Position vacancies

Continued from page 3

CAL POLY REPORT. AUGUST 19, 1999

Position vacancies

Continued from page 3

Cash positions in faculty

positions are contacted to ask the appropriate department at the phone number listed for more information on an application. Please submit all applications materials to the department chair unless otherwise specified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications, experience, and time the position is available.

#93020: Lecturer Pool (part-time), Business Department, (805) 756-4720. Possible openings during winter and spring quarters 1999 to provide supervision of student teachers of social sciences in a middle school setting. Must possess a current California teaching credential in the social sciences, have experience as a master teacher and experience teaching credential to credential candidates. Master's degree preferred. Apply to Carolyn Stefano, chair, History Department. Closing date: Sept. 30.

#93022: Department Head, Food Science and Nutrition Department, (805) 756-2165. Full-time, 12-month, tenure-track position available July 1, 1999. Provide leadership for department and teach in area of expertise (tenure-track on teaching portion of position). Minimum qualifications include: Ph.D. in food science, nutrition, or related field; demonstrated commitment to involvement with science and practice of food science and nutrition; demonstrated administrative ability; peer leadership activities; strong personnel management skills; record of active participation in professional societies; substantial interaction with food and nutrition industries; ability to provide leadership in development of external funding support for department. Successful university teaching experience preferred. Familiarity with both fields of food science and nutrition highly desirable. Evidence of scholarly activities to merit appointment to the rank of professor is required. Contact College of Agriculture for applications/information at (805) 756-2161; fax: 756-6577. Apply to David Wehrli, Ph.D., Consultant Committee chair, College of Agriculture (dwehrli@calpoly.edu). Closing date: October 30.

#93018: Tenure-Track Positions, Materials Engineering Department, (805) 756-2568. Position(s) available beginning September 1999, contingent upon funding. Duties include teaching, advising, and research in the field of materials engineering.

Please don't e-mail news to an individual. Your article might sit unattended upon upload. Duties include teaching, advising, and research in the field of materials engineering. Subject areas primarily at the undergraduate level. Ph.D. in materials engineering or related engineering field required. Closing date: January 1.

#9014: Assistant/Associate Professor, Finance Area, College of Business, (805) 756-2490. Full-time, tenure-track position available beginning fall 1999, contingent upon funding. Ph.D. with finance or financial economics emphasis or equivalent is required and prior to fall 1999. Finance specialties desired: financial engineering, derivatives, financial market and institutions. Seek individuals with strong research potential and demonstrated commitment to teaching at both undergraduate and MBA level teaching. Apply to Kenneth Rienzi, Finance, or to Barney Feder, associate department chair.

#93017: Assistant Professor, College of Business, (805) 756-2670. Full-time, tenure-track position available beginning fall 1999, contingent upon funding. A Ph.D. in finance or related field required. Closing date: January 1.

#9101: Associate Professor, College of Business, (805) 756-4720. Full-time, tenure-track position available beginning fall 1999, contingent upon funding. Ph.D. in finance or related field required. Closing date: January 1.

Salary/benefits: The hiring salary and benefits are commensurate with qualifications, experience, and time the position is available.

Applications and nominations: Interested applicants should complete a Cal Poly management application and submit a current resume, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three professional references. The Cal Poly management application must be accompanied by a letter of interest in the position and a current resume. All foundation applications must be received (not just postmarked) by 5 pm of the closing date. (No faxes)

Payroll Supervisor, Foundation Business Office. Salary commensurate with experience. Requirements: High school or equivalent and four years progressively responsible experience in keeping, reviewing, and correcting detailed numerical or financial records including current years directly involved with the processing of payroll. Minimum one year supervisory experience including ability to identify and maintain endowed funds. Kronos timekeeping system, PeopleSoft HR/IR softwar e, and PERS system required. Must have the ability to review detailed records or transactions and identify errors. Ten-key, computer literate, Word and Excel preferred. Must have good oral and written communication skills. Closing date: Aug. 28.

Reducing stress is aim of Aug. 26 Health Fair

The campus community is invited to a free Health and Wellness Fair from 11 am to 1 pm, Wednesday, Aug. 26, in UU. The College of Agriculture and Human Ecology is sponsoring the Health Fair.

The fair will focus on reducing stress for employees and their families. A variety of workshops will be available, including aromatherapy, acupressure, massage, psychology, family and marriage counseling, stress reduction, mindfulness, health food, and the Consumer Council of San Luis Obispo. This event is sponsored by the College of Agriculture and Human Ecology.

The College of Agriculture and Human Ecology is sponsoring the Health Fair.

Send news to polynews@calpoly.edu

For the Cal Poly Report or off-campus distribution, should be sent to polynews@calpoly.edu

CAL POLY ARTS 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Of Aug. 19, 1998

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.

Cal Poly Arts 'On the road'

Dance companies to perform include the Alexander String Quartet, Granton-Garner winner Anne Murray, Irish singer Mary Black, vocalist Bazz Gibson and the New Orleans Hot Jazz ensemble, a Hawaiian Slack Key Festival, Mezio-soprano Marilyn Horne, gospel singer Mavis Staples, Academy of St. Martin in the Fields chamber orchestra, Wyngus Marsalis and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, and the 14-piece salsa band Cubanismo.
Cal Poly Report, August 19, 1998

Cakeable, it is also printed on recycled paper. For information call ext. 6-1511. Continued on page 4

Clal Poly Arts

Continued from page 1

Library to be closed Sept. 10

The Kennedy Library will be closed all day Thursday, Sept. 10, so that library faculty and staff members can participate in planning workshops for the coming year. The library will re-open at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

In those two years, at least one major event will be carried out.

In the fall of 1998, Cal Poly will host the annual meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, where and when in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.

The discounts are offered to faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games.

Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

Buying tickets to at least two events by Saturday, Aug. 22, qualifies patrons to send to see the fall schedule.

At 5 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 10, the library will be closed and open again at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event.

We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report, and if you also intend to mail a flier, please send just a small announcement for the Cal Poly Report.

We’d love to index the basic data, what, when and where in a small one- or two-paragraph article, in which we’ll also call readers to watch their mailboxes for more information.
Football season tickets being discounted

Football fans can receive a $10 discount on season football tickets bought through Aug. 21. The discounts are offered for faculty and staff members for both reserved and general-admission tickets to all five home games. Reserved season tickets bought through Aug. 21 sell for $35; after that they will be $45. The general admission season ticket price is $20 through Aug. 21.

The Mustangs are coming off their best season in more than a decade, finishing 10-1 and ranking 16th in the nation last season. Call ext. 5-8506 for a schedule and reservations.

Library to be closed Sept. 10

The Kennedy Library will be closed all day Thursday, Sept. 10, so that library faculty and staff members can participate in planning workshops for the coming year. The library will re-open at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.

In those few special arrangements for Sept. 10 should call the dean's office at ext. 2-6545.

Appointments

- Charles W. Jennings has been appointed chair of the Art and Design Department.
- Dianne Long, a member of the Political Science Department, has been named chair of the department.
- David Sedaris will hold a meeting at 8:30 a.m. Friday, Aug. 21.
- Elizabeth Brunner, English Graduate Student, has been named chair of the department.
- The Kennedy Library will be closed all day Thursday, Sept. 10, so that library faculty and staff members can participate in planning workshops for the coming year. The library will re-open at 8 a.m. Friday, Sept. 11.
- In those few special arrangements for Sept. 10 should call the dean's office at ext. 2-6545.

Please, please, please: let's not be repetitive

Funding a university-wide event? Are you going to publicize it in the Cal Poly Report? Perhaps you're also preparing a flyer to send to the community.

The Communications Office applauds all efforts to ensure a successful event. We do, however, ask: If you plan to publicize an activity or program in the Cal Poly Report:

- Keep those cards and letters coming.
- Even though it's summer and things have been slower, we're still interested in publishing your views in the Cal Poly Report's "Piece of Mind" section.
- All communications to the faculty and staff can expand their opinions or information about university matters.
- We want to improve campus communication on individual issues and help expand university-wide policies and procedures.
- Letters received by Aug. 10 Thursday will be published in the next Wednesday's issue. If you have a tight deadline, submit them typed and double-spaced.
- If you have a tight deadline, submit them typed and double-spaced.
- You can include your name, department, and a phone number for verification.
- The Communications Office always looks for new ways to disseminate information, and the Web is just one method. Comments and suggestions are always welcomed. Call us at ext. 2-6511.

Keep those cards and letters coming.

You're browsing a look at the latest edition of the university and alumni magazine, Cal Poly Magazine, or at The Credit Report, which highlights faculty and staff members' achievements.

If you want basic details about Cal Poly and its programs, click on "Quick Facts." The Communications Office is always looking for new ways to disseminate information, and the Web is just one method. Comments and suggestions are always welcomed. Call us at ext. 2-6511.
First day of classes coincides with religious holiday

Rosh Hashanah, a holy high day marking the new year in the Jewish calendar, falls on Monday, Sept. 21, the first day of Cal Poly’s fall quarter classes. Although state regulations do not allow a state university to designate any religious holiday other than Christmas (which does not occur during an institutional period) as an academic holiday, Cal Poly faculty will be urged to support students whose “observance of Rosh Hashanah in the traditional manner might prohibit their attending the first day of classes,” said Paul Zingg, provost and vice president for academic affairs.

Students inquiring about the conflict have been told to seek permission from their professors to be absent the time of the day of the quarter. However, since the university cannot be sure all students have received these instructions, Zingg will ask the faculty not to drop any student or to adjust class rolls until the second week of the quarter.

“We are a public institution subject to state law,” Lee wrote. “In these matters, we are a respectful community, and as such, we should be supportive of the wishes of our students to observe Rosh Hashanah,” Zingg said. 0

Reducing stress is aim of Aug. 26 Health Fair

The campus community is invited to a free Health and Wellness Fair from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 26, in UU 220.

The fair will focus on reducing stress for employees and their families. Information will be available from specialists in many health-related fields including aromatherapy, acupressure, aromatherapy, psychological, family and marriage counseling, stress reduction, mindfulness, health food, and the Consumer Credit Counseling Center, SLO Athletic Club, and Body Work.

Door prizes will be given away, 0

Send news to polynews@polymail

Any news you’d like to e-mail to the Communication Office, send to the Cal Poly Report or off-campus distribution, should be sent to polynews@polymail.

Please don’t e-mail news to an individual. Your article might sit unnoticed at the bottom of the off-campus mailing list. “Polynews” goes to three people.

First day of classes coincides with religious holiday

Rosh Hashanah, a holy high day marking the new year in the Jewish calendar, falls on Monday, Sept. 21, the first day of Cal Poly’s fall quarter classes. Although state regulations do not allow a state university to designate any religious holiday other than Christmas (which does not occur during an institutional period) as an academic holiday, Cal Poly faculty will be urged to support students whose “observance of Rosh Hashanah in the traditional manner might prohibit their attending the first day of classes,” said Paul Zingg, provost and vice president for academic affairs.

Students inquiring about the conflict have been told to seek permission from their professors to be absent the time of the day of the quarter. However, since the university cannot be sure all students have received these instructions, Zingg will ask the faculty not to drop any student or to adjust class rolls until the second week of the quarter.

“We are a public institution subject to state law,” Lee wrote. “In these matters, we are a respectful community, and as such, we should be supportive of the wishes of our students to observe Rosh Hashanah,” Zingg said. 0

Reducing stress is aim of Aug. 26 Health Fair

The campus community is invited to a free Health and Wellness Fair from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 26, in UU 220.

The fair will focus on reducing stress for employees and their families. Information will be available from specialists in many health-related fields including aromatherapy, acupressure, aromatherapy, psychological, family and marriage counseling, stress reduction, mindfulness, health food, and the Consumer Credit Counseling Center, SLO Athletic Club, and Body Work.

Door prizes will be given away, 0

Send news to polynews@polymail

Any news you’d like to e-mail to the Communication Office, send to the Cal Poly Report or off-campus distribution, should be sent to polynews@polymail.

Please don’t e-mail news to an individual. Your article might sit unnoticed at the bottom of the off-campus mailing list. “Polynews” goes to three people.

Former Dominguez Hills president to work at Cal Poly

Robert C. Detweiler, retired president of California State University, Dominguez Hills, has been named a trustee professor at Cal Poly by CSU Chancellor Charles B. Reed.

Detweiler, 60, who began his academic career as a scholar of Colonial and Revolutionary American history and the history of slavery and racism in America, will bring to Cal Poly more than two decades of experience in higher education and service on several campus and system-level boards. He is expected to begin teaching classes this fall.

“Mr. Detweiler is a distinguished academic and campus leader who has served in key leadership roles at two major public research institutions,” Reed said. “I am very pleased Dr. Detweiler chose to come to Cal Poly, ” President Warren J. Baker said. “His distinguished career as a scholar and teacher of American history, his many years of administrative experience in the CSU, and his service on several campus and system-wide commissions will benefit our university. ” Detweiler will also collaborate with Provost Paul Zingg on several administrative projects, including a review of Extended Education and efforts to support campus diversity.

As president of the Cal Poly Dominguez Hills campus in the south-central Los Angeles area for nine years, Detweiler led the campus, the second-largest in the CSU system, to an increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees.

“Dominguez Hills is an exemplary campus, overseeing a 30 percent increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees,” Reed said. “I am very pleased Dr. Detweiler chose to come to Cal Poly, ” President Warren J. Baker said. “His distinguished career as a scholar and teacher of American history, his many years of administrative experience in the CSU, and his service on several campus and system-wide commissions will benefit our university. ” Detweiler will also collaborate with Provost Paul Zingg on several administrative projects, including a review of Extended Education and efforts to support campus diversity.

As president of the Cal Poly Dominguez Hills campus in the south-central Los Angeles area for nine years, Detweiler led the campus, the second-largest in the CSU system, to an increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees.

“Dominguez Hills is an exemplary campus, overseeing a 30 percent increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees,” Reed said. “I am very pleased Dr. Detweiler chose to come to Cal Poly, ” President Warren J. Baker said. “His distinguished career as a scholar and teacher of American history, his many years of administrative experience in the CSU, and his service on several campus and system-wide commissions will benefit our university. ” Detweiler will also collaborate with Provost Paul Zingg on several administrative projects, including a review of Extended Education and efforts to support campus diversity.

As president of the Cal Poly Dominguez Hills campus in the south-central Los Angeles area for nine years, Detweiler led the campus, the second-largest in the CSU system, to an increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees.

“Dominguez Hills is an exemplary campus, overseeing a 30 percent increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees,” Reed said. “I am very pleased Dr. Detweiler chose to come to Cal Poly, ” President Warren J. Baker said. “His distinguished career as a scholar and teacher of American history, his many years of administrative experience in the CSU, and his service on several campus and system-wide commissions will benefit our university. ” Detweiler will also collaborate with Provost Paul Zingg on several administrative projects, including a review of Extended Education and efforts to support campus diversity.

As president of the Cal Poly Dominguez Hills campus in the south-central Los Angeles area for nine years, Detweiler led the campus, the second-largest in the CSU system, to an increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees.

“Dominguez Hills is an exemplary campus, overseeing a 30 percent increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees,” Reed said. “I am very pleased Dr. Detweiler chose to come to Cal Poly, ” President Warren J. Baker said. “His distinguished career as a scholar and teacher of American history, his many years of administrative experience in the CSU, and his service on several campus and system-wide commissions will benefit our university. ” Detweiler will also collaborate with Provost Paul Zingg on several administrative projects, including a review of Extended Education and efforts to support campus diversity.

As president of the Cal Poly Dominguez Hills campus in the south-central Los Angeles area for nine years, Detweiler led the campus, the second-largest in the CSU system, to an increase in enrollment that created a student body of 12,500 and more than 5,000 employees. 0