact the appropriate department office at the number listed for more information and an application. Please submit all application materials to the department head/chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase applicable, unless otherwise stated.

OPEN FOUNDER'S FELLOWSHIPS (Ext. 6-1533)

UO open fewer hours during summer quarter

The summer quarter hours for the UO will be: Monday through Friday, 7:30 am to 9 pm; Saturday, noon to 9 pm; and Sunday, 2 pm to 7 pm. (No faxex.)

Exhibits

University Art Gallery: "In Her Image," through June 10.

Art$alute

Fund-raising dinner and Art$alute Awards. (805-756-1108). Establishing a pool for possible temporary teaching assignments and to hire exceptional faculty members. Applications must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 pm of the closing date. (No faxex.)

Chritistian Assistant, Upward Bound/Student Academic Services ($1861-$2195/mo.) Closing Date: May 29.

Campus Human Resources Office ($2,039-$2,652/mo.) Closing Date: May 29.
Called psychological services and includes golf cart, green fees, barbecue lunch before, catered dinner after, and a silent and live auction. Tee prizes and awards will be given for longest drive and closest to the pin. Hole sponsorships are available for $150 each, or $250 with one golf outing included. Proceeds from the event will benefit Cal Poly.

For more information contact Yoko Chiesa at (209) 883-0444, Dave Absher at (209) 521-9929, or Bob Weaver at (209) 543-2032. The deductible check pays to Cal Poly Booster checks mailed to Cal Poly Golf, 1312 Mt. View, Ragtown CA 93656.

Retirement reception set for Ann Morgan May 28
The campus community is invited to a retirement reception for professor Ann Morgan of the Psychology and Human Development Department from 3 to 4:30 pm on Thursday, May 28, in the MathSciences and Home Economics Building, Room 114. Morgan is retiring after 18 years of service to Cal Poly.

Running With the PAC
The Performing Arts Center is sponsoring "Running With the PAC," a 5K fun run/walk through campus at 8:30 am, Saturday, May 30, beginning and ending in the Cohen Center Plaza.

The fee is $15 for students. Others pay $15 before Monday, May 22, and $20 after. For a race registration form, stop by the Performing Arts Ticket Office; Venetian Rooms, 4035 Higuera, San Luis Obispo; the San Luis Obispo Chamber of Commerce, downtown; and GH Sports, 698 Higuera, SLO. Proceeds from the race will benefit the Performing Arts Center's Youth Outreach program and the center's volunteer Friends organization.

For more information, call the center at ext. 6-7555.

Faculty, staff invited to visit The Cliffs
For more information contact Yoko Chiesa at (209) 883-0444, Dave Absher at (209) 521-9929, or Bob Weaver at (209) 543-2032. The deductible check pays to Cal Poly Booster checks mailed to Cal Poly Golf, 1312 Mt. View, Ragtown CA 93656.

Run 'With the PAC' set for May 30
The Performing Arts Center is sponsoring "Run 'With the PAC," a 5K fun run/walk through campus at 8:30 am, Saturday, May 30, beginning and ending in the Cohen Center Plaza.

The fee is $15 for students. Others pay $15 before Monday, May 22, and $20 after. For a race registration form, stop by the Performing Arts Ticket Office; Venetian Rooms, 4035 Higuera, San Luis Obispo; the San Luis Obispo Chamber of Commerce, downtown; and GH Sports, 698 Higuera, SLO. Proceeds from the race will benefit the Performing Arts Center's Youth Outreach program and the center's volunteer Friends organization.

For more information, call the center at ext. 6-7555.

Faculty, staff invited to visit The Cliffs
For more information contact Yoko Chiesa at (209) 883-0444, Dave Absher at (209) 521-9929, or Bob Weaver at (209) 543-2032. The deductible check pays to Cal Poly Booster checks mailed to Cal Poly Golf, 1312 Mt. View, Ragtown CA 93656.

Run 'With the PAC' set for May 30
The Performing Arts Center is sponsoring "Run 'With the PAC," a 5K fun run/walk through campus at 8:30 am, Saturday, May 30, beginning and ending in the Cohen Center Plaza.

The fee is $15 for students. Others pay $15 before Monday, May 22, and $20 after. For a race registration form, stop by the Performing Arts Ticket Office; Venetian Rooms, 4035 Higuera, San Luis Obispo; the San Luis Obispo Chamber of Commerce, downtown; and GH Sports, 698 Higuera, SLO. Proceeds from the race will benefit the Performing Arts Center's Youth Outreach program and the center's volunteer Friends organization.

For more information, call the center at ext. 6-7555.

Trumpeter Bobby Shew to play at Jazz Night
Award-winning trumpeter Bobby Shew will be the featured soloist with Cal Poly's jazz groups at the university's Jazz Night on Saturday, May 30.

Led by music professors Paul Rinzel and William Johnson, the University Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Combos will perform music ranging from swing, samba and Latin to jazz rock and jazz ballads.

Bobby Shew was trained with the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra and Woody Herman's band, as well as with Della Reese and Bandstand.

After playing lead trumpet for a number of pop stars in Las Vegas, Shew moved to Los Angeles to play more jazz. He played with Art Pepper, Bud Shank, the Horace Silver Quintet, and others.

Johnson promises "upbeat, brilliant big band sounds" from the two-semester University Jazz Bands, as well as "the more intimate, warm improvisational style of the Cal Poly Jazz Combo"

Tickets cost $9 to $18 and can be bought at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 2 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays. To order by phone, call J-P 6-ARTS (ext. 6-2777). Jazz Night is sponsored by the Music Department.

Here's how to reach us
The Cal Poly Report is published by the Communications Office every Wednesday during the academic year. Items submitted by 10 am Thursday are in the following Wednesday's edition.

For more information, call ext. 6-1511, or e-mail articles, suggestions, and questions to polynews@polymail.

You may fax items to ext. 6-6553.

More staff survey results
Results of the staff survey conducted last month by Human Resources and Planning show that 77 percent of staff employees are satisfied with the amount of time release they receive to attend conferences and training.

Eighty-six percent of the respondents had participated in work-related training sessions within the past year and 54 percent were satisfied with the training.

In response to the survey, Human Resources and Planning (HR/E) is identifying a broader variety of work-related training topics that are of interest to staff. The department is also planning to support the specialized training needs of specific work units or employees. In addition, HR/E has compiled a list of campus departments that offer training to employees in such areas as management information systems, business processes, computer technology, organizational and professional development, and student safety. This information will be distributed to campus departments.

In developing its own training programs for the upcoming academic year, HR/E will continue to emphasize training activities for employees and provide employees with the opportunity to apply key concepts to "real life" work situations. The new training series and new employee orientation program are being restructured to include a more interactive format. In the past, HR/E had conducted small-group training sessions — particularly in the area of injury prevention — and will explore the use of these smaller, more customized programs in other training areas. HR/E is also establishing stronger collaborative relationships with other campus departments, such as the Employee Assistance Program, in order to jointly sponsor staff training and optimize existing resources and expertise.

For more information regarding training programs sponsored by HR/E, contact Joan Lund, training manager, at ext. 6-6553 or jlund@calpoly.edu.

Students to teach about wilderness
For more information regarding train­ ning in state-of-the-art technol­
gy, productivity enhancements, and job skills improvement, the staff should look at the "Wilderness Box," a collection of teaching aids including skulls, books, puppets and videos.

In the past two years, Cal Poly students have introduced more than 1,000 San Luis Obispo and San Luis Obispo County elementary school students to ecological, social, and cultural wilderness values and helped them develop wilderness recreation programs.

This year’s lesson will be taught to third-graders at Vineyard Elementary School in Templeton and to second- and third-graders at Bishop's Peak Elementary School in San Luis Obispo. Bill Hendrick, recreation administration professor, directs the student teachers.

Cal Poly students win housing competition
An interdisciplin ary team of students won the Bank of America's Northern California 1998 Low-Income Housing Challenge Competition with its design for a 50-unit townhouse for low-income families.

The Cal Poly team, called Partnership Challenge Competition with its design for a 50-unit townhouse for low-income families.

The team was advised by Lori Huffman of the City and Regional Planning Department and Brian Koster of the Architecture Department.

PSSI recipients
For more information contact Chris Baker in Athletics at ext. 6-7188.

Cal Poly students win housing competition
An interdisciplin ary team of students won the Bank of America's Northern California 1998 Low-Income Housing Challenge Competition with its design for a 50-unit townhouse for low-income families.

The team was advised by Lori Huffman of the City and Regional Planning Department and Brian Koster of the Architecture Department.

PSSI recipients
For more information contact Chris Baker in Athletics at ext. 6-7188.

Cal Poly students win housing competition
An interdisciplin ary team of students won the Bank of America's Northern California 1998 Low-Income Housing Challenge Competition with its design for a 50-unit townhouse for low-income families.

The team was advised by Lori Huffman of the City and Regional Planning Department and Brian Koster of the Architecture Department.

PSSI recipients
For more information contact Chris Baker in Athletics at ext. 6-7188.

Cal Poly students win housing competition
An interdisciplin ary team of students won the Bank of America's Northern California 1998 Low-Income Housing Challenge Competition with its design for a 50-unit townhouse for low-income families.

The team was advised by Lori Huffman of the City and Regional Planning Department and Brian Koster of the Architecture Department.

PSSI recipients
For more information contact Chris Baker in Athletics at ext. 6-7188.
Open forums planned for vice provost finalists

Four candidates for the position of vice provost for academic programs and undergraduate education will be interviewed during May and early June. Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to attend the open forums and meet the candidates. All forums are scheduled in UU 220.

Leonard Salazar, professor of research, administration and foundations at California State University, Fresno, will be interviewed today and Thursday, May 20-21. An open forum has been scheduled from 11:10 am to noon on May 26.

Faye Vowell, dean of the school of library and information management at Emporia State University, Kansas, will be on campus Tuesday and Wednesday, May 26-27. An open forum will be held from 11:10 am to noon on May 26.

David Conn, special assistant to the provost, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in Blacksburg, will be interviewed on Monday and Tuesday, June 1-2. An open forum has been scheduled from 11:10 to noon June 2.

Annette Chappell, associate vice president for academic affairs at Towson University in Maryland, will be on campus Thursday and Friday, June 4-5. An open forum is set from 1:40 to 2:30 pm June 4.

More staff survey results

Here are more results from the survey done last summer by the Ad Hoc Committee for Supporting and Sustaining Employee Performance.

While most respondents (78 percent) felt they would know what to do in an emergency, the majority of the staff commented that emergency preparedness classes would be beneficial. Followed by written emergency procedures, training, and on-site visits to the department or building.

To address these concerns, the following information has been provided by Joan Graham, emergency management planner. For information or copies of publications, call her at ext. 6-6653.

Emergency Preparedness Classes
A series of classes in emergency preparedness (Campus Emergency Response Team or CERT training) is offered three times a year — fall, winter and spring quarters. The classes, open to all staff and faculty members, are advertised in the Cal Poly Report, the Staff Council Update, and by e-mail to division ofces. The classes are free, and upon completion, graduates are provided with a personal emergency preparedness kit, a certificate, and an emergency preparedness manual.

Written Emergency Procedures

The Emergency Management Plan (EMP) for the campus has recently been updated and distributed to all division and department offices. Individual department offices have been asked to develop their own departmental emergency procedures under the umbrella of the campus EMP. The Emergency Management Planning office is available as a resource in developing department emergency plans.

Two publications are available from the Emergency Management Planning office: (1) Emergency Preparedness Guidelines for Students, Faculty, Staff, and Visitors and (2) Your Family Disaster Supplies Calendar.

Two videos can be checked out: (1) "Academic Aftershocks" and (2) "Surviving the Big One." Information on these and other subjects will be available on the Emergency Management Planning Web site by the end of spring quarter.

Training/On-Site Visits

Graham is available to speak to campus groups and departments about disaster preparedness. In addition, options for continued training in first aid/CPR are being explored. In 1996-97 the campus provided one-time funding for 250 employees to receive the training.

ADVANCEMENT

Cal Poly Fund sets record

The Cal Poly Fund is enjoying its most successful year. It surpassed the $1 million mark in April, earlier in the fiscal year than ever before.

Eric Doepel, director of the program, reports that in two years the number of gifts in colleges and units has nearly doubled and the dollar amount has more than doubled.

As of April 30 this year, 10,134 gifts totaling $372,139 had been received, compared with 5,184 gifts for a total of $506,506 two years ago at this time. Last year at this point the fund had received 8,757 gifts totaling $582,621.

Rec Sports to offer summer swimming lessons

ASI Rec Sports is taking sign-ups for the Children's Summer Swim Program. Lessons cost $40 per session for each enrolled participant. Lessons begin Monday, June 29. Call ext. 6-1366, or stop by the Rec Center for more information.

'Permaculture' course scheduled at Cal Poly

Anyone interested in clean air and water, healthy food, and community vitality is invited to participate in a two-week, intensive training course at Cal Poly from June 21 to July 5.

The workshop will teach "permaculture," a system of sustainable living practices that encompasses gardening, farming, architecture and large-scale agricultural development.

The University Permaculture Design Training Course is intended for anyone interested in the system, including land managers, farmers, gardeners, architects, planners, environmental educators, community service volunteers and students.

Larry Santoyo, a pioneer permaculture designer, is one of three teachers for the course. College of Agriculture staff members Akiva Werbalowsky and Julian Kayne will also teach. Werbalowsky develops ecological agriculture programs for the university, and Kayne is Cal Poly's compost site manager.

Session topics include cultivating fertility, water harvesting, solar technologies, patterns in nature, food forestry, community collaborative design, and building with annual fiber crops.

Participants who complete the course can receive professional certification and continuing education units.

Tuition for two weeks of instruction is $565. An additional and optional $330 covers the cost of tent camping, three catered meals a day, a pass to the university's recreation facilities, and parking.

One-day course passes, $100, include instruction, three meals, and one night of camping. Partial work-exchange opportunities are also available.

For more program information, contact Werbalowsky by phone at ext. 6-3086 or by e-mail at awerbalow@calpoly.edu. For a registration packet, call Conference Services at ext. 6-7600.
Zingg announces faculty PSSI recipients for 1997-98

Paul Zingg, provost and vice president for academic affairs, has announced the names of faculty members awarded Performance Salary Step Increases (PSSI) for 1997-98 by their respective college deans or administrators. As recommended by the Academic Senate, the procedure was changed this year to allow for the decisions to be made at the college or unit level. Of the 349 applications, 224 faculty unit employees were awarded PSSIs at a cost of $447,098.

These faculty are recognized for their contributions to the university through their meritorious teaching and record of service and professional accomplishments:

College of Agriculture
Agricultural Education and Communications
Glen Casey and Sarah Lord
Agribusiness
Jim Alhen, Jay E. Noel, David J. Schaffner and Robert C. Thompson
Animal Science
Mike Hall, Robert Rutherford and Clifford Stokes
Bioresource and Agricultural Engineering
Larry Joe Glass, Kenneth Solomon and Rollon Sroholm
Crop Science
Dairy Science
Edwin H. Jaster, Gary D. Reif and Philip S. Tong
Environmental Horticultural Science
Stephen Angley, Robert P. Rice Jr. and Virginia R. Walter
Food Science & Nutrition
Joe Montecalvo, Oliver Robert Noyes, Mary E. Pedersen and Rady A. Wooten
Natural Resources Management
Brian C. Ditterick, William W. Hendricks, Douglas D. Piirto, Carolyn B. Shank and James R. Ylikiti
Soil Science
Delmar Dingus and Terry L. Smith
College of Architecture and Environmental Design
Architectural Engineering
Abraham C. Lynn, Vicki V. May, and David C. Weggel
Architecture
William P. Benedict, John Cotton, Zerim Denel, Bruno Giberti, Don Grant, Terry Hargrave, Pat Hill, Clif Billingworth, Brian B. Kester, Kreny L. May, Sandy Miller, Daniel L. Panetta, Jens Pohl, Don E. Swearingen and Donald Wootard
City & Regional Planning
Linda L. Day and David Dubé
Construction Management
William C. Epstein, Hal Johnston, James A. Rodger and Mat R. Wall
Landscape Architecture
Brian A. Avides, Omar Faraquzz and Dale A. Sutliff
College of Business
Accounting
Mary Beth Armstrong, Janice L. Carr, Doug Cerf, M. Zafir, Iqbal and Tid Miller
Economics
Phillip Faucon, Michael L. Marlow and Alden F. Shiers
Finance
Kenneth D. Rienar and Lucie Scenen
Global Strategy and Law
Dan Bertozzi Jr., Colette A. Frayne and J. Michael Geringer
Industrial Technology
Roger L. Keep and Lynn S. Moshier
Management
Rebecca Ellis, Barry D. Floyed, Patricia A. McQuaid and Michael W. Stebbins
Marketing
Norm Borin, R. Krishnan and Terri Swartz
Executive MBA/Graduate MBA Programs
David Peach
College of Engineering
Aerospatial Engineering
Daniel J. Bierz, Rassell M. Cummings, Jon A. Hoffman and Payal Kolkiah
Civil and Environmental Engineering
Harold M. Cota, Gregg L. Fiezgel, Robert J. Lang, Chien-kwu Lo, H. M. Jaredy, Nirupam Pal and Edward Sullivan
Computer Science
James L. Begg, W. Chris Buckalew, John B. Connely, Joe Graes, Michael L. Liu, Sigurd Meldal and Clinton Staley
Electrical Engineering
Samuel O. Agba, David Braun, Fred W. DePiero and Marit Kalinski
Industrial and Manufacturing Engineering
K.N. Balasubramaniam, Ken Brown and Anthony Mason
Materials Engineering
Blair London and Anny Morrobel-Sosa
Mechanical Engineering
William E. Clark, Raymond G. Gordon, Michael A. Iannce, Safwat Moussafl, Saeed Niku and Ramesh T. Shah
College of Liberal Arts
Art and Design
Charles Jennings, Eric B. Johnson and Joanne Ruggles
English
John Battenburg, Sanya Dills, Angela M. Estes, Robert Inchausti, Douglas Keese, Al Landwehr, Nancy Lucas, Carol MacCuddy, Steven Marx, Matthew S. Novak, Michael Orth and Deborah B. Schwartz
Ethnic Studies
Victor Valle and Phillip Yang
Graphic Communication
Hershel L. Apfelberg, Gary G. Field and Henry J. Heesch
History
Timothy M. Barnes, Manzar Foroorah and John Snaesinger
Journalism
Nishan Havandjian
Modern Languages and Literatures
William T. Little and Greta L. Velasquez
Music
Antonio G. Barata, William V. Johnson and L. Alyson McLamore
Philosophy
Linda Borns, Joseph D. Houlgate, Joseph J. Lynch and Frederick O’Ree
Political Science
Richard Kranzdorf and Diane N. Long
Psychology and Human Development
William T. Little and Gloria L. Velasquez
Agricultural Education
Doug Cerf, M. Zafir Iqbal and Tad Miller
Herschel L. Apfelberg, Gary G. Field and L. Alyson McLamore
Agricultural Education
Doug Cerf, M. Zafir Iqbal and Tad Miller
Agricultural Education
Doug Cerf, M. Zafir Iqbal and Tad Miller
Agricultural Education
Doug Cerf, M. Zafir Iqbal and Tad Miller
Agricultural Education
Doug Cerf, M. Zafir Iqbal and Tad Miller
Agricultural Education
Doug Cerf, M. Zafir Iqbal and Tad Miller
Cal Poly to host straw building symposium

Leading architects and experienced builders will guide a two-day workshop on building with bales of straw on Saturday and Sunday, May 23-24, at Cal Poly. The California Straw BALE Construction Symposium and Workshop will run from 9:30 am to 7:30 pm both days. The workshop will be led by architecture professor Polly Cooper, retired architecture professor Ken Haggard, and Bob Thies, an architect and straw-bale builder.

Saturday’s workshop will include instruction, slides and discussion. On Sunday, participants will have an opportunity for hands-on activities. Experts will also explore financial, ecological, aesthetic and community benefits of using fiber crops as construction materials.

The course costs $98 for both days. It is being offered through the University Extension.

Registration is on a first come, first basis. For more information or to register, call ext. 6-2093. 0

Modesto alumni set golf tournament

The Modesto Poly Alumni Association is planning its 10th Annual Golf Tournament at 12:30 pm Friday, May 29, at the Stanislaus County Golf Course in Modesto.

All golfers are welcome, no matter how well they play. The entry fee is $125 and includes golf cart, green fees, barbeque lunch before, catered dinner after, and a silent auction.

Tee prizes and awards will be given for longest drive and closest to the pin. Hole sponsorships are available for $550.
Position vacancies

Vacancy information and applications from the appropriate Human Resources office. Vacancy information can also be accessed from the Cal Poly home page on the World Wide Web (address: www.calpoly.edu) by clicking on "General Information".

STATE (Adm. 110, ext. 6-2326) [job line at ext. 6-5353]. Open position applications must be received by 4 pm on the closing date or be postmarked by the closing date. (No faxes.)

#7108: Public Safety Dispatcher, Public Safety Services (Unit 71), $20,080-$24,640. Closing Date: June 10.

#7109: Temporary Emergency Clerical Pool, Human Resources. Short-term appointments (up to 90 days) in any department on an as-needed basis. Applications vary in base classification, timebase, classification, and length. Closing Date: June 30. (Emergency Clerical Pool is re-opened after every four months. All interested candidates are urged to submit a new application each time the pool reopens.)

FACULTY (Adml. 312, ext. 6-2844) [job line at ext. 6-1107]. Faculty positions in any campus department are posted on Cal Poly's Faculty Position Vacancies list at the California Polytechnic State University web site (www.calpoly.edu). Interested candidates should review the on-line list for more information and application procedures. Please submit all application materials directly to the appropriate department head or chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and timebase where applicable, unless otherwise stated.

#87108: Lecturer, Graphic Communication Department (805-756-1108). Establishing a pool for possible temporary teaching assignments during summer, fall, winter, and spring quarters 1998-99. Ph.D. or Master's degree preferred. Base salary is $4,098-$4,479 per quarter, negotiable, with up to $2,000 in add-ons. B.S. or B.A. required in related field. Position available Fall Quarter 1998. To apply contact Prof. J. H. Hersch, Acting Department Head. Closing Date: June 3.

FOUNDER (Adm. Found. Building. [job line at ext. 6-1107] All foundation application materials must be received (marked by 5 pm of the closing date. (No faxes.)

#88212: Lecturers (paid), Campus Life Services (Campus Life Office: $2,039-$2,522/mo.). Closing Date: May 29. 0

. . . . . . D A T E L I E N E (Continued from page 1)

Thursday, May 28

Music: Cal Poly Jazz Band, Backstage Pizza, noon.

Friday, May 29

Music: Robert Lewis recital, Davidson Music Building 218, 7 pm.

Saturday, May 30

S-F-K Run: "Win With the PAC," begins, ends in Cohen Center's Plaza, 9 am. ($)

Music Workshop: Bobby Shawn, trumpet jazz workshop, Davidson Music Center 218, noon.

Arthauslive: Fund-raising dinner and auction, Chumash, 6 pm. ($)

Music: Senior Ellen Delmore Van Slyke vocal recital, Carmel Lutheran Church, San Luis Obispo, 7:30 pm.

Music: Jazz Night with the University Jazz Bands, Cohen Center, 8 pm. ($)

Music & Dance: "Night in Mexico" with Grupo Folklorico Imagin y Esperanza and guest artists, Theatre, 8 pm. ($)

Sunday, May 31

Music: Student Anna Binneweg to play clarinet and conduct senior recital, Carmel Lutheran Church, San Luis Obispo, 2 pm.

Tuesday, June 2

Music: Darrell, Backstage Pizza, noon.

Wednesday, June 3

Music: Dave Ross & Tio Wally, Backstage Pizza, noon.

Thursday, June 4

Music: Student recital, Davidson Music Center 218, 11 am.

Music: Student vocal recital, Davidson Music Center 218, 7:30 pm.

Friday, June 5

Music: Dorothy Rose viola senior recital, Davidson Music Building 218, 7 pm. ($)

Health and wellness fair set for May 27

Students, faculty and staff are invited to a "healthy lifestyles" health and wellness fair from 11 am to 1 pm on Wednesday, May 27, in UU 220. Door prizes will be given away, and information will be available from the Arthritis Foundation, Crux Climbing Gym, Cal Poly Rec Sports, the personal trainer company Strictly Personal, Beauty Divine Aromatherapy, Miracle Ear Hearing Aids, BackStage Pizza, and SLO Kick Boxing.

Rece local businesses will offer free health screenings and free Rec Center passes for summer quarter. Cal Poly's Exercise Science and Health Promotion Club will give body composition and blood pressure tests. Watch for details in a full-page flyer. The event is sponsored by the Employee Assistance Program.

New fees to be charged for UU rooms

Beginning July 1, new University Union and Plaza reservation fees, approved by the ASI Board of Directors, will be charged. A copy of the new fee schedule may be picked up at the UU Information Center. The fee schedule is also on-line at the ASI Web page, www.asi.calpoly.00

Music students win Allied Arts contest

Four music majors won cash prizes in the eighth annual Allied Arts/Berry Evans Music Competition in Cambria.

Shelane Singh, a senior, won the first prize of $750 for a piano composition for her piano interpretations of music by Debussy and Prokofiev.

Kathleen Rupp, a senior, won first place vocalist. She was awarded $375 for her presentation of music by Richard Strauss and Francois Fenelot.

Ellen Delmore Van Slyke, a senior, won second-place vocalist and $500. She sang music by Handel and Florence Price.

Frank Marino, a sophomore received $150 as a finalist. The bassist performed music by Capuzzi and David Walter. ($)

NEWSSWONNERS W E L L S E N S E D FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS

President Baker presented awards to several students, two university organization leaders and a professor at the 11th annual President's Awards for Community Service. Jennifer Nevels, a senior biology student, and Stephen Bennett, a junior in social sciences, won individual awards for long-term community volunteer involvement. Reed~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~