Chinese culture, tradition topic of lecture series

Aspects of Chinese Culture and Tradition" is the title of a lecture series sponsored by the College of Architecture and Environmental Design to be held at 7 p.m. Fridays.

The talks are being held in conjunction with the U. of Cal Poly’s current exhibit of classical Chinese garden designs, which runs through March 9.

- Terry Clay, Landscape Architecture, and Alice Lob, Architecture, "The Value of Feng Shui Principles in Planning and Design," April 6, Architecture Gallery (Room 105).

The lecture series is sponsored by the U. of Cal Poly’s, the ASI and the College of Architecture and Environmental Design. For details, call Chab at ext. 6-2015.

Health Fair to be in UU 220

ChicagO dance company to perform March 9 & 10

The Chicago-based River North Dance Company will showcase popular music and popular dance in the form of hip hop, tap and ballroom in two shows at 8 p.m Tuesday and Wednesday, March 9-10, in the Theatre. Led by artistic director Sherry Zunker, the company has enjoyed critical praise for its innovative, diverse and entertaining repertories.

"River North is attracting big, wildly appreciative audiences," said the Chicago Sun-Times. "With energetic, marvelously trained performers and a dynamic, entertaining scenography, River North has what it takes to survive in a tough arts market... Particularly sets the stage on fire... Unabashedly, unashamedly entertaining, River North is the real deal for a city that craves its culture." The company’s upcoming repertory is a study in contrasts - hard work and play, city and country, new and old, high and low, joy and sorrow, and above all, new and old.

Tickets cost $15 to $21.

Art and Design to hold pre-opera party March 12

The Art and Design Department and Studio, Art and Design Department will host a benefit party from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Friday, March 12, in the University Art Gallery before the premiere of the Pacific Opera Project’s "I Pagliacci" and "Suor Angelica.

The party, titled "Bring On the Clown," is designed to raise money and recruit additional ticket sales for these classic operas, said art professor Henry Wessells. Partygoers will be able to enjoy the University Art Gallery current exhibit of bird art. Before the party, tickets can be purchased "exposure," on view through March 14.

The event will benefit the Denton Waters Memorial Art Scholarship Fund. Tickets cost $25. Students with student identification will be admitted free of charge.

The performance is being held in the Performing Arts Center’s Boardroom. For tickets to the pre-opera party, call ext. 6-1711 or Wessells at 541-2212.

CAL POLY REPORT, FEBRUARY 24, 1999

S.A.F.E.R. Program seeks 'Real men', 'Real women'

The S.A.F.E.R. (Sexual Assault-Free Environment Resources) Program is sponsoring a university-wide search for the 20 "best" men and women to give sexual assault and educational presentations to men’s and women’s groups on campus.

"Real Men" and "Real Women" are those who demonstrate a respect for the fact that sex should be "shared, not taken," and those who have an understanding that everyone deserves to be treated with consideration without regard to sex or sexual orientation.

Those chosen will be trained and a poster with the winners’ photos and personal stories will be printed and displayed throughout campus.

Students and faculty members are encouraged to enter the contest. For an application, stop by the Peer Health Education Office downstairs in the Ewing Student Center. Ext. 6-2622.

Applications are due to the Peer Health Education office by Thursday, March 4.

No awards can be made for re-lease time. This year $7,500 is available. The review committee does not anticipate granting any major award to any one individual or project. Last year the average amount awarded was just under $1,700. Proposals are due to be submitted no later than fall quarter 1999, although exemptions can be granted. The $7,500 Summer Jobs Grant proposal (no more than two pages) along with the Seed Grant Application Form, available for more information, Education and Programs office, ext. 6-6161. Applications are due by Friday, April 8. The application forms will be used to prioritize proposals:

- Proposals that directly affect students and provide international education opportunities on their behalf will be given the highest priority.

- Preference will be given to proposals that carry up to a 50 percent match from another source, such as a faculty member's department fund budget.

- Preference will be given to faculty members who have never received an International Education and Program seed grant.

- Recipients of awards last year must submit their Post-Activity Report before applying this year.

- Proposals must directly benefit Cal Poly students, the faculty and the university.

- Proposals involving countries in the Pacific Basin (those with borders on or close to the Pacific Ocean) and the
